Catlow Theatre Offers Week of Excellent Films

"Out West With the Hardys" Is Sunday and Monday Attraction

Another of the Hardy family series, this time "Out West With the Hardy's," starts Sunday at the Catlow theatre for a two-day run. For all around entertainment and family night at the movies, it's tops.

There's never a dull moment from the time Judge Hardy (Lewis Andy), has his weekly tiff with his best girl, Polly Benedict, until the Judge, tired and weary, packs his little group back to Carvel after a hectic but eventful vacation on a western ranch.

To the fifth of the popular Hardy family series new comedy has been added in the person of little Virginia Weidler, chief heckler of the inseparable Andy. No matter what he may do in the way of western stunts, Virginia manages to go him one better.

Add to this a dramatic plot involving the owners of the ranch, a new romance for Cecilia Parker and some heart-tugging moments revolving about a pet horse, and you have sixty minutes of entertainment that tops even "Love Finds Andy Hardy"—and that was tops.

"Two Sleepy People," current song hit written by Hoagy Carmichael, best known for his melody "Stardust," and Frank Loesser, provides the musical interlude in "Thanks for the Memory," comedy of marital mixups, which opens Tuesday. Bob Hope, popular radio comedian, and Shirley Ross are featured in the picture, supported by Charles Butterworth and Otto Kruger. It is double featured with "Disbarred," starring Gail Patrick.

Mack Gordon and Harry Revel, Hollywood song writers whose hits have kept the nation singing and swinging, turn in what is reported to be their finest score in "Thanks for Everything," a comedy hit coming to the Catlow March 8 and 9.

Song candidates for top honors in the nation's hit parade, "Thanks for Everything," "Puff a Puff," and "Three Cheers for Henry Smith" are featured in this film. Adolphe Menjou, Binnie Dalis, Jack Haley Arleen Whelan, Tony Martin and Binnie Barnes turn in excellent performances.
