Catlow Theatre to Have Mothers as Guests Sunday

"The Farmer in the Dell" Is Feature Picture for Mother's Day

The Catlow theatre has arranged a special program for Mother's Day, which which will be screened Sunday and Monday. Patrons are invited to bring their mothers; if they are sixty years of age or over, they will be admitted as guests of the theatre.

"The Farmer in the Dell" which is the feature picture for this program, is the story of an Iowa family which goes "Hollywood." Fred Stone is cast in the role of the farmer who stumbles into fame in the movies. Jean Parker and Frank Albertson are in support.

In addition the "Our Gang" troupe will occupy the color cartoon and a community sing of the old songs will furnish a pleasing variety.

In the dazzling musical extravaganza "The Music Goes Round," the pick of colored singers and dancing stars will be found in support of Harry Richman, Rochelle Hudson, Michael Bartlett and Walter Connolly. It will be on the screen this Friday night.

George Raft's new pictude, "It Had to Happen" will be the feature number for Saturday.

In its unconventional style, this picture, adapted from the Rupert Hughes story, throws the stars together as they are nearing New York on a ship. Rosalind Russell is a slick and lovely heiress to many millions, and Raft is a poor immigrant lad coming to the land of promise with his friend, Leo Carillo.

Tuesday brings Wheeler and Woolsey in a "horse-opera," whose locale is the Indian territory in the days of 1850. Cowboys, miners, cavalry and redskins combine to make the situations in "Silly Billies" (the title of the opus) thrillingly funny. It is scheduled as the bargain night offering of the week.

"The Prisoner of Shark Island" playing the Catlow Wednesday and Thursday, reveals for the first time on the screen the shocking story of a nation's injustice.

Its hero is a gaunt figure who looms up out of the pages of American history. Dr Samuel Alexander Mudd—martyred by a nation's frenzy for his innocent deed of mercy.

With Warner Baxter stared in the leading role, the picture tells the story of this gentle Maryland physician who was trapped with Lincoln's murderers, and who spent years in a living hell for a crime he had never committed.

Mining Rock Salt

In the mining of rock salt the method is not greatly different from those employed in coal or metal mining. This is the way in which the great deposits of Livingston county, New York, are worked. The mine shafts sometimes attain a vertical depth of a thousand feet.
