Mrs. H. W. Blood Is Elected President of Mothers' Club

Leaders Praised for Support of Musical Organizations

Mrs. H. W. Blood was elected president and Mrs. J. W. Langdale vice president of the Mothers' club of the music department of Barrington high school at a meeting held in the school building Monday afternoon. Mrs. Lyle B. Barnum was elected secretary and Mrs. Ward Olmsted treasurer.

The retiring officers include Mrs. Lydia Beerman president, Mrs. Walter N. Sears vice president and Mrs. John Shawley secretary-treasurer. A rising vote of thanks for her work was given the retiring president who was a principal organizer of the club two years ago and who has been very active in it since then.

"How many of you know who really has proved to be the 'friend in need' of the senior and junior orchestras, the band, the glee club and the A Capella choir?" Mrs. Caroline Gardner asked in a report on the club's work. "That 'friend' is the Mothers' club, with its untiring president, Mrs. Lydia Beerman.

"The club was organized just two years ago through the efforts of Mrs. Beerman and in that time has raised nearly $2000 to help these musical organization in endless ways.

"You have all heard and enjoyed the glee clubs and A Capella choirs under the expert direction of Miss Adelaide Swing. The band, 45 pieces strong, so ably led by Roy Willmering, is an inspiration to all of us on many occasions.

"And the orchestras, the senior and junior, lead by the conductor and teacher, Walter E. Sears, are outstanding organizations. The senior group includes 41 boys and girls and the junior group already has 35 members. These wonderful orchestras are something we should be proud of and especially when we know they can go to contests and come back winners having competed with orchestras of twice their number.

"On March 31 at Proviso high school in Maywood, Mr. Sears will take them to enter the district contest. Consequently double the amount of rehearsals are on the docket. The regional contest comes in May.

"The Mothers' club contemplates a dance this spring. Remember what a grand success that last one was? Also remember that everything this group does is to help our splendid glee clubs, choirs, orchestras and band."

Brothers Indicted By Grand Jury on "Rustling" Charges

Three brothers were indicted last week at Oregon, Ill., by an Ogle county grand jury on charges of cattle rustling in 12 northern Illinois counties. They are Homer Coulthard, 32 years old, Grant, 29, and Robert, 25, of Pittsville, Wis.

Deputy Sheriff Ralph Carr of Rockville, made the arrests late month after the brothers had admitted rustling calves in Boone, Winnebago, Stephenson, Ogle, DeKalb, Carroll, Lee, Whiteside, LaSalle, Kane, McHenry and Rock Island counties. According to Sheriff James M. White, they sold the cattle in Chicago.

Funeral Services for Henry Siems Are Held at Roselle

Figures in each County represent the number of persons killed in 1938 Total Killed 2177

More automobile fatalities occurred in Lake and DuPage counties during 1938 than in any other Illinois county with the exception of Cook, according to traffic records revealed at Springfield. An analysis of casualties per mile showed that U. S route 14, from Illinois county with the exception Fox River Grove to the Wisconsin state line, had 2.93 casualties per mile.

Other highways listed as "most deadly" outside the metropolitan areas and their percentage of deaths or personal injuries per mile of pavement are:

U. S. route 20, from Elgin to East Dubuque, 3.39 casualties per mile.

U. S. route 30, from Indiana line to Aurora, and Illinois route 31, from Aurora to Elgin, 3.09.

U. S. 130 from Geneva to Dixon, and Illinois route 2, from Dixon to East Moline, 1.82 casualties per mile.

U. S. route 6, from Joliet to Peoria, 2.79 casualties per mile.

The 1938 analysis showed those highways with the most traffic are found to have highest percentages of accidents per mile.
