Miss Marion Johnson and Robert Grothman Married

Miss Marion Johnson of Barrington, daughter of R. A. Johnson of Merrill, Wis., former Barrington resident, and Robert Grothman, son of Ernest R. Grothman of Wisconsin Rapids, were married Saturday at 5 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Grothman, 739 Prospect avenue. Rev. C. R. Drussel officiated at the simple, candlelight service, using the single ring ceremony.

The attendants were, Mrs. George Johnson of Barrington, aunt of the bride, and Paul Grothman, brother of the groom. Recorded music, "Lohengrin's Wedding March" and "I Love You Truly," with lavish flower arrangements of white lilacs and white tulips provided a beautiful setting for the ceremony.

The bride wore dusty rose crepe with a corsage of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Her attendant, Mrs. Johnson, wore powder blue crepe, with a corsage of pink sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

Following the ceremony, a buffet supper was served for 12 guests, members of the immediate families. The table was beautifully laid with a centerpiece of pink sweet peas, lilies of the valley and white tapers.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Parsons of Highland Park. Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Grothman will live on West Main street.
