Name Declamatory Contest Winners

Contestants to represent Barrington public high school in the district speech contest at Northwestern university at Evanston Saturday were decided at a contest held in the local school auditorium Monday evening. Those placing first in the several divisions are eligible to enter the district contest.

Arthur Castle was first in oratorical with "The Endless War" as his topic. Betty Schroeder was second and Jack Graeling third.

Dawn Landwer was first in the dramatic section, presenting a cutting from "Tale of Two Cities." Shirley Lyons was second and Patricia Rutledge third. In the humorous division, Kenneth Frye placed first with a cutting from "The Will" as his selection. Edith Olson was second and Robert Deschler finished third.

R S. Cartright was judge of the contestants ,all of whom had been coached by Miss Annette Sheel.

Numbers were presented by members of the music classes to round out the evening. William Tichy and Paul Pohlman sang two duets, "Those Pals of Ours" and "Gypsy Love Song." Helen Jurs played a piano solo, "En Route."

The three winners of Monday evening's contest and Delores Eck will represent Barrington in the section in competition with winners of the Chicago district. Miss Eck is the only local verse contestant and will read "Composed on Westminster Bridge" and "The Beach Cottage."

Visit in Wisconsin

James Lawrence and Harold Weity, both of Barrington, left Monday morning for White Lake, Wis., where they visited with Jack Sterling, classmate of James at Lake Forest academy. The boys, accompanied by Jack, returned Wednesday evening.
