"The Toast of New York" Catlow Bill Sunday, Monday

"Woman Chases Man" Coming on Wednesday for Two-Day Showing

The roar of Navy fighting planes, the langorous romance of the tropics, a vivid, swiftly paced story—these are the elements combined to make top-flight entertainment of "Wings of Honolulu," which plays Saturday at the Catlow.

Wendy Barrie portrays a beautiful Virginia belle who marries a young Navy officers played by Ray Milland. The wife has no knowledge of the conventions, customs and taboos of the naval service. She becomes embodies in a situation which almost wrecks her husband's career. Milland will be remembered as the leading man of "Three Smart Girls."

Double featured with "Wings Over Honolulu," is "Marry the Girl," starring Mary Boland, Hugh Herbert and Mischa Auer.

The rapid rise of Frances Farmer, former co-ed at the University of Washington, has been hailed as one of the more significant cinematic events of the last year. She is now cast in the principal feminine role in "The Toast of New York," co-starred with Edward Arnold, Cary Grant and Jack Oakie, and playing at the Catlow theatre Sunday and Monday.

Based on incidents in the life of Jim Fisk, one of America's great fortune builders, "The Toast of New York" offers an auspicious 1937 debut for Miss Farmer. In the role of Fisk, Arnold is cast in another of the spectacular series of characterizations and Miss Farmer is equally happily cast as Josie Mansfield beautiful young actress for love of whom Fisk attempts to corner the gold supply of the nation.

William Boyd that handsome and husky hard-riding buckaroo from Oklahoma brings to life another famous Hopalong Cassidy character in "Hopalong Rides Again" coming Tuesday.

This is the thirteenth Clarence E. Mulford story to be produced by Harry Sherman. It marks the debut of Billy King another hard-rider who is only twelve but already has 28 blue ribbons for his horsemanship. In the cast are George "Windy" Hayes and Russel Hayden.

"The Last Train From Madrid" with Dorothy Lamour, Lew Ayres Gilbert Roland, Karen Morley and Lionel Atwill plays the double feature bill Tuesday with "Hopalong Cassidy Rides Again."

"Woman Chases Man," hilarious comedy, brings Miriam Hopkins, Joel McCrea, Charles Winninger, Erik Rhodes and a great cast to the Catlow for two days beginning Wednesday.
