Civil and Spanish War Veterans at Cary and Grove Memorial Service

Memorial Day was fittingly observed here with services directed by the local post and auxiliary. The line of march started at Hack's inn at the river and proceeded up the Northwest highway to Legion park led by Frederick Arkephol, the only surviving Civil war veteran of the vicinity seated in an open car followed by the Legion, the band, and Auxiliary and the school children carrying a banner marked, "Future Legion and Auxiliary." The parade reached Legion park where the crowd formed a circle about the grave of the unknown soldier. Commander Roop announced the numbers. Rev. Oliver Jensen of Cary M. E. church gave the invocation. School children sang the national anthem. Rev. Father Kilderry offered prayer and also spoke of Lincoln and his Gettysburg speech. The Chesa Beseda chorus sang "America." The lone Civil war veteran was presented a large bouquet of flowers.

Hon. Charles Allen of Cary, speaker of the day, called the Legion the bulwark of our protection. He declared that eternal vigilence is the price of peace, and said that only a week before he had stood on a street corner in Chicago for three quarters of an hour watching a parade pass by displaying red flags and banners with mottoes all opposed to the things for which the American forefathers died.

Mrs. Kryl sang "Soldier Sleep." taps were sounded and all marched back to the river. Joseph Rocha is the only Spanish American war veteran here. The three committees joined together holding first services at Cary, next at the Grove and finally at Algonquin.

Mrs. McClure Ill

Mrs. Leslie McClure, 539 Grove avenue, has been ill at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Burkhardt in Chicago since the first of the week. Mrs. McClure had a very sore throat and a high fever. It was believed at first that she might be suffering with scarlet fever. Mrs. McClure was reported feeling better Thursday.
