Bronchos Nose Palatine Out of First Place Tie

36 to 19 Victory Gives Barrington Chance for Title

Barrington Seconds Battle in Close Contest, Win 28 to 24

Thoroughly in trim after a vacation of more than three weeks from conference games, Coach Paul Park's undefeated basketeers staged an overwhelming upset Friday night when they faced their similarly undefeated opponents from Palatine and secured sole possession of first place in the conference slate. Winding up with a score of 36 to 19 before the largest crowd that has ever witnessed a basketball game in Barrington, the local Bronks crossed their most dangerous stream of the season when they broke their first place tie with Palatine and made their most important stride toward the title. More than 700 persons saw the game, many being turned away when all available standing space had been sold.

An off night for Palatine plus a strong night for Barrington is the best explanation for the wide range of scoring between the Northwest conference's two top notch teams. The local boys had chalked up 13 points against Palatine's two at the end of the first quarter. Palatine did not score again until the third quarter, Barrington then having 24 points.

The game opened with Palatine using an unusually fast merry-go-round offensive involving frequent passing. The team overlooked opportunities to score and appeared to be directing its efforts toward tiring the local team. Barrington's cagers were in too good a physical condition for this and their ability to intercept passes had not been anticipated apparently by their opponents. Coun started the local team's scoring spree. He intercepted a pass, carried through for a field goal and scored a charity play. This episode, almost at the opening of the first quarter, seemed to leave Palatine in a daze. Time after time the local quintet swept down the floor to ring up points. Eilers and Latta each scored two field goals. Palatine's only basket during the first two quarters was dropped near the end of the first quarter.

The lightweight game between Barrington and Palatine proved to be all that had been expected of the heavyweight title. It was a wild and woolly affair and was won by Barrington, 28 to 24, after Palatine had tied Barrington's score during the third quarter. The excitement of the game was increased by the scoring spree of Wittenberg of Palatine and Klopfenstein of Barrington, both of whom made seven points in the second half. Palatine missed ten free throws, and Barrington missed five.

The Rose of Sharon

In the Museum of Biblical Botany at the Hebrew university, Jerusalem the flower exhibited as the rose of Sharon is not a rose, but a Tulip. Tulipa montana, a showy, deep red flower with a black center, belonging to the lily family. This plant grows on the flat Plain of Sharon lying along the Mediterranean coast.

Twenty-ninth Norge Ski Meet Will Be Held Sunday

The Norge Ski club will hold its 29th annual ski tournament on Norge hill at Fox River Grove Sunday, Jan. 20.

Karl Basdevik of the Viking Ski club in Montreal has entered the meet and his record indicates the American jumpers will have a busy afternoon fighting off his challenge. He is the Dominion of Canada champion in both jumping and the 18 kilometer cross country run.

The Montreal title holder has never competed on the same hills as his American competitors so his distances cannot be compared with accuracy, but training conditions are excellent around Montreal and he will be at the peak of his form for the Norge meet.

The Norge hill is no respecter of champions, however, and the Canadian will probably experience some trouble on its slick surface. This towering slide trips up even the best of the skiers and some of the nation's outstanding stars sometimes finish their rides in an unorthodox position.

Leading ski riders are looking forward to the appearance of Walter Bietilla, the 18-year-old University of Michigan star. Bietilla is American born and trained, and it will be interesting to see how he compares with the entrance seasoned in international competition abroad.

Snow for the meet is on the way from Escanaba, Mich., and although there has been no snow here there will be plenty on Norge hill. Seven carloads, containing 20,000 cubic feet of snow will be spread on its surface. The meet will begin at 1:30 p. m.

Three Local Cage Teams Win Two, Then Lose One, From Algonquin Teams

A trio of local basketball teams journeyed to Algonquin Sunday afternoon, winning two games by close margins and losing a third in another tight battle.

The Barrington girls, paced by M. Biechele, Klopfenstein and Marshall, led all the way to shade the Algonquin girls, 14 to 13; while the local second men's team, composed of church league players, came from behind to triumph by a 19 to 15 score. It was the first loss of the season for the Algonquin team. Jim Falkinburg headed the Barrington seconds with seven points.

In a free-scoring encounter, the Barrington firsts, also sporting a line-up of church cagers, lost to the fast Algonquin heavies, 48 to 45. With their opponents two points in the lead late in the final quarter, Algonquin spurted to run up the winning margin. Tate and Harder led the local scoring with 12 and 9 points respectively.
