Methodist and Salem Will Clash for League Title

Games Monday Will Conclude Regular Season for Church Cagers

A chance for an undisputed church league cage title will be afforded the Methodist cagers Monday night when they meet Salem in the final game on the regular season schedule. Methodist is out in front of the pack with a record of eight victories in nine starts, while Salem trails with seven wins and two defeats, so a triumph for the Methodist boys Monday would give them a clear claim to the championship.

However, a Salem victory would create a two-way tie for first place and a possible play-off between the two contenders. Baptist and St. Paul will meet in the opening game Monday night. In the first game between the Methodists and Salem the former won by a score of 29 to 24.

In last Monday's games Salem and St. Matthew came out on top. Salem beating Baptist 33 to 27, and St. Matthew taking St. Anne by a 26 to 23 count.

Methodist defeated St. Anne, 47 to 49, and St. Paul downed St. Matthew, 28 to 21, in games played last Friday night. R. Sutor of Methodist set an individual scoring mark for the season when he made nine baskets and 4 free throw for 19 points.

What am I bid for a fine telephone call?

How much is a telephone call worth?

It may be a pleasant chat with a friend . . . may save a trip to the store in unpleasant weather, close an important business deal. It may bring the doctor . . . the firemen . . . the police . . . in some emergency.

But there can be no doubt that you get good value in your telephone. You have at your command not only the millions of dollars' worth of equipment of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company — the finest equipment that science can design and skilled manufacture produce — but you have also the services of twenty-three thousand trained Illinois Bell employes whose tradition it is to see that your call goes through, night or day, good weather or bad, to any one and anywhere.

Truly, of all the things you buy, few give so much . . . or cost so little . . . as your telephone service.
