The estate of Mrs. Anna Leseberg of Palatine, who died intestate January 12, is valued at $4000, all in personal property, according to Mitchell C. Rohlfs, clerk of the Cook county probate court. Illinois' Motorists Must Have Licenses to Drive by May 1

Barrington motorists have until May 1 to obtain their state drivers' licenses. On that date, the statutory grace period expires illegal for an Illinois resident to operate an automobile without his license.

Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes has issued 1,500,000 licenses since the driver's license bill was passed at Springfield last July. Another 1,000,000 persons are expected to apply during the next few weeks.

Of the first 1,000,000 applicants, 8500 were required to take examinations for driving. Restricted permits were issued to 2600 persons not fully qualified to drive and special control devices were ordered installed for drivers handicapped physically.

The deaf were ordered to install rear view mirrors, for instance, and a one legged man would probably be required to have a special hand brake in his car.

Fifty-two applicants were refused licenses, some being nearly blind and others epileptic.

Truck drivers, chauffeurs and all operators of automobiles who have state chauffeurs' licenses are required to get drivers' licenses.

Although a week or two of grace is usually granted after the May 1 deadline before arrests are made for driving without a license, other states are not expected to be lenient. An Illinois motorist driving in other states will be subject to arrest after May 1.

Decorations for Wedding Day

On the island of Papua (or New Guinea) the natives decorate themselves gayly on their wedding days, using bright-colored feathers, bone ornaments, shells and beads. The main part of the wedding is a simple action—the groom goes to the bride's home, takes her by the hand and leads her to the new home he has made ready.
