Rev. and Mrs. Suhr on Furlough From Missionary Service

Rev. and Mrs. Suhr and their daughter, Esther Louise, who have been engaged in missionary work in China under the board of missions of the Evangelical church, returned to Barrington last Friday morning on furlough for one year.

The missionary family was given a "welcome home" under the auspices of the W. M. S. on Sunday evening at the Sulphur Evangelical church, at which time a program was rendered and words of welcome were given by the pastor, Rev. Phillip Beuscher.

In his remarks in responding to the welcome by the pastor, Mr. Suhr mentioned that China was hard hit with cholera this year, even as early as May when they were making their preparations to leave. And along economic lines, what has been considered an abnormal condition in America the last three years is really normal in China, for that stricken country is chronically distressed with floods, drought, famine, pestilence, wars, political unrest, communism and just about all the ills that afflict humanity.

Mrs. Suhr, daughter of the late F. L. Lageschulte and sister of George A. Lageschulte, was born on the farm, a mile and one-half south of Barrington. She with her husband first went to China in 1908 serving in terms of seven years in the Province of Hunan, China, and according to the rules of the mission are now permitted a furlough at the end of their third term of service.

Mr. and Mrs. Suhr are scheduled to give addresses at the Barrington Park Camp meeting on Tuesday, Aug. 21, which is designated as Missionary Day. Later they plan to do deputation work under the Board of missions in various parts of the church.

Schools Expected to Run on Normal Basis During Year

Lake Co. System Cuts Bonded Indebtedness $339,305, Report Shows

Most of Lake county schools will open on time and operate on normal schedules during the coming year, W. C. Petty, county superintendent of schools, commented when he made public his annual report to the state superintendent Monday.

Bonded indebtedness, including retired bonds and interest payments was cut $339,305.53 on all school in Lake county, including grade and secondary schools, according to the report.

A number of districts have no bonded debt, and these will feel the expected reduced income only slightly. Others must cut the corners more carefully, the superintendent pointed out.

Statistics prepared for the report showed that teachers in the elementary and secondary schools last year earned $1,450,470. This figure includes all substitutes and superintendents who taught half time or more.

Maintain High Rank

The county boasts eight high schools and 106 elementary school districts, which include an unprecedented number with a "superior" ranking. The school population included 1846 in the secondary schools, and 4,527 in the grades, a total of 19,273. There are 751 teachers on the regular staff.

Estimated value of the school property and equipment is $7,803, 928, against which is outstanding a bonded debt of $2,336,050. Tax income from the various districts is $2,270,430, and the total income from all sources for operating the county schools, $9,449,674.

Ten Cents Admission Charge for Movie at Catlow Next Tuesday

Memories of the old nickelodeon days of moving pictures when a small, thin dime would admit an adult to a screen play will be recalled next Tuesday evening by people of Barrington and vicinity.

The Catlow theatre will offer a ten cent show—or rather will admit all adults and children to a good show for ten cents each. The theatre management will not lower their regular admission prices except on Tuesday night when the ten cent show will be put on trial. If the plan succeeds Tuesday night, the management will adopt the plan for every Tuesday night.

Mr. Face Reddy will be the main attraction on that evening. This picture, which has received favorable criticism, will feature Ricardo Cortez, Robert Armstrong and Helen Twelvetrees. In addition to the main feature there will be news, comedy and sport.

Sales Per Cent

For the four weeks ended July 26, sales were $61,238.810, $7,027,058 for 1931, and is a decrease of 10.30 per cent.

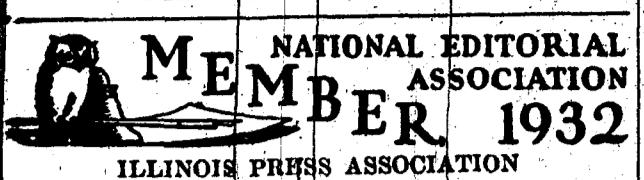

Sales in tons were 1,000,000 in 1931. This is a decrease of 33.33 per cent.

Sales in July were 819,256, a decrease of $3,197,211. Sales in June were 1,034,322, in 4,065.

LOYALTY

Loyalty is one of the most essential of the virtues; likewise, one of the rarest. Just now we have in mind community loyalty—or the lack of it. In the building and growth of towns and counties and cities, and of their schools, loyalty should, if they should, be the determining factor.

There is one city in this region that has been pushed ahead by the loyalty of its inhabitants, nearly all of whom are constant boosters. To declare that it is the best city in all the land, became a habit with the citizens there many years ago. The children of the last two or three generations have been "raised" on this brand of boast. They are all puffed up with the idea that it is the best city in existence and they couldn't believe otherwise if they tried. They do not look elsewhere for what they want, believing it can be bought in their own city. The spirit of loyalty is a passion with most of them. There may be others who practice patronizing home enterprises with only a selfish object in view, but they also are helping to build their town. No great mental capacity is required to realize that all money spent in our own community helps everybody in it, sooner or later, directly or indirectly.

In the smaller towns the complaint is sometimes heard that the local merchants do not carry what the people want. Again, we hear that prices are lower somewhere else (at special sales probably), and some people make the trip to get something at a slight reduction, not counting the cost of the trip and the time. A saturation of community loyalty would change all this and the merchants would have in stock what the people want. Nothing would please the merchants better than to know the home people would buy from them the same things they order by mail or make trips to purchase in other towns.

The merchants need to do their part also. Oftentimes they have in stock the identical articles that people want, and go elsewhere because they do not know it. We were asked recently where a certain line of articles could be found in Louisville. We did not know because we had never had occasion to inquire at any of several stores that might be expected to have them in stock and could not recall having noticed them on display. They had not been advertised.

If the merchants can find out what the people want they will keep it in stock. If the people can learn without too much waste of time and energy what the merchants have for sale they will buy from them more often than they otherwise do. The habit of patronizing home people may be acquired in this way, along with a development of the spirit of loyalty to home. News-Recorder, Louisville, Kentucky.

CHEATING OURSELVES

The story is told of a dishonest worker. He and his family were roofless, whereupon a certain good Samaritan decided to surprise this poor man with a comfortable home. So, without telling his purpose, he hired the builder at a fair wage to build a house on a sunny hill, and then went on business to a faraway country. The builder was left to work with no watchman but his own honor. "Ha," said he in his heart, "I can skimp the material and scamp the work." So he went on skimping out the time, putting in poor service, poor nails, poor timbers.

When the good Samaritan returned, the builder said: "That's a fine house I built on the hill." "Good," was the reply, "Go move your folks into it at once for the house is yours. Here is the deed." The builder was thunderstruck. He realized that, instead of cheating his friend, he had been industrially cheating himself when he did not know it was his own house he was building.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL

We have proved these past few Sundays that it need not be and is not a hard task to attend worship on a summer morning. It was really an hour of joy, beauty and inspiration. If not worshiping elsewhere, come with us at 10:35 o'clock. There will be beautiful music by the choir and the minister of the church will bring a meditation on this timely theme: "The Christian Olympics."

HERMANN E. KOENIG, Pastor.

That illustration reminds us vividly of the predilection our voters and taxpayers find themselves in today. They suffer under a burden that has become almost unbearable. They wail loud and long about the burdens of taxation, wasteful and foolish governmental expenditure, graft and cheap politics. But are they not criticizing the house they built themselves?

Back a short time ago when most of us had more money than brains and when we were drunk on the power of the almighty dollar, we openly voted for and supported candidates of a spendthrift character, knowing when we did so that we were "slipping in shoddy materials" in the governmental structure we were building. We knew that government, justly and economically administered, required sober thought and honest action, yet we dismissed the thought with the snap of the finger and went right along with our own selfish pursuit of the dollar. We didn't have time to vote intelligently.

Now we are reaping the rewards. Of course the house we built leaks and cracks and threatens to collapse. But we can't blame it on the other fellow. "We built ourselves."

Let us profit by our lesson and build the next house as it should be. Our democratic government isn't at fault. The fault lies with us voters who built it. We have been cheating ourselves.—Guide, Batavia, Ill.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER

By National Editorial Association
(Special to The Review)

RUMORS

have been dribbling to Washington for sometime regarding the changes in ambassadorships here. Italy has made the first move by naming Augusto Rosso, head of the League of Nations section of the Italian foreign office to succeed Ambassador DeMartino. It is understood that at least four more envoys are scheduled to walk the plank in the near future—Debuchi of Japan, Von Prittwitz of Germany, Claudel of France and Casaurano of Mexico. Ambassador DeMartino of Italy is now dean of the Washington diplomatic corps. If the French ambassador leaves us the deanship will pass to the Turkish ambassador. In more prosperous days the foreign embassies were the centers of lavish entertainment. The budgets of these foreign establishments have been cut to the bone, and when envoys must now reach down in their own pockets to defray the expenses of entertainment social activities have been greatly curtailed.

"The yield obtained is among the important things influencing the cost of growing crops. It may often be more profitable to take some of the poorer land out of cultivation, putting it back into pasture, woodlot or other uses, than to attempt to farm large acreages in a way that will cut the yields on the whole area.

"For instance, farmers with low corn costs last year produced the crop for around 35 cents a bushel, including a charge for the use of land. They were able to keep the costs down to this point because they had the soil well built up, they obtained good yields and they worked their land in a thorough yet economical way.

"The average cost of growing corn in east central Illinois was 43 cents a bushel in 1931, but on some farms the figure ran up as high as 60 cents a bushel. Some of these high-cost farmers worked their ground and put in their corn crop without the care and thoroughness they could have used on the better land in corn.

"The same total volume of crop production on a farm may be obtained by putting from 20 to 25 per cent of the land in soil building crops such as sweet clover. A good rotation which includes legumes often improves yields 15 to 25 per cent and at the same time does away with the necessity of plowing and working the land 20 to 25 per cent of the land that is down in the soil-building crops."

"Shaking Down Motorists".

Shaking down motorists on the highways has reached the stage where only the concerted action of motorists, backed by the power of the State's Attorney's office, can cope with the evil. In the opinion of Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club, the club president, at a special meeting of the board of directors of the organization called last week for the purpose of outlining an intensive campaign against road brigands, said: "With the elections coming on in November the police assigned to patrol country roads are worrying about their tenure of office. Others, who may feel secure in their posts, are disturbed because of many payless weeks and months. The morale of the highways never has been at lower ebb."

"On the other hand, car owners who have felt the benefits of the improved financial conditions of the past few weeks, and who are taking their cars out for the first time this year, should be allowed to get the recreation they need so much without being subjected to the caprices of the police. Neither sympathy for the plight of policemen nor the fact that they are in the minority, should deter us from using every legal method to clean up the highway in preparation for the Century of Progress exposition. Already right-minded policemen have indicated a willingness to assist the authorities in deodorizing the condition, which in some quarters is a stench in the nostrils of the public."

GRABBING HEADLINES has been the great political game during the past week, with the republicans apparently, winning the first game of the series. Governor Roosevelt's action in placing Mayor Walker on trial at Albany the same day that President Hoover delivered his acceptance speech was regarded in the republican camp as a trick to steal the show which was being staged in Constitution hall in Washington.

SECONDARY CITIES, rather than the nation's financial capitals, will be selected as headquarters of the regional home loan banks to be established under the government's newest credit system for the relief of mortgage-burdened home owners, it is reported. Such a policy would bar home banks in such financial centers as New York, Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia, Cleveland, St. Louis and San Francisco.

HOLD OUT DOOR ART SALE

Pedestrians walking on the east side of Michigan boulevard, between Jackson and VanBuren streets were astonished last Saturday in witnessing a swarm of artists settling down on the velvet lawn of Grant park, and unloading their wares. Park benches were appropriated and oil paintings, water colors, drawings, wood carvings, silhouettes and pen and ink sketches were set up in confusion on the grass. It was the first outdoor art show to be inaugurated

Lions Fall Easy Prey to Recently Organized Girls' Softball Team

Each day the weaker sex becomes stronger and conquers new domains in the cherished manly realm.

The latest evidence is the defeat of a Lions club softball team by a recently organized team made up of Barrington girls. Whether or not the sturdy sex gave the "fair maidens" the game or were taken off their guard depends on whose side the story is told. Several of the Lions admitted, however, that the girls were pretty good. The girls proved excellent at fielding and pitching. Louis Miller, pitcher for the Lions, was plastered all over the field for a number of solid hits. The final tally was 15 to 13 for the girls.

Both the club championship and junior club championship tournaments are in progress at the club. Glen and Don Heileman will vie for honors in class A (over 18 years of age) of the junior tournament. Glen won from A. Collins by default and Don defeated N. Fallede 7-5 in the first round. Only four players were qualified in this class.

In class B of the junior division George Greider defeated Walter Wolf 7-6; Bill Clegg held a bye; Andy Sauer defeated Bob Taney 6-7; Bill Robins won from George Wolf by default; K. Holloman defeated Tom Gardiner; Andre Lauletta defeated Lottier 5-8; Fred Andrews defeated George Gots, Jr. 0-7; and Stanley Best held a bye.

A quartet of women members of the Barrington Country club distinguished their golfing ability Monday by qualifying in the first flight of the women's state public parks championship event which is being held at the Waveland course at Lincoln park, Chicago, this week. The four women are Mrs. Ingmar Gots, Mrs. Lester Higgins, Mrs. Agnes Henry and Mrs. Odessa Drogosch. Mrs. Gots qualified with a 107. Mrs. Higgins with a 108 and the other two women with 114 each.

The course proved to be a difficult one as only five of the large number of players who played in the qualifying round were able to break 100. All four of the local women won their matches in the first round which was played Tuesday and successfully came through the second round Wednesday. One of the local women will be eliminated today as Mrs. Henry and Mrs. Higgins are paired for the quarter finals.

Vets Day at Fair to Draw Many Bands, Drum Corps

The state-wide committee of bands in the military organizations of Illinois who will conduct the Veterans Day program of the Illinois State Fair, Sunday, August 21, anticipate a large crowd to the fair grounds.

For this, the third annual presentation of this patriotic feature, the bands, drum and bugle corps, clown bands and drill teams entered are almost double that of 1931. As each participating unit is to bring a formidable following of "spectators" from their respective posts and home communities, a tremendous crowd is to prospect, according to the officials.

Chicago and suburban bands, well represented in the entry list, have arranged for seven special trains to run to Springfield. Excursions from the southern, eastern and north western sections are also being chartered, and the bus lines of the state have reported a greater demand for charter coaches than they are able to supply, even after drawing upon their allies in the adjacent states.
