Barrington Woman's Club

The annual Christmas party of the Woman's club will be held Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 13, at two o'clock in the Catlow theatre.

A very different and delightful program, in the form of a Christmas pageant in which members of the dramatic classes of the high school will participate, is being planned by Mrs. Robert Morgan and committee.

As has been the custom in previous years the members of the club will bring gifts for the children of the Little Wanderers Home Nursery.

The regular monthly meeting of the Girl Scouts Community committee was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Muir Monday afternoon. Plans were made for the girl scout program.

The total receipts from the Red Cross drive, sponsored by the Barrington Woman's club, amounted to $242.

The Twentieth Century club of Park Ridge has extended to us an invitation for their meeting Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 12, at two o'clock, at the Mary Wilson Schoolhouse.

Mrs. C. W. Kuy and Mrs. John Plagge have been appointed as representatives of the Barrington Woman's club to work with the sponsors of the boy scouts on their ten-year boy scout program.

Announcement is made of a donation by the Woman's club to the Illinois Childrens' Home and Aid Society, and an additional gift to the local girl scout organization that is sponsored by the club. This is in keeping with the original plan for the expenditure of the proceeds of the party held on October 28, for philanthropy.

Barrington Hills

Mr. and Mrs. William Horne and their two children have taken an apartment in town for the winter while their new home is being remodeled. Mrs. Sam Ross and her two children have deserted Barrington for the golden west. They left Monday to spend several months in California. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rudolph instead of returning to Barrington as they expected have gone to Washington, D. C. for the winter. Mr. Russell Pettingill has returned to New York. Combining business with pleasure, he attended the Chicago-Dartmouth football game. Mr. and Mrs. Potter L. Smith have given up their plans of moving into Evanston for the winter and are going to stay in Barrington.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clark had several of their friends in Thanksgiving morning for a Tom and Jerry. Among the many guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Douglass who came out from Evanston to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Clara Klingenberg. Miss Julia Otis and Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Otis stopped in before going to Wauconda to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scott. Mrs. Clark's mother Mrs. John Douglass will spend Christmas in Florida but expects to be in Barrington before New Year's.

The Reading class met at Mrs. Leslie Hansen's last Tuesday. Mrs. Helen Roseing reviewed Ernest Hemmingway's new book, "Winner Take Nothing," Dorothy Parker's, "After Such Pleasures," and "The Christmas Tree" by Lady Eleanor Smith. Delicious refreshments were served and Mrs. Harry Clark and Mrs. Spencer Otis poured. Mrs. Roseing will give her next series of reviews at the home of Mrs. John Macauley Wednesday, Dec. 13.

Every Wednesday night a group of athletes gather at the Barrington high school gym to play basketball. There being more men than girls the game is not only fast and furious but very hilarious. Among the players on the two mixed teams are: Mrs. Robert Clark, Lawrence Bateman, John Farrar, Miss Billee White and Dr. and Mrs. Curtis Nelson.

Mrs. Lawrence Vilas is entertaining some of the "Bridge Widows" at a quail dinner Monday.

Mrs. Augusta Meyer Dies After An Illness of Six Months; Rites Monday

Mrs. Augusta Meyer, wife of the late August Meyer, died at her home, 403 Prairie avenue, at 11:30 a. m. Friday after an illness of six months. Funeral services were held there at 1:30 p. m. Monday and at the Salem Evangelical church at 2 p. m. with Rev. P. H. Beuscher officiating. Burial took place at Evergreen cemetery.

Mrs. Meyer had been well until about six months ago when she realized that her health was failing and upon the advice of her physician, entered the Sacred Heart sanitarium at Milwaukee, Wis., for treatment and rest. Her condition became alarming, and October 16 she submitted to a major operation at St. Joseph's hospital in that city. She returned to her home November 17 but complications developed from which she succumbed.

She was a beloved member of Salem Evangelical church and an active member of the Women's missionary society of that church.

Augusta Rote was born at Bosingfeld Germany, Dec. 8, 1868 and emigrated to America with relatives at the age of 14. She came to Barrington immediately and made it her home for the remainder of her life. At the age of 22 she was united in marriage to August Meyer who preceded her in death April 22, 1920. An infant son and a 16 year old daughter, Lillian, also preceded her in death.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. George Kuhlman of this village, one grandson, George J. Kuhlman, one brother William Rote of Elgin, and two sisters in Germany.

Hold Last Rites for John Donlea, 73-Year-Old Barrington Citizen

John Donlea, 73-year-old resident of Barrington, died early Sunday morning after an illness of almost three years. Funeral services were held at St. Anne church at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday with Rev. John A. Duffey officiating. Burial took place at Evergreen cemetery.

Mr. Donlea had suffered several strokes the first two years ago and the last one on Thanksgiving day. He was the son of Patrick and Ann Dingle and spent his boyhood on their farm four miles west of Barrington. He worked for the Chicago & North Western railroad when very young, then established a livery stable at Cary. For several years he held the position of marshal at Barrington and then became a cement contractor, that work being his occupation for the next twenty years.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Welch, and by three brothers, James, Thomas, and Will Donlea. Three brothers, Henry, Frank, and George, and one sister, Anna, preceded him in death.
