REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE AWARD CONTEST DELEGATES TO PRESIDENT.

ONE VOTE FOR ROOSEVELT

Ex-President Is Given One From the Eleventh District—Fight During Session of Body Was of the Most Spirited Nature.

CONTESTS SETTLED TO DATE.

	Won by Taft.	By Roosevelt.
Alabama	16	..
Arkansas	16	..
Florida	12	..
Georgia	28	..
Indiana	12	..
Kentucky	17	1
Total	101	1

Chicago, June 13.—President Taft was awarded seventeen of the eighteen contested delegates from Kentucky and Colonel Roosevelt secured one before the Republican national committee here Tuesday. This brings President Taft's total up to 101, and that of Colonel Roosevelt 1. The fight in committee was spirited.

The one contested Roosevelt delegate seated got his place in the Eleventh district.

The other Roosevelt delegate in Kentucky will come from the Fifth district, where the district convention agreed to divide its representation at Chicago between the two candidates.

All of the other delegates from Kentucky are now instructed for Taft. Taft awards by the national committee included the four delegates-at-large, headed by Senator W. O. Bradley; two delegates each from the First, Second, Fourth, Seventh, Eighth and Tenth districts and one from the Eleventh district.

In the contest over the delegates-at-large the Taft men were seated by a vote of 38 to 11. Alfred T. Rogers, Senator La Follette's personal committeeman from Wisconsin, voted with the Taft men.

In the First district fight the vote to seat the Taft men was 46 to 0, the Roosevelt men voting with the Tafters. In the Second the roll call showed a vote for 51 to 0. Messrs. Heney and Hadley did not vote. In the Fourth district the Roosevelt contestants were withdrawn and the Taft men seated unanimously. In the Seventh district the vote for the Taft men was 38 to 13 and in the Eighth, 35 to 17.

In the Tenth district fight the Taft men won, 52 to 0. In the Eleventh a motion to seat the two Roosevelt men failed by 19 to 33, and then the delegation was unanimously divided between the Taft men and the Roosevelters. This ended the day's work.
