Miss Mary Chorak and C. P. Shiley Jr. Married

Miss Mary Chorak of North Chicago and Charles P. Shiley Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Shiley Sr., 214 N. Hough street, were married at the parsonage of Our Lady of Perpetual Help parsonage in Glenview Friday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Dussman, in the presence of members of the immediate families and friends.

The bride was attired in a dusty rose afternoon suit and wore blue accessories. Her shoulder corsage consisted of tea roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Anna Chorak, who wore a blue afternoon dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias. Clifford Shiley, a brother, attended the groom.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents in Barrington. The young couple left immediately afterwards for a week-trip to Milwaukee. They are now residing in Glencoe, where both are employed at the Illinois Country club.

Miss Ellen Donlea and Gerald Green Married

Miss Ellen Donlea, daughter of Mrs. William Donlea, 137 W. Station street, became the bride of Gerald Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Green, 119 Waverly road, at a simple, impressive ceremony Friday morning at 11 o'clock at St. Anne church. Rev. P. J. Hayes officiated, using the single ring service.

The bride wore a pastel wool ensemble with navy accessories and a corsage of violets and lilies of the valley. Her attendant, Miss Betty Green, a sister of the groom, wore a navy ensemble and a corsage of mixed spring flowers. Jack Donlea, brother of the bride, served as best man's attendant.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Green left for a short wedding trip and will live in Barrington on their return. Mr. Green is employed at the Strand Dress Co.

Correction

It was incorrectly reported by The Review last week that police officers found missing hub caps said to have been taken from a car belonging to Daniel Delhs of Elgin in the automobile owned by Newton Pahlke of Barrington. The hub caps were recovered at the home of Harold Paulson, also of Barrington.
