H. D. Kelsey Is in Line for Chairmanship County Board

county board to the town boards in 1931 without making any provision for taking care of poor and needy people prior to a time when town funds could be raised through taxation, Mr. Kelsey organized and managed a series of three entertainments to raise funds for immediate needs. This series included a dance in the Jewel Tea Co. building, a benefit movie at the Catlow theater, and a card party at Biltmore Country club. Approximately $500 was cleared from these entertainments—enough to tide the township poor relief agency over until after an appropriation was made in the tax levy.

In the matter of tax reduction, Mr. Kelsey was the first supervisor to appear before the county board of review to ask for a general assessment cut. He and other supervisors especially interested in lower taxes were influential in bringing about the blanket reduction of 15 per cent on all Lake county real estate assessment. At the same time he voted for a drastic cut in the county budget which has made possible a 9 per cent reduction in county tax rate in addition to the 15 per cent real estate property assessment slice.

Cuba township has received fair treatment from the county while Mr. Kelsey has been supervisor. As a member of the road and bridge committee he has helped lay plans for $150,000 worth of county road work in the township. This includes a plan for building of new roads which when carried out will improve the highway system and bring employment to men in the township.

Mr. Kelsey shouldered the fight to retain a county veterinarian. The veterinarian was retained, and subsequent development in the Chicago milk situation shows the result was of benefit to Lake county dairy farmers.

Business men of Barrington appreciate the fact that during the last two years more than $1000 of county business, which previously went to Waukegan, has come to Barrington.

Has Scarlet Fever

Carolyn Nightingale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Nightingale of Garfield street, is under quarantine for scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Herriman, 542 Grove avenue, were called to Cadillac, Mich., Friday because of the death of Mr. Herriman's father, R. W. Herriman.

The condition of George Wessel who is a patient at the Frances Willard hospital is improving.

New Barrington Scout Troop Receives Charter in Ceremony at Church

In an appropriate church service held at the St. Paul church in Barrington February 12, the anniversary of Lincoln's day of birth, troop 29 of the Barrington Boy Scouts, was presented with a charter by Chief Nimts of Park Ridge. This troop is sponsored by the Sunday school of St. Paul's church.

John Bell, Barrington district chairman of boy scouts of the Northwest Suburban area, outlined briefly the organization of boy scouts. He declared that scouting is "known as the greatest movement for boys."

The United States is divided into regions, these regions divided into groups or councils, and these again into districts. Each district has troops and each troop must be sponsored by some organization, as a Lions club, a church, etc. All men serving in boy scout activities give their services free except the chief of the group. The district is organized into communities, each with a chairman, to serve the various interests of local boy scout work. The chairman of St. Paul Lutheran church committee has as his duty organization of the men and women in this church, behind the scouts of troop 29. "The Scouts is an organization that builds men," he impressed upon his listeners.

Ten Boys in Troop

Ten boys received recognition in the church service for having met all requirements in the tenderfoot stage of scouting. This recognition ceremony was conducted by members of troop 21. The ceremony was very impressive. In presenting the charter to troop 29, the scout chief passed words of inspiration and encouragement to the members. This is the third boy scout troop to be organized in Barrington; this village now has about 75 scouts.

There are about 675,000 boys in the United States living for the principles of scouting. A boy who is in scouting is a better boy at home, and a better student in school, the scout chief explained and added that it is fine for a troop to be sponsored by a church.

Following the ceremonies, Rev. H. E. Koenig, pastor of the St. Paul's Lutheran church, presented a message in which he illustrated the various principles for which boy scouts are required to live, by drawing incidents and characteristics from the life of Abraham Lincoln. The principles upon which he touched included: trustworthiness, loyalty, helpfulness, friendliness, courtesy, kindness, obedience, cheerfulness, thrift, bravery, cleanliness, and reverence. He emphasized that Lincoln kept each one of the boy scout laws.

Cuba Candidates Circulate Papers for Second Tim

Attorney General Ruling Cause; 24 Candidates in Barrington Town

Some 12 or 13 candidates for offices in Cuba township who have been circulating their nomination papers during the last two weeks were sent scurrying back over the week early this week to request of their petition signers to affix the names over again on newly, printed papers.

Because of a ruling by Attorney General Otto Kerner that all nomination paper sheets had to be of uniform size and heading (thus eliminating second sheets without heading the various candidates for justice of the peace, clerk, etc., had to procure a brand new set of papers. Several of them had already filled their original sheets.

The contests in Barrington and Cuba townships are beginning to hit up the tops of war. In Cuba township there is one definite ticket arranged and another apparently in the making. In Barrington township the candidates are pulling independently but with 24 of them entered, the race is more of a fight than in Cuba.

The citizens party ticket in Cuba consists of H. D. Kelsey for supervisor, Andrew Grom for clerk, Charles Miller for assessor, Fred Krone and J. J. Chaude for justices of the peace, Leo L. Riley and Joe Welch for constables.

A second ticket is reported in the making built around Herman Kuhlman for supervisor (his papers have been taken out but not filed) and Edwin Wiemuth for clerk.

The Cuba town candidates who have filed their petitions are:

Supervisor—H. D. Kelsey and Herman Kuhlman.

Assessor—Charles Miller and Hugo Grote.

Clerk—Andrew Grom and Edwin Wiemuth.

Constables (two to be elected)—Joseph P. Welch, Leo Riley, and Henry Gross.

Justice of peace (two to be elected)—Fred Krone, Henry Jermusklewicz and J. J. Chaude and E. K. McGee.

Several other candidates have taken out nomination papers but had not filed them when The Review went to press.

The 24 candidates who have taken out nomination papers for offices in Barrington township are:

Assessor—J. C. Plagge and John Schwartz.

Supervisor—V. D. Hawley and John C. Mollenkamp.

Clerk—Henry Stoff.

Highway commissioner—August Reuter, George Jenyks, Bert Beckmann and George C. Walschlager.

Constable (two to be elected)—Harry M. Coffman, Matthew Peck, George M. Wagner, Sam E. Schaefer, and William Einecke.

Justice of peace (two to be elected)—F. H. Plagge, H. D. A. Grebe, and Arthur Catlow.

Tax collector—Russell Brockway, Mathilda Dierwaldt, William Popp and Mrs. Louisa Coe.

School trustee—William Krumfuss.

Barrington Scouts May Get All-Year Home in Local Park

If certain plans in behalf of the Barrington boy scouts can be carried out, three scouts will within a few months have a place of their own where they can hold meetings at any time in the year. This news came from the meeting of the Barrington district committee of the Northwest suburban council last Friday evening. The members of this committee are impressed with the fact that the local boy need to be engaged in wholesome activity during the summer months and that they should have a permanent place where they can meet as members of boy scout troops and where they will not be distracted from their boy scout program by secondary interests.

Members of the Barrington district committee have realized for some time that the local troop should have a real boy scout home, which the boys can decorate and equip for their weekly and other scout meetings and where they will not be disturbed. These members are working out a plan at present for either moving a 16 by 20 foot building to the east end of Russell street playground or for erecting a new building at that site. The park board has been asked to cooperate in the plan to provide a home for the boys. More definite information will be available later.

Four courts of honor are to be held in Barrington during this year. The board of review will meet on February 27, May 8, September 18 and November 27; and the courts of honor will meet on March 13, May 22, October 2 and December 11. Each date is on a Monday night. The boys of the local troop know the importance of these dates.

Hold Booster Meetings
