FRIDAY, MARCH 25, 1904.

Anti-saloon caucus tomorrow evening.

For Rent—Hotel property on Main street. Apply at this office.

Many people wear out because they rust out. Keeping busy at some work will prolong life.

Don't forget the basket social to be given in the school house of the Porter district Monday evening, March 31.

Ray Cannon and wife are receiving the congratulations of their legion of friends on the arrival at their home of a handsome 12 pound boy.

Confirmation will be held next Sunday, which is Palm Sunday, in the Lutheran church. A large number of young people are to be confirmed this year.

One way to keep trouble out of the family circle is for the heads of the household to do a lot of forgetting to say hateful things about the little affairs of life.

Are you going to attend the Y. M. C. A. leap year basket social tonight? If so, ladies, please remember your purses and, boys, please remember your lunches.

The Women's Relief Corps gave another of their periodical card parties Wednesday evening. About twenty attended and were pleased with the evening's amusement.

Prouty & Jenks have purchased the agricultural implement business of F. H. Frye. They will carry a complete line of agricultural implements, wagons carriages etc.

Rev. J. G. Fielder, pastor of Salem Evangelical church of this village, was elected one of the presiding elders by the United Evangelical conference in session at Chadwick, Ill.

Rev. K. Nakagama, a Japanese who is a student for the ministry at Northwestern university, will address the meeting of the Y.M.C.A. at the room next Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

A number of friends and schoolmates of Myrtle Plagge tendered her a surprise party in honor of her fourteenth birthday. All report a very enjoyable time. Promotors were Almeada Plagge and Dolley Meier.

The Northwestern Railway company recently agreed to pay $21000, to the heirs of Rev. and Mrs. Polley who were killed recently at Carr by a train. It is said without a headlight and running at the rate of about 60 miles an hour.

A report is passing around town which is not confirmed to the effect that Peter Nedermeier, one of the car barn bandits, at one time was employed at the Chicago Highlands foundry. Whether the story is entirely untrue or based on facts is not known.

Regular services at the Baptist church Sunday. Preaching at 10:30. At the evening meeting the music will be special. The pastor will speak on "The Place of Music in Religious Service." Sacred songs will be sung to secular music. All are invited. Young People's society at 6:45.

On last Friday night the Royal Neighbors and their husbands were entertained at a card party, by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schewm who reside near Spring Lake. A supper was served and another pleasant evening added to the long list of Royal Neighbors good times.

"Pauline Hall, who is meeting with such great success in vaudeville this week at Cleveland's theatre, has just closed a contract with Schubert Bros. whereby she will be starred in "Erminie" again. Therefore this will be Miss Hall's last appearance in vaudeville.

A Basket Social, will be held in the North church in District No. 8 Barrington township on Wednesday evening March 30th, 1904. Pupils, from the "Miss Orpha Oldgirl's Boarding school" will assist in giving a good program. Everybody come and enjoy the evening. Proceeds to be given for school furniture.

Beginning with Sunday matinee, March 27, Manager Cleveland has another big bill for his patrons. There will not be less than nine top notch numbers on the program and Chicagoans will for the first time have an opportunity of witnessing the marvelous Sisters Gasch, lady acrobats, the greatest of all the sensational European novelties has been booked for the successful Cleveland theatre. It is now a common occurrence for this, the largest of Chicago's theatres, to turn people away, the entertainment merits the patronage. The daily matinees have become a fad with the gentler sex and the little ones.

Among those indicted last week in Judge Baum's court, Chicago, were Frances B. Wright, formerly cashier of the First National bank of Dundee, Ill. He was charged with embezzlement and misapplying the funds and credits of the bank which recently opened its doors after a period of closure and financial distress. $64200 is alleged said to have been misappropriated by him.

Next Sunday, morning and evening Mr. Nakagawa, a Japanese theological student will occupy the pulpit of the Salem church. In the morning he will tell how he became a Christian; in the evening he will speak on the religious conditions of Japan. The services will be in English. The morning service begins at 10:30 and the evening service at 7:45. The public is cordially invited.

The pupils of the Porter school will give a fruit social at the school house west of Barrington, Thursday evening, March 31, 8 o'clock. A good program will be given. Jesse V. Steven, president of the Illinois Musical college, will be present and will favor the audience with a number of vocal selections. Admission free. The ladies are expected to provide boxes, baskets or sacks containing fruit and other eatables. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.
