Seniors Entertained by Juniors

The Junior-Senior banquet and prom of Saturday evening was one of the lovely occasions of the school year.

The banquet was served by the ladies of the Methodist church in the church parlors. Many beautiful garden flowers were used in the decorations and a color scheme of purple and white was evident on the tables. Henry Brandt was toastmaster of the program that had as its title, "Our Memory Book." William Beerman spoke to the classmates and friends. The faculty was represented by Miss Esther McKenzie; Activities, Miss Gladys Kemper; Awards, Mr. Smith; Snap-shots, Lorna Ketel; and the Cover, Mr. Lang.

Dancing and games in the school gymnasium followed the banquet with Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Dotterer and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Smith as chaperons.

Miss Anabel Leonhard is sponsor of the junior class and under her direction the juniors carried out their program beautifully. The gymnasium was turned into a delightful play garden with a purple and white canopy, lawn furniture, lattice work covered with blush blossoms and baskets of peonies and iris seemingly everywhere. The girls in their pretty organdy dresses of sunny colors and the boys in their blue coats and white flannel trousers completed the lovely June scene.

Foreign Missionary Speaks

The Gleaner class and Woman's Union of the St. Paul church entertained members of the Home Department and the Cradle roll Thursday afternoon. The main feature of the program was a talk by Miss Hedwig Schaeffer, a foreign missionary who is here on a furlough. Her subject was "Women of India" and she spoke in particular of the following three classes of Indian women: the wealthy, well educated women who are taking an active part in the political life of the nation and who are trying to better the conditions of the less fortunate women; the second class who are also wealthy but who are kept in seclusion and uneducated, and the lower class who are the hard working and very poor people. It is the second class with whom the missionaries are working especially. The children of the third class are being educated at the missions; their mothers attend also.

A vocal duet by Mrs. A. Mitchell and Miss Verna Brandt were included in the program.

The topic, subject, getting acquainted with the Reformed church, was read by Mrs. August Reuter.

A social hour and refreshments followed.

The bride wore the same lovely white satin gown that was worn by her younger sister, Polly, a bride of last June. Mrs. Bateman wore a simple short veil of tulle with a pearl cap. Her flowers were white orchids and valley lilies.

Special Legislation for Cook County Disposal

There is some fear that the state of Illinois will be called upon to pay the $139,000,000 bill for the completion of the sewage disposal project for the sanitary district for the city of Chicago. This has been brought about by recent decision of the United States supreme court. Special legislation may be passed making it possible for Cook county to take care of this entire matter.
