Wandering From This to That

Great Electrical Exhibit

Chicago's 1933 World's Fair—A Century of Progress, will usher in a wonder decade that will bring about more amazing developments in the use of electricity than the entire forty years preceding. That opinion was expressed by Edward H. Sniffin, assistant to the vice president of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co. and one of the three men directly responsible for the general use of the steam turbine in the United States. Mr. Sniffin was for many years associated with the late George Westinghouse, whose installation of 300,000 electric lights at Chicago's first world's fair, the World's Columbian Exposition of 1893, demonstrated the practicability of the alternating current system and started the electrical power industry.

Labrador Indian Collection

An ethnological collection representing the almost extinct nomadic Naskapi Indians of Labrador has been placed on exhibition in James Nelson and Anne Louise Raymond Hall at Field Museum of Natural History. The specimens were obtained chiefly as a result of the Rawson-MacMillan Subarctic Expedition of Field Museum, sponsored by Frederick H. Rawson, Chicago banker, and led by Captain Donald B. MacMillan, noted Arctic explorer. Included are costumes, bows (including crossbow) and arrows, fish spears, fishnets, toys, rattles for babies, decorative objects, snowshoes, pipes, knives, toboggans, sledges, snow goggles, canoe models, paddles, and many other objects typical of the occupations engaged in by these Indians who are among the most primitive of people living today.

Surplus Wheat to Needy

Surplus wheat now held by the grain stabilization corporation of the federal farm board would be given to needy people through recognized relief agencies under the resolution (H. J. Res. 199) just introduced in the House by Representative Longenecker (Dem.) of Hartford, Conn. The donation from the corporation would not exceed 25,000,000 bushels, according to the measure, which was referred to the Committee of Agriculture.

Proposals for free distribution of part of the wheat held by the grain stabilization corporation to the needy have been discussed in telephone conversations in the last few days between James C. Stone, chairman of the federal farm board, and members of the house of representatives. Mr. Stone stated orally Dec. 12.

The latest estimate which Mr. Stone has seen is that about 7,000,000 persons are unemployed, to which, in considering bread needs, should be added the number who are in their families or dependent on them.

The Stabilization Corporation should be reimbursed by Congress for the wheat so used, Mr. Stone believes.

Examine Debtor Nations

The United States government does not favor cancellation of the war debts, but changed economic conditions make it the duty of "the executive as well as the legislative branches of government" to re-examine the ability of debtor nations to pay, the Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, declared in a statement issued Dec. 11 clarifying President Hoover's recommendations to Congress.

Silver Trend Points Recovery

The rise of the price of silver in October was considered in some quarters as indicating a turn in the trend of world business. The Finance and Investment division of the Department of Commerce pointed out in a review of the silver situation during 1931 published in the current issue of "Commerce Reports." Silver, as a combination "commodity" and "limited medium of international exchange," it was explained, is known to be highly sensitive to changes in business conditions.

Another reason for the improvement of the price of silver in October was said to have been the possible impact given to speculation by the growing seriousness of the Sino-Japanese dispute in Manchuria, although speculators, it was added, may have overestimated the rise in silver.

The fact that the importation of war supplies will tend to depress the Chinese exchange.

Opera Dates

New Year's Eve will be gala night at the Chicago Civic Opera this season, and for the occasion Ambrose Thomas Mignon has been selected. This delightful work, one of the outstanding successes of last season, when it was brought back to the repertoire after an absence of many years, is particularly suited to the holiday occasion. It is one of the few operas in the repertoire with a happy ending, which will send the audience away to New Year's Eve suppers in a jolly frame of mind.

The complete schedule for the ninth week is:

Christmas Party for Altru

The Altru society of the Baptist church held its annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. W. N. Sears, 506 Grove avenue, Friday evening, Dec. 18. Mrs. Sears was assisted by Mrs. H. V. Houghland, Mrs. Wesley Parker, Mrs. Roy Willmering, Mrs. C. R. Brunsell, and Miss Helen Drussel. Christmas decorations throughout the home added to the festive spirit.

The evening's entertainment was varied. Mrs. Parker sang a selected group of Christmas songs, accompanied by Mrs. Eakin at the piano and Mr. Parker on the violin. Two stunts, "Twice the Night Before Christmas" and "Twice the Night After Christmas" brought forth peals of laughter. A progressive Christmas game resulted in Miss Helen Bridges, Miss Edith Blake, and Mrs. Edward Ernst receiving prizes.

As candles lent their dim glow to the rooms the committee served delicious refreshments. Santa then entered and delivered a package to each person. These proved to be a shower for the church kitchen. (Submitted by a guest.)

Entertain at Christmas Party

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Schroeder, 517 S. Cook street, entertained at a pretty Christmas party Saturday evening. The cheerful tree, and red and green color scheme, carried out in all decorations, added much to a pleasant evening. The twenty guests enjoyed bridge as entertainment with awards going to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Meier, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bauman, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Langdale. The Christmas tree afforded several gifts for those who made a grand slam in playing. Delightful refreshments completed the party.

Entertain at Bridge

The Seaver's home, 212 Lincoln avenue, was the scene of a pretty Christmas party Wednesday evening when Miss Edith McKendrick, Miss Anabel Levanth, and Miss Althea Christenson, as hostesses, entertained at six tables of bridge. Christmas colors predominated both in the decorations and in the dainty two course lunch that was served. Awards in bridge were merited by Miss Fern Nichols, Miss Annette Sheel and Mrs. Ruth Dean.

Barrington Woman's Club

"England's Crisis," by Andre Siegfried was splendidly reviewed by Mrs. Robert Wacht at the last meeting of the study class.

The translator's comment is: "Much of this book will prove bitter reading to the thoughtful Englishman who may indignantly deny many of Professor Siegfried's conclusions. Though his observations may be mercilessly logical he is actuated by genuine affection and admiration for, and faith in the courage and virility of the race. Professor Siegfried comes of a distinguished Alsatian family which has long been noted for its political ability. He has specialized in economic and political development of the Anglo-Saxon nations and is internationally recognized as one of the most brilliant observers and lucid thinkers among modern economists."

This book makes us question our smug satisfaction with modern civilization. We cannot fail to see indications of the places where it fails. Our superficial, trivial, artificial life is exposed without apparent intent to do so. It leads us to question our own supremacy as a nation.

Are we building on a stable framework. What do we think of our responsibility of standardized luxuries and conveniences which give leisure and power to those who have no responsibility in using them, and which bring restlessness instead of the well-organized constructive activities which make society and civilization progress toward the true Golden Age? Mrs. Work's review will be published in The Review next week.

The Barrington Woman's club wishes a Merry Christmas and the Healthiest, Happiest and Most Prosperous of New Years to all.

High School Auditorium Scene of Colorful Party

The high school auditorium was the scene of a very colorful party Saturday evening which was sponsored by the music department and supervised by Miss Esther Strouss, and Miss Agnes Welch. A large and beautifully decorated Christmas tree placed in the center of the auditorium added joy and cheer to an evening of dancing. The Barrington Royal Knights, seven high school pupils directed by Miss Strouss, occupied the stage, which was also very attractive, and furnished the music for the occasion. Cards and other games were a part of the program.

At 11:30 o'clock light refreshments were served followed by two dances, the second, the "Home Sweet Home" waltz. The school board members and their wives and high school teachers and their wives and husbands were guests of the evening.

Mrs. Dale Magill Entertains

Mrs. Dale Magill, 302 Liberty street, was hostess Thursday evening to the Glenn class of St. Paul church. The 32 guests enjoyed the cheer of the Christmas tree and colorful decorations in the home while the jolly games progressed. Miss Edith Klingenberg and Mrs. John Miller received the awards. A musical program was a part of the evening's entertainment in which Miss S. Waldgren of Chicago did lovely solo work and the Misses Elsie Jahnholz and Hilda Klingenberg sang enjoyable duets. The entire group made use of the Christmas carols in chorus singing. "Santa Claus Goes on a Strike" a reading by Miss Sylvia Oak was very appropriate. Delicious refreshments closed the successful program of the evening.

Entertains for Little Daughter

The sixth birthday of Maxine Coffman was the occasion of a delightful party Saturday afternoon at her parents' home, 217 W. Station street. The pretty Christmas decorations added their brightness to the afternoon and the little guests enjoyed games and dainty refreshments with the lovely birthday cake as a feature of much interest. The following little people were present: Barbara Harnden, Virginia Koltz, Marilyn Will, Helen Bowman, Roselyn Wolthausen, and Marilyn and Barbara Houghland. Many pretty gift packages added joy to the occasion.

Lounsbury Group Attend Elgin Chapter

About twenty members of Lounsbury chapter, No. 494, attended a meeting of the Elgin chapter Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Thacher served as a worthy patron and worthy matron and the Lounsbury members made a lovely escort for Mr. and Mrs. Thacher.

Telephone Girls Enjoy Christmas Party

The rest room of the local telephone office was the setting for a pretty Christmas party Monday evening when a group of 14 of the office members met for a social time. A tree and the other colorful decorations added cheer, and Christmas games furnished the entertainment of the evening.

A Merry Christmas A Happy New Year

WHEN we extend to you our best wishes for this holiday season and for the coming year, we want you to know it is more than a mere perfunctory gesture. . . . There is probably present in the hearts of all people today more genuine regard for their fellow men and more sincere sympathy for those in distress than ever before in the history of this nation. The very conditions which have caused unemployment and poverty, have brought us all more in tune with the teachings of Christ the Man of Sorrows. . . . The realization that this great nation of ours, which we had come to think had elevated material above spiritual things, has risen as one man to meet this immediate emergency, renews our faith in God and humanity. . . . We as a people are resolved that none shall go hungry or in want throughout our land. . . . Is not this sufficient cause for rejoicing and for facing with renewed hope and determination whatever the future may have in store for us? We think so.

Book class is making Christmas cards this week, and are on packing a pound box for a Christmas gift.

Monday night the largest of people that has ever attended play here gathered to see the play, "The Arrival of Kitty."

The play proved to be a great success, and gave the audience two hours of real entertainment. Each character did his share in making the play a success and the auditorium echoed with laughter as it watched the juniors exhibit their talent before them. Everyone left, feeling in good spirits and agreed that it was an evening well spent.

Santa Fails to Appear: Is Sued for $10,000

Because "Old Saint Nick," who brings cheer to young and old at this time of the year, failed to keep his promise to the people of Libertyville and Mundelein he is being sued for $10,000.

The Libertyville-Mundelein Chamber of Commerce, through Attorney Paul MacGuffin, filed suit in Lake county circuit court Monday against the Diamond Reindeer Company of Duluth, Minn., for breach of contract.

The chamber of commerce, according to Attorney MacGuffin, had arranged with the reindeer company to send Santa Claus and his speedy reindeer to Libertyville and Mundelein. When Santa Claus was scheduled to put in his appearance and was nowhere in sight, the hundreds of children who were waiting for a glimpse of "Santy" were sadly disappointed.

The merchants in the two communities had expected Kris Kringle and his deer to help the Christmas shopping.

The Diamond Reindeer company claims that the reindeer are afflicted with skin disease and cannot be brought to Libertyville. The merchants of Libertyville feel that the failure of Santa Claus to appear as announced has caused a slump in business, and as members of the chamber of commerce, the merchants want $10,000 from Santa Claus.

$8 a Day Maximum for Building Labor Urged

Establishment of a maximum wage rate of $8 per day for all building trades workers in Waukegan and Lake county as a measure of promoting building construction was urged by members of the Associated Builders of Lake county and representatives of Building Trades Unions in a meeting at Waukegan Thursday night.

The recommendation provides for reduction of all wages of building trades workers, some of which are operating under a scale of wages as high as $14 a day.

Delegates from the various unions, after stating their desire to co-operate with the contractors in the promotion of construction work in the city asked however for assurance that acceptance of a reduction in wage would provide more building. The contractors stated, however, that definite assurance could not be given. The issue will be decided in meetings of the various local unions.

The contractors contend that a survey has shown that many who are considering building or remodeling are waiting for lower prices in construction costs and that all appeals to them to build now carry little weight. This is induced largely by current reductions.

The builders also pointed out that such wage reductions would exist only for a year and might provide work for hundreds of unemployed.

Beautiful Birds Not Singers

A natural history explorer in San Salvador says of the birds of that country: "You will listen days for one sweet song, and when you hear it you'll find it coming not from a native bird, but from some songster which has migrated there for a season. The quetzal is a rare trogon which is seldom seen, because it lives high among the mountain peaks like our eagles. It is a mixture of golden green and carmine colors, with long, airy tail-coverts which spray out two feet beyond the tail. Many ornithologists regard it as the most magnificent bird in the world. The Guatemalans use it on the coins and sent it as we do the bald eagle."

LEADERSHIP

American Community Life provides this somewhat strange contradiction: that while different sections of people are a good deal alike in character, yet there is an enormous difference in communities. Some cities and towns are hustling and progressive, some are slow and sleepy.

Yet if a group of energetic and confident people went into one of these slow and sleepy places, the chances are strong that they would transform it in a few years. They would find difficulty in rousing the people from their ancient indifference. There would be much croaking and knocking at first.

Yet there is in most people some desire to see their communities go ahead. If a group of people in a disorderly village should go about that place asking people to have a Clean-Up day and get rid of the rubbish that disfigured their homes, the chances are that two-thirds of the people who were thus solicited would join the movement. They would hate to fall behind and fail to keep up with their neighbors.

People hate to take the lead in things, they hate to feel that things are depending on them. But if someone else will lead, the rest will, generally follow.

What most communities need then, to obtain business progress, and community improvements, is leadership. They need a group of people who will take the lead, start things, and organize movements and carry them on. After such movements are started, and are pushed steadily, they are apt to be successful.

How can our towns obtain more leadership? Well, one way to get it is to encourage the people who do start things. Give them some appreciation and recognition, and avoid needless knocking.—Record, Bristol, Okla.

Another paradox is that only slaves to art become its master.

A woman is seldom referred to as an old maid before she begins to act like one.

PROSPERITY NEWS

In Peoria, the Community Chest goal, which was set at $220,000, was over subscribed about $8,000.

Hardacre mine at Collinsville, formerly operated by the Abbey Coal Corp., has been re-opened by a local company known as the Home Coal Co., and 55 men, after being idle for several months are back at work.

The Moffet Coal Co. at Sparta has spent several thousand dollars in making improvements at the mine. The mine will employ about 450 men if re-opened. A survey of No. 8, mine of the Willis Coal and Mining company has been made with the idea of making an estimate of the cost of rehabilitating the mine. There are indications that a third mine at Sparta may be re-opened as water is being pumped from the Wilson shaft.

Over $10,000 in Christmas club savings have been paid out by the People's Bank and Trust company at Mt. Vernon during the past few days.

The Newton box and basket factory has started operation. Six men and seven women are employed and the management hopes, within a short time, to increase the force to 21 women and six or more men.

The Christmas postal rush in Chicago necessitates the employment of about 2,500 extra men. The men were chosen from among those who had already filed applications.

The last week in Chicago was characterized in unusually heavy pre-holiday buying in department stores, some important changes for the better in reports from employment agencies, and a pick up in railroad traffic. One of the large producers of electrical equipment in Chicago has gone back to the five and a half day week for the employees.

Work has begun on the east approach of the million dollar Cedar street bridge over the Illinois river at Peoria. This approach will cost about $400,000 and give employment to many men. Peoria labor has been spee- d in the contracts.

The American Commercial Alcohol Plant at Pekin began operating on December 5, at a capacity of grinding 6,000 bushels of corn per day.

Eight hundred miners received a payroll of $38,000 in two Johnson City mines a short time ago. It was the largest payroll in several months.

A drive for funds for the relief of the unemployed went over the top at Champaign-Urbana by several hundred dollars.

A $900,000 county road building program is underway in Madison county. Work will be started in the spring and will give employment to 200 men.

The village of Forest Park is spending $125,000 for a 24-inch water main to connect the local water system with that of Chicago, to secure an adequate supply of water from Lake Michigan.

Jobs for 157 Waukegan unemployed have been supplied within the past two weeks through efforts of the recently organized committee of the Lions club and the Lake County Association of Engineers. The men placed on municipal projects of various natures have put in 2,500 hours of work.

Thirty-six new uniforms have been received at Waverly for the township high school band. Funds for paying for the uniforms were raised by the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters. Uniforms were purchased from an Illinois manufacturer—De Moulin Company, of Greenville.

New York has announced through the State Temporary Relief association that with the release of $8,000,000 in appropriations, jobs will be assured to 100,000 unemployed throughout the state.

The Family Doctor

By JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M. D.

DIATHERMY

Literally, it means "heating through," this diathermy form of treatment. The apparatus used in administering it is expensive; not many rural physicians nowadays can afford such high-priced stuff, considering the almost impossibility of carrying it to widely-scattered bedside patients.

Nevertheless, it is, and has been for some time, a growing, popular method of applying heat in the treatment of localized inflammations. That it will destroy germs by heat that are deeply situated within the body, I seriously doubt. I believe diathermy will greatly accelerate local circulation, hastening the blood through the part affected, and do some good in that way—just how much may not be accurately estimated.

The destruction of diseased tonsils is being brought about by diathermy, thus saving a more or less bloody operation; but it had better not be attempted by the amateur or beginner without competent instruction. The specialist is the only safe man to employ in the electrical extirpation of the tonsils.

My own experience has not been very pleasing in the use of diathermy, much that I regret to say so. I have used it in numerous cases of chronic arthritis, if any improvement was noticeable it was very slight. I used it in a desperate attempt to relieve pneumonia in an aged patient—and lost; yes, in two cases, without benefit, and where I needed help, oh, so badly.

I believe diathermy to be a very refined, technical, expensive way of applying the simple principle of heat in the treatment of disease. I have yet to be shown that it furnishes greater heat inside the diseased member than on the outside. But I am not an authority, mind you. I am just an intelligent, common-sense, family doctor with thirty-eight years of experience. I do not own a diathermy apparatus, but I work in hospitals where it is available in any instance desired. I sincerely hope it may come to be the standard, accepted method of obliterating diseased tonsils.

There is little hope for decreasing the divorce rates unless married people learn to lie more convincingly.

How to play Bridge AUCTION and CONTRACT

by Wynne Ferguson

Author of "PRACTICAL AUCTION BRIDGE"

ARTICLE No. 5

A discussion of the following question of a correspondent should interest all Auction and Contract players:

First hand has bid no trump, second has passed, third has overcalled his partner with two hearts, and fourth has bid two spades. Under what conditions should the original hand (a) bid two no trumps, (b) raise his partner to three hearts?

This particular question opens up a very wide field of discussion and one that can be handled only in a very general way. For the purpose of this discussion it will be assumed that neither side has a score. Also assume that the dealer has bid one no trump with each of the following hands:

Hearts—Q, 8

Clubs—A, 10, 4, 2

Diamonds—K, 10, 9, 8

Spades—K, J, 7

Hearts—Q, 10, 7, 2

Clubs—A, 10, 4, 2

Diamonds—K, Q, 9

Spades—10, 4

Hearts—7, 2

Clubs—A, 10, 4, 2

Diamonds—K, Q, 9

Spades—10, 4

Hearts—7, 4

Clubs—A, K, Q, 7, 6, 2

Diamonds—K, 10, 7

Spades—K, 7

Then assume that his partner has bid two hearts and fourth hand has bid two spades. With Hand A, the dealer should bid two no trump. He has a double stopper in the spade suit and, therefore, allow B to make his king of spades.

After trumping the club, Z should lead the ace of hearts and then the deuce, winning the trick in Y's hand with the jack. Y should now lead a club. If B trumps, Z overtrumps and drops B's remaining trump and his hearts are good. If he refuses to trump and discards, Z will also discard and is sure to win the last two tricks as he has a tenace position over B's king of spades. This problem and its solution came up in actual play and is an example of the grand coup, that is the trumping of a good trick in order to shorten the trumps and obtain a tenace position at the end.

About Ourselves

For happiness we should look to the only place which permanent help can come from, ourselves.

Editor, Barrington Review: I am enclosing an answer to a letter I wrote the Illinois Municipal league in which I asked if the league would assist in the Barrington legal case arising from the sewer situation. Barrington was formerly a member of the league but dropped out. I believe that the league should be a member of the organization. The answer received from the secretary of the league follows:

"Dear Mr. Blanke: In reply to your letter of November 23, the services of the league in the past have not been extended to representing municipalities in court. Enclosed is a pamphlet explaining the scope of league services."

"We have discussed from time to time the advisability or inadvisability of representing cities, either individually or collectively before courts or state commissions, such as the Illinois commerce commission. In the past attorneys selected by cities or villages concerned seemed to be as well able to handle the various cases arising as any attorneys the league might select."

"In view of the special circumstances of the Barrington case, however, we would be very glad to consider arrangements for assisting in this case, provided it could be financed. The main reason why we have not undertaken this work in the past is that league finances would not permit retaining attorneys of the type required for the important work to be done."

"The league has not refused to assist in the Barrington case and would be only too glad to do everything within its power to assist. Kindly let me know who the attorneys are handling the case for the village of Barrington and I shall be glad to get in touch with them concerning the proposal."

Very truly yours,
Secretary.

Letter to The Review submitted by John H. D. Blanke.

The formal opening of the new mineral research laboratories of the Illinois State Geological survey was held at Urbana, December 9. William A. Noyes, secretary of board of natural resources and conservation, acted as chairman at the program. The speakers on the program included: Charles K. Leitch, University of Wisconsin; Ben F. Richards, president, Illinois Clay Manufacturers association; J. Paul Clayton, president, Illinois chamber of commerce.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

By National Editorial Association (Special to The Review)

PEACE AND GOOD WILL may prevail this week in American homes but not in the halls of congress. The holiday recess found the national legislative body in a turmoil with factions and parliaments constantly at sword's points. Only an unchangeable optimist could anticipate a rift in the clouds of discord. The presidential campaign and congressional elections overshadowed the whole scene to the detriment of helpful and essential law-making. Unfortunately, there is no leader or set of influential men and women that possess the power of bringing the Yuletide spirit to a realization. Harmony is impossible while ambition for high office and power hold sway over the hearts and minds of political figures.

A VARIETY of answers would be given to an inquiry as to the causes of discontent and bitter strife. If all the complaints of all parties were piled up, they would provide the real basic material for the 1932 elections. The mournful wail of Macbeth never stirred a more noxious mess than the pot-boilers on Capitol Hill. The friction points include bipartisan opposition to President Hoover's recommendations on international and domestic subjects; premature rooster-crowing by republican splinterers; insurgent republican senators antipathy to Senator Moses, republican, an evidence of the unchangeable nature for the precedence of the senate; democratic suggestions of cooperation with the administration; dissatisfaction with the administration; republican and democratic national committee; and something convention procedure.

CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS have taken advantage of the recess to sound out late sentiment in their districts on current problems. The president has called a number of legislators to the White House during the bill in debate. It is generally recognized that Mr. Hoover will be obliged to show more consideration to his party followers at the Capitol than manifested in the past. They will hold the key to his political future for the democrats control the house and the insurgent republicans hold the balance of power in the senate. The olive branch must be seen in relations between the legislative and administrative branches if any legislation of merit is enacted.

POLITICIANS are wondering what effect the punishment meted out to Representative McFadden, republican, of Pennsylvania will have on party regularity. McFadden, now ranking member of the house committee on banking and currency, was stigmatized by President Hoover for his conduct on January 11, 1931, when he took over the patronage so vital to the political machine in his district. Drummed out of his party, McFadden continues his vociferous rebellion against the administration's handling of the reformatory.

Business Notices Being Results

The game started with a "cho" apparently a little on the five-point lead on the 10. Then they settled down and caught their opponents by the half. Both teams were the closely and open shots were failed to penetrate the defense often enough until the two field goals to their credit.

Although Williams' miscalculation on the defense just as well be charged to the players for their misfire of their clarity toward Green. It was a tough loss but the team showed a stuff and if they come back Leyden on January 5, all will be well.

Ponies Take Green Tornadoes for 22 to 16 Count in Opener

The Leyden High school gym last night and acted as if he were a champion. The final score was 22 to 16 in favor of Leyden.

Then all of a sudden he stopped his sleigh over the Leyden Heights where he was to play. The final score was 22 to 16 in favor of Leyden.

Cardinals Take Lead. The game started with the Cardinals leading 1 to 0 in the first inning. The Cardinals got a lead on the locals but they settled down and almost all of their opponents by the end of the game.

Both teams were guarded and open shots were few and far between. Barrington's defense was not able to penetrate the Heights' defense enough and they scored only one field goal to their opponents.

Although Williams' misses were the spectacular ones, the defeat could have been charged to several of the players for their missed eleven of their charity tosses throughout the game. It was a tough game to watch and if they come back and beat Leyden on January 5, all will be well.

Why, dear, you have written three letters to Santa and asked for different presents in each of them.

I know it. I saw three different candy clauses today.

3 RULES big help to BOWELS

What a joy to have the bowels move like clockwork, every day! It's easy, if you mind these simple rules of a famous old doctor:

1. Drink a big tumblerful of water before breakfast, and several times a day.
2. Get plenty of outdoor exercise without unduly fatiguing yourself.
3. Try for a bowel movement at exactly the same hour every day.

Everyone's bowels need help at times, but the thing to use is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You'll get a thorough cleaning-out, and it won't leave your insides weak and watery. This family doctor's prescription is just fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin, and other helpful ingredients that couldn't hurt a child. But how it wakes up those lazy bowels! How good you feel with your system rid of all that poisonous waste matter.

Hager's Pin Team Defeats Beerman's Men for 2nd Place

A. D. Church Runs Up Series of 642 in Three "200" Games

Hager's team climbed up to second place in the Lions bowling league Monday night leaving Beerman's pin men trailing by almost two hundred pins. Hager's team cracked the maples for a series of 2352, the highest series rolled on the evening's schedule. Cadwallader's team continues to hold first place and Pomeroy's team fourth.

Although Pomeroy's team is at the bottom of the list, one of its members made the rest of the players sit up and take notice. A. D. Church rolled three consecutive "two hundred games," starting out with a 230, then a 211, and in the last game a 201 for a series of 642, one of the best series rolled in the league this season.

Cameron and Miller Bros. Quintets Run Week's High Scores

The Cameron Real Estate bowling quint led the pin smashing in the Barrington Bowling league for the past week with a three-game series of 2547, winning the odd game from the Miller Bros. team. Although Pohlman Drugs won only one of their games they continue to hold top position in the team standing by a two-game lead over Lipofsky Clothiers.

The Greengard Grill, McLeister's, and Barrington Review teams garnered two games each in the week's series.

Curtis McGowan of the Cameron quint set the scoring pace with a neat series of 183-182-227 for a total of 592 pins.

Lake County Seal Drive Makes Only Half

With $3,200 collected in sales drive the Lake County Seal Association today was planning through its secretary, Ruth Hendrickson, to carry on a seal drive through January. During this period a check be made of those who fail to turn seals or did not contribute. An urgent plea will be made for donations to support the seal drive.

It had been hoped that $15,000 could be raised. Now run about 60 daily.
