Ela Rated in North Central Association Accredited Schools

Ela Township School Notes Compiled Weekly by the Pupils

All the students at Ela, as well as the school board, principal, and teachers, are happy to announce that Ela Township High school has been accepted into the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. This is the highest honor a school may attain, and we shall endeavor to maintain our high standard.

Freshman Fun

The boys of Ela have turned their attention from basketball to baseball, much to the delight of the fans. Although it was damp last week the boys played "catch" without getting very muddy and without breaking one car window or denting the fenders or sides of a car. We think the good old lineament will come in on more than one arm here Saturday and Sunday.

The freshman class had a party March 18 at the home of Lillian Tomlin. Games were played, and refreshments were served. Mrs. Loomis and Mr. Dorsey were sponsors.

There is a freshman boy who had a hair cut that all the girls are admiring! We wonder who he is?

Sophomore Slush

The sophomore girls won a hard-fought basketball game from the seniors by a score of 13-9 last Monday.

We are glad to have Harold Beckman in school with us after a week's absence.

Three sophomore girls are proud to be on the honor roll for the last six weeks. They are Pauline Fisher, Evelyn Stelling, and Marjorie Soderberg. Marjorie's report card has four A's.

The sophomores are practicing hard to make their assembly program a success.

A number of pupils observed St. Patrick's day by wearing green dresses, sweaters, ties or ribbons.

Evelyn Stelling visited with her mother Saturday and Sunday in Long Grove.

Merrill Hapke spent his last day at Ela last Friday. We are sorry to lose a member of the class. Good luck to you, Merrill.

Pauline Fisher went to Elgin with her parents last Saturday.

Junior Juss

The juniors are missing Richard Beckman and John Leman who have been absent for several days. Here's hoping they will be back with us soon.

We are all relieved because we don't need to worry about exams for another six weeks.

Those who wish to work up their speed in typing are able to join the typing class which has been organized to be held the ninth period on days when there is no other activity.

Senior Splitter

The seniors are having quite a time trying to select their class officers.

When the Women's club met at the school last Thursday, many of the members remarked to Mrs. Loomis about a very disagreeable coal gas odor. But the chemistry class knows hydrogen sulphide when they smell it!

The senior play is progressing slowly but surely. We hope every one will keep the date open.

Women's Club Members Hear Talk on Home Beautifying

Mrs. C. A. Davies who spoke before the Lake Zurich Community Women's club Thursday, March 17, on "A barn and pasture that became a home and garden," was enjoyed by those who attended. Mrs. W. J. The table was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. Guests were present from the Barrington Women's club.

Hip Fracture Results in Death of Old Wauconda Man

A fractured left hip sustained in a fall on an icy sidewalk last Saturday afternoon resulted in the death of Frank Hammond, 85, of Wauconda at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Condell Memorial hospital, Libertyville.

Advanced age of the man and the serious nature of the fracture to his hip bone were two great strains on his vitality, the attending physician reported.

Although the deceased had been largely confined to his home in Wauconda for the past several months, he was well enough to make a short walk in the village last Saturday afternoon. Immediately after the accident, he was rushed to the Condell hospital where the broken bone was set.

Hammond had been a resident of Wauconda for the past 30 years and in the latter years had resided there with a daughter, Mrs. E. F. Redgate. Prior to his going to Wauconda, he had lived in DuPage county.

Besides his daughter in Wauconda, the deceased is survived by a sister, Kate-Bernard of Pasadena, Cal., and a brother, Robin Hammond of Seattle, Wash. His wife preceded him in death several years ago.

Lake County News

Approval of Bond Starts Tax Collection Machinery

Sixty thousand Lake county real estate tax bills were placed in the mails at Waukegan early this week upon the approval of the treasurer's bond and depositaries by State Auditor Oscar Nelson on Monday.

A total of $550,000 in tax statements will be issued in the next few days.

The delay in the county's tax collection machinery resulted through failure to secure a surety bond for County Treasurer Jay B. Morse, a problem growing out of the closing of the Waukegan State bank where a large sum of the treasury was on deposit.

The delay so far has not incurred any penalties on the taxpayers, because the one per cent penalty for delinquency does not become due until May 1.

A surety bond of $895,000 for Treasurer Morse was approved by the county board of supervisors at a special meeting Friday. It was then rushed to Springfield for approval of the state treasurer so that tax collections could be gotten underway as soon as possible.

The supervisors also approved the banks in which the money is deposited, with all lying in Lake county except one, a Chicago institution. Deposits in these are to be limited to the amount of the capital stock and most of the money can be kept in Lake county, the treasurer believes.

Wage Cut Considered for Departmental Employees

County officials and members of the joint committees of finance and fees and salaries, were to meet Thursday in the county building to discuss payrolls of employees.

A resolution was adopted at the March meeting for the two committees to investigate salaries of employees with the object of adjustment.

Some of the members of the committee favor a reduction in salaries, while most of the employers are opposed, largely, they say, because the pay scale was cut drastically in 1929 when retrenchment was ordered throughout the county building.

Since then the rate of pay for a chief assistant to an office holder has not exceeded $200, except in one case, with the majority of the salaries running around $150.

A series of conferences have been held between committee members and department heads, and one joint meeting of the committees was held. Department heads have made their recommendations, and a final decision is expected today.

It is anticipated that a 10 per cent reduction will be made in salaries of most employees, although it probably will not be a flat rate.

Discuss Plans for County Museum of Natural History

Plans for a Lake county museum of natural history were outlined at a meeting in the Waukegan Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night, under the auspices of the Frank Walton league and William I. Lyon.

Plans for the organization follow closely the rules and regulations of the Chicago Academy of Sciences. In this way it will be possible to secure specimens alive and mount them locally without violating game laws.

Afred M. Bailey, director of the Chicago Academy of Sciences, and a friend of Mr. Lyon, has agreed to cooperate in founding the proposed museum. A collection of 150 stuffed birds, property of the late Charles W. Douglas, has been obtained as a foundation for the institution.

Use of a large room in the basement of the North school at Waukegan as temporary headquarters has been offered by Fred W. Back, president of the city school board. It is proposed to establish the institution as an educational center for adults and children.

Palestine Speaks at Fairfield Hall Sunday, April 3

On Sunday evening, April 3, the first of a series of Biblical pictures of Palestine will be shown at Fairfield hall. Mr. Carl Tales of the Los Angeles Geographic Bible institute will present his first illustrated Bible lecture. The first subject will cover the period from creation's dawn to the death of Abraham.

The public is welcome at these meetings and is offered an opportunity of seeing the whole Bible history with 400 colored reproductions of master paintings, direct from the original to the screen.

This will include photographs taken by the author of the geographic system, during his recent two years of research in the Holy Land. In order that everyone may attend the price is within the reach of all. Parents have been invited to attend and take their children. "No one will ever regret having seen these pictures," Rev. Gerth said.

Memorial Recognized as Enduring Work of Art

To a member of the wonderful family of Adams it fell to leave the world one of the most beautiful memorials to a woman in existence anywhere, the masterpiece of Saline Gaudens in Rock Creek cemetery in Washington. It was in 1872 that Henry Adams married Marian Hooper of Boston. For years they lived in Washington. John Hay has left the opinion that there never had been such a union there as that over which she presided. Those were the years of the close intimacy of Adams, Hay and Charles King. Henry Adams and his wife used to read together and ride together and that intimacy constituted a large part of their lives. It was in 1885, when Richard was building the well-known adjacent houses of Hay and Adams, that Mrs. Adams, who had been in ill health, died suddenly under peculiarly tragic circumstances. The event is described by Allen Johnson, the historian. Adams, heavily stricken, went off to Japan with John LaFarge and the East came into contact with the oriental habit of contemplation of the enigma of life and death. The idea Saline Gaudens represented in bronze, and mankind is indebted to him and to Adams for an enduring masterpiece. Sonnets Forgive said only what all must say, that it "is a great art," a change.

Famous French Castle Built by English King

The Chateau Gaillard, built by Richard Coeur de Lion, is one of the most picturesque ruins in France today. It is between Bayeux and Paris and was built by the English king, who is said to have been his own architect. It was erected in one year, with walls 15 feet thick. Richard called it his "Saucy Castle," as it was built in defiance of Philip Augustus, king of France. When the French king saw it he vowed, "I will take it, were it made of iron," to which Richard replied, "And I will hold it, were it made of butter." Richard died in 1199 and Philip took the castle by siege, but the garrison surrendered only at the point of starvation. Henry V of England retook the castle after a siege of 16 months, when the ropes were worn out with which the besieged drew water from the well. The castle was considered the best specimen of military architecture in Europe.

"Saucy Castle" remained intact until 1604, when King Henry IV of France dismantled it, lest a stronghold.

Mr. W. B. Daniels of Richmond Hill, N. Y., writes: "Have finished my second bottle of Kruschen Salt—results—removed 3 inches from the waistline—25 per cent. more active—mind is clear—skin eruptions have disappeared—am 40 years old—feel 20 years younger."

To lose fat surely and SAFELY, take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salt in a glass of hot water in the morning.

But be sure to get Kruschen—your health comes first—a bottle that will last you 4 weeks costs but a few cents at Fredlund Drug Co. or any drug store in the world—if not satisfied—money back.

the country and disposed of his land to the wholesalers. He went home that night with a well filled wallet. Some one had seen the transaction. That night things broke into the house, struck him over the head with the butt of a revolver, trussed him up in a quilt and pushed him under the bed, unconscious; frightened their two small children. His aged mother ran a quarter of a mile to the nearest neighbor's for help, but the burglars escaped. They did not get the money but they made off with his best coat of clothes. Then Mr. and Mrs. Wagner decided to move to the country and hearing of a good location at Roselle, Mr. Wagner bought a market there in 1884.

He operated this market until 1890, when, having a good offer, he disposed of the business and negotiated for a market in Chicago, but Mrs. Wagner, remembering their earlier experience, demurred, and that brought them to Barrington, where, March 1, 1890, Mr. Wagner purchased an established market from Fred Kampert.

Village Re-instates Cases Against Hay

record that could be used as an accurate check of the bonds issued was kept, it was pointed out. The first of the plans explained by Mr. Maloney centered around the theory that Mr. Hay acted as an agent for the Powers & Thompson Construction company, the firm which did the paving work for the village, and therefore made the construction company liable for the over-issued amounts. To substantiate this theory, evidence was given to show that Mr. Hay sold bonds for the contractors, made settlements with property holders for the company when disputes arose over the paving of private driveways joining the pavements, and came in possession of bonds after they had been turned over to the village treasurer.

Mr. Maloney expressed the opinion that, since the treasurer is required to hold the bonds until the completion of the work and then turn them over to a representative of the company, Mr. Hay was either acting as an agent for the construction firm or else he was acting out of his capacity, to come in possession of the bonds after they had been drawn up and turned over to the treasurer.

Would Sue Contractors

The plan set forth that since Mr. Hay acted in the capacity of agent for Powers & Thompson Construction company, that firm could be held liable for the over-issued amount. The suggestion was made that holders of the assessment bonds should act as a body and make themselves plaintiffs in a suit against the company to recover the over-issued amount.

The second plan was that the village assume the liability for the over-issued amount—approximately $20,000—and to float a new bond issue over a period of years to finance the previous. This plan was generally conceded impractical under present conditions.

The two plans were carried over for deliberation until the next regular meeting of the board Monday night. Mr. Maloney advised holders of the bonds not to postpone action.

A resolution was presented to the board for action to re-instate the two judgments against Mr. Hay, which were dropped from the docket last spring. The resolution was passed unanimously.

Excerpts from the report by Trustee Carroll to the board in September, 1930, were read in the discussion by Attorney J. P. Hafner, which brought spirited responses from President Caldwell and Mr. Carroll. The report tended to place the liability for the over-issues on the officials then in office. The report did not bear much weight at the time due to the fact that it had only one signature, Mr. Carroll's, of the committee of which D. B. Pomeroy was also a member.

How to play Bridge AUCTION and CONTRACT

by Wynne Ferguson
Author of "PRACTICAL AUCTION BRIDGE"

Learn to analyze the various hands that come up for discussion and you will soon determine whether or not your bids or those of your fellow-players are sound.

During an evening's play there probably will be several hands that will puzzle you, and those are the hands that you should note and ponder over. The greatest players of the day are not skilful to just such tactics. After a game, he would study over his own hand and that of the other players and try to figure out the proper plays and bids in each instance. All of us cannot do this, but it is a great help if tried out even with only a few hands in evening.

The following represent interesting hands that were noted by the writer during one evening's play:

Hearts—K, 9, 5, 4, 3
Clubs—none
Diamonds—9, 8
Spades—Q, 9, 7, 6, 4, 2

Hand No. 1
1. 10, 9, 4, 3
2. 7, 6, 5, 2

Tricks doubled and all passed. B had five spades, but his partner was so weak that he failed to do a result. Z made five clubs and having only one heart and one spade.

Hand No. 2
1. A, K, Q, J
2. A, K, Q, J

Hearts—A, 8, 4

Hand No. 3
1. 10, 9, 8, 7
2. 10, 9, 8, 7

CONTRACT BIDDING:
Y should bid two diamonds and Z should bid two trumps, the minimum. If Z should bid four spades, which is a good bid, Y should bid five diamonds. It should be evident that Y can make game at diamonds as he should lose only two heart tricks.

1. 10, 9, 8, 4
Clubs—Q, 9, 8, 4

Three Games From Miller
Brothers to Win

The senior boys at the high school did the proper and correct thing last Friday night when they put the juniors in their place in the finals of the inter-class tournament. The score was seniors 19, juniors 16. The juniors made it interesting, however, and the game was never in the bag until the last minute or so. Waggoner of the seniors led the scoring with six points while Reese and Williams were each good for a pair of buckets. Landwer and Beerman each made five points for the "dear old juniors."

In the game for third place the freshmen refused to take the bait sent offered them and upset the sophomores 18 to 15. The frosh played a bang-up game throughout and deserved to win. Conn led the scoring with nine points. In the games in the opening round the seniors had difficulty keeping ahead of these same freshmen while the juniors took the sophomores two to one.

The final games gave the crowd plenty of excitement, and from the way the three underdogs performed it looks as if there will be some material to replace the 1932 champions.

Sunspot Cycles Said to Affect Wild Creatures

Conley Amory, wealthy friend of the Eskimos, took thirty naturalists to his Labrador lodge to find out why game is abundant some years and scarce other years, and to determine to cure them of any fever from which old Eskimos he had found that epidemics creep over the northern wilds in flocks, afflicting all kinds of animals, including feline and domestic dogs. "In two three more years," Eskimos would say, "fever will kill off rabbits, molly coddy will make many dogs mad, hunters will return empty-handed and many people will die."

Investigating conditions on the ground, the professors concluded that game is governed by alternating periods of scarcity and plenty, which keep step with the eleven-year sunspot cycles. When sunspots are most numerous, ultra-violet light is most intense, and this biological radiation is as good for cubes as food liver oil is for babies.

But that is the least part of the story. The professors discovered that parasites mean more to wild animals than white sunshine. Ultra violet light is a germicide; it kills the parasites that, in the absence of such light, multiply by millions in "living-fur coats" and kill the animals.—Los Angeles Times.

Hager's Pin Team Wins League Title From Cad's Group

Losers to Fete Winners in Lions Club Bowling
Circuit

The Hager bowling team easily walked away with the Lions bowling league title Monday night after a close race with the Cadwallader aggregation, the past few weeks. Hager's men were running in second place last week but shot out ahead with a series of 2,438 pins to the Cadwallader's team's 2,099 pins Monday night and thus out-pointed their opponents for the title by 273 pins.

Members of the two leading teams and their wives will be feted at a dinner to be given in about two weeks. Incidentally, the two honored teams this year were the sponsors of the dinner last year.

Two Teams Battle for Decision in Zoo Cage League

Nine Team Captains Elect
Members on All-Zoo
League Quintet

The sixty-five boys in high school, not on the squad, have just completed their season's competition in the Zoo league.

Speed Miller's Wildcats, like their Northwestern Namesakes, started out strong and won seven straight games. Then in the final game of the season they fell before Catlow's outfit which had already lost three games. This put Bud Garbisch's team in a tie for first place with Miller's team. Arrangements have been made to play off this tie.

The standing at present is:

Team Won Lost Pct.
P. Miller 7 1 .875
Garbisch 7 1 .875
Catlow 5 3 .625
Kincaid 5 4 .562
E. Miller 4 4 .500
G. Banks 4 4 .500
Jurs 2 6 .250
Berger 2 6 .250
Etters 0 8 .000

Pick All-Zoo Team

All the boys in high school got a chance to play at least some basketball and several individuals showed some wonderful improvement in their playing skill during the season. As is customary the nine captains voted for their choice for the All-Zoo League team.

The results show that they think that Bob Ullrich, George Banks and his brother, Carlos, would make the three best forwards. For center they would like to see Jerry Green while Paul Miller, Herb Mollenkamp and Fritz Wendt were picked for the guard positions. Honorable mention goes to H. Plagge, L. Kincaid, B. Catlow, L. Klopferstein, B. Miller, J. Pavlik, F. Garbisch, V. Duhis and E. Etters.
