'Paris Honeymoon' Is Week-End Bill at Catlow Theatre

"Artists and Models Abroad," Starring Jack Benny, Here Saturday

"The Dawn Patrol," spectacular drama of the Royal Flying Corps during the World war, which is coming to the Catlow theatre Thursday and Friday, was put on forced-draft production schedule recently as the European war scare was at its height.

Saturday night, for one night only, the feature attraction at the Catlow is "Artists and Models Abroad," with Jack Benny and Joan Bennett.

Four of the season's big hit tunes—written by the master tunesmiths, Robin and Rainger, will be heard in the Bing Crosby manner in the new comedy romance, "Paris Honeymoon," which brings Bing to the Catlow Sunday and Monday.

They are "You're a Sweet Little Headache," "I Have Eyes," "The Funny Old Hills" and a novelty called "Jonbalat." Bing sings all of them, with generous assists from Shirley Ross, who sings "Thanks for the Memory" girl from "The Big Broadcast of 1937" and Franciska Gaal, whose first American appearance was in "The Buccaneer."

"Paris Honeymoon" is the gay story of a young American millionaire, played by Bing, who is just about to get married to Shirley Ross when he discovers that there's a little matter of a divorce which Miss Ross forgot to take care of.

A veteran of many years experience on the stage and screen, Sidney Toler, selected after long search, makes his first appearance as Earl Derr Biggers' famous Chinese sleuth in "Charlie Chan in Honolulu."

A 20th Century Fox production coming Tuesday to the Catlow the film features Phyllis Brooks, Sen Yung, Eddie Collins, John King, Claire Dodd, George Zucco, Robert Barrat and Mary Lawrence.

Double featured Tuesday is "Burn 'Em Up O'Connor," with Dennis O'Keefe, Cecelia Parker, Nat Pendleton and Harry Carey.
