Police Department Has
First Private Office

A private office with individual desk, files, etc., is now a part of the Barrington police department—the first time this has been the case in the history of the village, according to Chief Ernest Baude.
Since the treasurer's office was moved to the Lamey building, 102 N. Cook street, the police officers have established an office in the building directly connected with the treasurer's office.
There are many matters which come before the police that require privacy," the chief said. "We are now able to take care of these matters in the proper way."
The treasurer's and chief of police officers occupy the north section of the ground floor of the building. During the night and most of the day, a policeman is available at the new location, 102 N. Cook street. According to plans, a police department sign will be painted on one of the large front windows of the building.

Barrington Relief Group
Will Need to Hold Drive
Before First of Month

That the Barrington Relief committee drive will be conducted before November 1 was indicated today by M. H. Schreiber, chairman, who stated that the committee does not have sufficient funds to pay all of the expenses which may be expected to accrue in October.

At the beginning of the month the committee had a balance of approximately $500. October is a heavy expense month in that coal is needed, clothing is needed, and even the demand for food increases during the cold weather.

The committee will hold another meeting Friday night to decide the date and method of the drive. The committee will decide also whether to join the new Cook County Emergency Relief committee which takes the place of the old Joint Emergency Relief.

In the Barrington Relief organization, the county group, the drive will be held simultaneously with that conducted throughout Cook county.

Meats Valued at $300 Stolen From
N. W. Packing Co.Place Ransacked Tuesday Night by Men Familiar With the Plant

Assorted meats, valued at more than $300, were stolen from the Northwest Packing Co. plant south of Barrington Tuesday evening by robbers who ransacked the entire building selecting choice articles from a fairly large stock.

The robbers gained entrance either through a rear window which was found broken in Wednesday, or through the front door which was left open after completing the job.
To open the front door, the thieves must have picked a large padlock or else have had a key to unlock it with.

Included in the loot taken were 25 smoked hams, a tub of calves' livers, a side of beef, a dozen slabs of bacon, 30 or 40 pounds of butter, pork sausage, pork butts, and many other items of fresh meat. Five gallons of heavy engine oil and a drum of gasoline were also stolen.

The robbers used matches to furnish light to do the job by and were apparently men familiar with the plant. Burnt matches were found scattered through the basement and ground floor. Of three coolers in the basement, two contained stock and one was empty prior to the robbery.

The empty cooler was not molested, but the other two were opened and ransacked. It was determined that the empty cooler had not been opened because a pile of sawdust lying in front of the door had not been moved.

The robbery was discovered at 7:00 a. m. Wednesday. The front door was open and truck tracks in front of the plant indicated that a heavy truck had been parked in front of the building. The robbers had entered the office of the plant but removed nothing except a book which contained a list of charge accounts. Duplicates of these accounts were kept by the owners.

The owners of the Northwest Packing Co. are Tom Evanger and Richard Heybeck.

Barrington Road South of Village Will Be Open to Traffic After October 16

After having been closed since midsummer, the Barrington road will be opened to traffic early in the week of October 16 dependent upon the completion of a viaduct in the low land a quarter of a mile south of the village.

The paving is completed from Barrington to the Algonquin road. A new grade south of the village, which was installed this year, was the last part of the road to be paved, but this surface has been installed and has set long enough to be ready for use. An open place was left in the grade for installation of a viaduct. This will be put in within the next week by the John Mackler Construction Co. of Chicago.

The paved section of the Barrington road between Lake street and the Algonquin road will not be completed this year.

Youth Receives Severe
Eye Injury While Playing
Near the School House

Chester Walbaum, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Walbaum of Barrington township, is suffering from a severe eye injury.

While playing with the other pupils at school on Monday, he was struck in the left eye with a burr from a birdlock plant. The ball of the eye was cut. The young man is under the care of a specialist.

Joe P. Welch Is
New Lake County
Deputy Sheriff

Joe P. Welch, insurance salesman and club town constable, has been appointed a deputy sheriff of Lake county.

Mr. Welch received notice of his appointment last week to take effect Saturday, Oct. 1. He is now one of 12 deputies operating on the squad of Sheriff Lester Tiffany of Waukegan.

Although he has been on duty, Deputy Sheriff Welch is available for night calls and will later be placed on night duty.

The appointment of Mr. Welch marks the first time in years that a man residing in the southwest corner of this county has been a deputy sheriff. The Barrington man will retain his residence in this village as part of a plan by the sheriff's force to help cover the entire county. He will be available at his home and will have direct radio connections with the sheriff's office in Waukegan.
If an important call is made to Mr.
Welch, he can immediately relay this to Waukegan which in turn relays the call to state police headquarters in Chicago. From there it is broadcasted over the state and picked up by sheriff, state and local police in all parts of Illinois within a few minutes after the call has been made to the local office.

Review Will Go to Press 8 Hours Earlier, Co-operation Requested

A change in publication time of The Review has been decided on to facilitate mailing and to insure early delivery to subscribers in the towns surrounding Barrington.

In the past, The Review has been published late Thursday nights in order to take care of late advertising and news. With a carefully worked out program which involves cooperation of the part of the advertisers and news contributors, The Review will be published on Thursday afternoons without any resulting loss in news and advertising service.

Although the subscribers in Barrington and on the local rural routes have always received their copies of the newspaper not later than Friday morning, some of the subscribers residing in nearby communities have frequently received their copies as late as Friday afternoon. With the new mailing time schedule this delay in delivery will be eliminated.

To make the time change, a new set of deadlines will be necessary. Display advertising copy can be received on Monday and Tuesday and early Wednesday morning. Correspondence copy should be received not later than Tuesday evening. News of scheduled events, church notes, club announcements, etc., should be in the news office not later than Tuesday noon. Cooperation on the part of advertisers and news contributors will be greatly appreciated as it will help The Review staff produce a good newspaper promptly.

The new schedule will go into effect with the next issue.

Horner to Stop at Barrington on Lake County TourMotor Cavalcade of Candidates Expected Here at Democratic Rally

Assurance that Judge Henry Horner, candidate for governor on the democratic ticket, will halt his motor cavalcade in Barrington on Monday, Oct. 17, was received this week by Cornelius Snyder, democratic committee man from Cuba township, from the Lake county central camp. Judge Horner's caravan will make a complete tour of Lake county on that date.

Definite plans for Mr. Horner's reception and program have not yet been made. Mr. Snyder said, although it is expected that the gubernatorial candidate together with some of his associates will give talks. A meeting of county committeemen with John O'Keefe, Lake county central chairman, is planned to be held at Waukegan Friday night at which time the itinerary will be laid out and plans for the programs at the various stops discussed.

The caravan, which will travel by automobile, probably will be made up of other state candidates in addition to Judge Horner, Lake county committeemen and other party constituents.

bruises received from a hard fall Thursday evening, Sept. 29.

Lake street at 8:30 o'clock when

Building of Totem Pole Is Part of Scouts' ProgramWeek-End Outing at Deer Grove Camp for Scouts of Northwest

Final details for completing the setting for one of the most interesting scout rallies in the history of the local scout council were settled at a meeting of the special committee under Field Scout Commissioner E. J.
Anderson Wednesday evening at Des Plaines. An unusual amount of enthusiasm prevails among the scouts of the local troops as they anticipate participating in this great event. If the weather is fair a large attendance is anticipated.

The rally will officially open at 9 o'clock Saturday morning at Camp Evan-Bosco, the Evanston Boy Scout camp at Deer Grove near Barrington with a varied program of instruction in acrobatics and handicraft until mid-afternoon. At this time a huge treasure hunt will be staged. It is to be unusual in that all those reaching the end of the trail will find a "treasure" for them. The climax of the day's activities will come in the form of a campfire program.

[Another feature that occupies an important place in the program is the totem pole project. An authentic design has been marked out upon a large pole. Each scout and leader that attends the rally will do some of the work on this pole, either in cutting the design or decorating it. As he does so his name will be written upon a scroll to be buried at the base of the pole.

There will be an attendance prize for the troop having the most of its members there. Gifts have also been promised all scouts that attend.

A number of expert handicraft instructors are to carry on a continuous program of instruction throughout the course of the rally. Leatherwork, met-allcraft, beadwork, woodcarving, cord and knot craft and birch bark work will be among those offered. Ample opportunities for this as well as other types of instruction are provided in the program.

cago.

The girl's eye was hit by a paper wad from a toy gun while she was playing in Barrington. The eye ball was cut with the result that there was danger of the little girl losing her sight of one eye. However, doctors have stated that Dorothy now has a good chance of complete recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and family have moved from their home on Coolidge avenue to Edison park.

A new feature has been added to the Farmers' Institute which will be held at the La. Township High school on Friday, Oct. 14. This will be exhibits of house dresses to cost not over 75c to make and aprons to cost not over 50c. The prize winning garment in each of these classes will be sent to the state meeting in Joliet on February 22-24, as will be prize winning exhibits in the pantry group. Mrs. Charles Weaver is chairman of the domestic arts division and Mrs. Clarence Stussinger of the culinary division.

Work of planning and arranging for the institute is well under way with a large number of exhibits secured. The feature address of the evening by Harry G. House, of the economics department of the University of Chicago on "Our Economic Development and World Trade" is expected to draw a large attendance.

Mrs. Frank Pank will give a talk on "How the House is Heated" in the afternoon program. The Prairie View band will assist in the institute with music.

Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee Railroad Is Placed in Receivership

The Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee railroad was placed in receivership last Friday by Federal Judge James A. Wilkerson. The petition was filed by the American Trade Shoe and Foundry company and declared the railroad owed the company $3,897.

The receivership petition said the road borrowed $1,500,000 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, owes $175,000 in taxes to Cook and Lake counties in Illinois and to the state of Wisconsin and is unable to meet current obligations.

Judge Wilkerson appointed Col. A. A. Sprague and Britton I. Budd of Chicago as receivers.

Budd is president of the Chicago Elevated Lines, over the tracks of which the North Shore trains run in Chicago. Colonel Sprague is head of the Chicago Rapid Transit company. Bonds for each in the receivership were set at $25,000.

The petition declares the railroad has failed to meet approximately $1,000,000 in interest on $15,000,000 in outstanding bonds. Liabilities are alleged in the petition to be $300,000 more than current assets and revenue from operation insufficient to meet present expenses.

Receivership of the Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee Railroad company, will not affect the service of the railroad, the company announced.

"The directors believe that under the protection of the court the properties can be continued in their high condition of operating efficiency, the rights of the owners of securities preserved and the service maintained for the benefit of the public," a statement issued by the company says.

Grayslake Youngsters to Have Circus All Winter; Menagerie Moves to Town

Circus days may be every day for the next seven months to the children of Grayslake, as a full menagerie of wild animals has taken up quarters there for the winter.

The animals, belonging to the Seils-Sterling circus which showed at Barrington last week, moved into winter quarters in the old Underreiden Canning company barns Sunday. It will be there until April 15 when it goes on the road again.

There are two elephants, one camel, seven lions and tigers, a hyena, ten monkeys, 25 ponies, horses and mules, and six snakes of several descriptions.

The circus is occupying the brick buildings erected by the canning company and the Livestock Sales company is headquarters in the frame barns.

The entry of the menagerie kept the youngsters of Grayslake busy all Sunday watching the camels and rings of the animals and trainers.

Santa Claus Should Have More Toys for Children This Year

There should be more toys for children this Christmas as Santa Claus has just been relieved of the worry connected with a $25,000 suit incurred last December. Ralph J. Dady, Lake county circuit judge, entered an order in circuit court Monday that relieved him of that worry.

Way back last winter the Libertyville-Mundelein Chamber of Commerce, through Attorney Paul MacGuffin brought suit against N. H. Dimond of the Dimond Reindeer Ranch company, doing business as Santa Claus, for $25,000.

Libertyville and Mundelein were set for a big day Dec. 21, 1931, as arrangements were made to bring Santa Claus and his reindeer to the towns. Merchants stocked their shelves in anticipation of a big business day.

Just before the big event, N. H. Dimond of Duluth, Minn. who promised to bring Santa Claus, telegraphed that he could not appear and offered to refund the fee given him.

The merchants were enraged. No one came into their stores to purchase the excess stock bought on the promise that Santa Claus would be in Libertyville in person.

The Chamber of Commerce ordered the suit for damages, and things looked bad for Santa and Dimond until MacGuffin suggested to the court that the suit be dismissed.

A number of employees, it was reported, are to be dismissed in order to further reduce expenditures.

Lake Forest Justice of Peace Orders Magazine Salesmen to Leave Town

After collecting $130 on subscriptions from fashionable Lake Forest families, two slick magazine salesmen last week were ordered to repay to the last dollar and then leave town by Justice S. J. Sorenson. The pair was first apprehended when complaints were made by several women subscribers after they became suspicious of the salesmen.

Both men sat behind the bars and complaints continued to pour in to police headquarters. Last Wednesday they appeared before Justice Sorenson who fined them $200 each on charges of disorderly conduct.

The pair gave their names as Philip Land and S. R. Krause and both claimed their home as Hollywood, Calif. For several days they had visited Lake Forest homes and did a thriving business, collecting about $130.

Fine was suspended on the condition both salesmen would return every dollar collected and leave Lake Forest.

They started to make the rounds of Lake Forest again, this time giving back money until the last subscriber was paid in full.

Milwaukee Couple Keep Marriage License Seven Years; Then Get Married

On Jan. 14, 1925, a young Milwaukee couple applied for a marriage license from Lew A. Hendee, Lake county clerk, and left the office with the document, apparently on their way for a minister.

Last Friday, seven years later, a young couple appeared before Joseph Stanczak, deputy county clerk, and the man laid a worn marriage license on the desk.

"Is this still good, or will be need another?" he inquired of the clerk.

"Didn't you use it?" Stanczak asked.

The man confessed that they didn't.

"Do you want to get married now?" Stanczak asked.

"Yes, sir."

"Well, the license is still good for one marriage," the clerk advised him.

Justice M. J. Haney married the couple on the seven-year-old license.

The man, John Loke, gave his age as 27 in 1925, the records show, and the girl, Hilma Henderson, as 20 years. Both still reside in Milwaukee.

Library News

The regular monthly meeting of the library board was held Monday evening at the library. Reports were submitted by the secretary, treasurer and librarian. During the month 90 new books were added to the shelves, including the New Americana encyclopedia of 30 volumes.

It was decided to purchase a new dictionary and stand. The library is now reaching the outlying district schools. At the present time four schools are reaping the benefit of the library. Thirty books are given each room for the period of one month. At the end of the month they are returned and a new selection is taken.

Tribute to Handel's Genius Handel's "Messiah" created a sensation at its first performance in London, and when the chorus struck up, "For the Lord God omnipotent reigneth," the audience stood and remained standing till the chorus ended, this rising to the feet when over that part of the music in performed becoming thereafter an English custom.—Detroit News.

Reunion of Ternau Family Descendants Held at Barrington

More than 40 persons, representing three branches of descendants of the Ternau family tree of which the Frank H. Plagge family of Barrington is one, met at a picnic at the Barrington Park campgrounds Sunday for their third annual reunion. The descendants of the early Ternau family, pioneers of Elmhurst, included Mrs. Frank H. Plagge of Barrington, Mrs. Fred Tindle of Evanston, and Mrs. Dora Kuhl of Evanston. Had all the members attended there would have been 74.

The original plan of the annual reunion was that the three families be hosts alternately to the gathering but due to illness in the Kuhl family the reunion was held here. The first meeting was held at Elmhurst last year. The Ternau descendants as hosts, last year the local Plagge descendants but due to illness in the Kuhl family the reunion was held here. The first meeting was held at Elmhurst last year. The Ternau descendants as hosts, last year the local Plagge descendants but due to illness in the Kuhl family the reunion was held here.

It was decided that the meeting next year will be held on the old Plagge home at York Center, four miles north of Downers Grove. One of the Plagge boys still lives on the farm.

Among those from Barrington who attended the reunion were Frank H. Plagge, Betty Plagge, John Plagge, Mrs. Plagge, Mrs. D. B. Plagge, Mrs. Plagge, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cannon and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Plagge and family.

Dr. Curtis Nelson Takes Charge of Welchett Office

Dr. Curtis Nelson, physician and surgeon, has located in the office of Dr. Welchett of Barrington and will take care of the latter's practice while he is on an extended vacation. Dr. Nelson comes from Evanston and has had the experience necessary to ably fill the place. He will hold regular hours as announced in a professional card on page 7 of The Review.

Dr. Welchett is resting at home. He does not plan to return to his practice before spring.

Poultry Exhibition at Fair Recognized as National Show

The exhibition of domestic fowls at the Illinois State fair of 1932 has received the highest honor that the poultry industry of the United States bestows—full recognition as a completed official American Poultry association show, according to E. G. Horner, chief poultryman in the state department of agriculture. Medals and other appropriate trophies also to be issued by the national organization to the winners of almost 100 classifications of the exhibition, according to arrangements recently completed by Chief Horner and the officials of the American Poultry association.

Chicago Old Soldier Elected National Commander G.A.R.

Capt. William D. Wright, 83, of Chicago, was elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic at the sixty-sixth annual encampment of that organization held in Springfield. The encampment approved a committee report favoring construction of a $250,000 G. A. R. memorial amphitheater near Lincoln's tomb in Springfield. The Grand Army of the Republic was founded in Springfield by Dr. Benjamin Stephenson. Honoring members of the organization, meeting in Springfield at their annual gathering, paid homage at the grave of their founder with appropriate ceremonies.

State Institutions Invest in Cattle for Feeding

Attractive prices for feeding cattle and the abundance of grain and forage on state institutions have opened a new field of animal husbandry at a number of state institutions. The department of public welfare has reported. At Chicago, beef cattle fattened on prison produced grain and forage, will provide about two-thirds of the beef requirements during the last three months of the year. For the first quarter of 1932, the entire beef rations of the institution will be provided from the prison farm, according to the state farm consultant's calculations.

Formal Notification of Call to Domestic Duty

It seems that the wife of a well-known member of the Central Manufacturing District club, whom we shall name fictitiously for obvious reasons, has experienced considerable difficulty in persuading her spouse to assume a share in the family responsibilities. Particularly, she would appreciate a helping hand in the morning when there are breakfast to get, children to dress, and a host of other cares to discharge in a minimum of time.

Other means failing, she finally resorted to the formalistic and, wakening him one morning, thrust before his astonished eyes the following neatly done card:

Mrs. Easton Westwood requests the esteemed company of Mr. Easton Westwood at the taking of their children, Edward, Eleanor, and Edelweiss, this morning at eleven-fifteen in the bath and only bathroom of the Westwood domicile. (Overflow will gather in the south hall.)—Exchange.

Edible Frogs and Snails

Fried cuttlefish is one of the great delicacies of the restaurants in the south of France, Spain, and Italy. The frogs the French eat are not the same as those which inhabit our rivers and ponds. They are bigger and greener. Only the legs are eaten, and they taste rather like the best parts of a chicken. In several foreign countries these big fat snails that you find on ivy-covered walls are highly esteemed. The oyster is a snail, as are the scallop, the whelk and the winkie. Many British rivers teem with freshwater crayfish. They are as tasty as any shellfish, but they are seldom eaten by English folks. Abroad, the river crayfish commands high prices.—London Mail.

Poor Outlook

An anonymous English poet doesn't take very kindly to the fact that our longevity is increasing.

"So we're all getting stronger, are bound to live longer? There's nothing consoling in that! It's really no blessing; in fact, it's distressing to think we may rival the cat."

"The chap who has married will wish he had married: Nine lives with one wife, in a bag of credits for dresses and crimps in her tresses would equal nine lives of a dog."

"Whoever's elated to learn we are slated for ancient Methuselah's role, is perfectly happy—or maybe he's happy at thought of nine lives on the dole."—Boston Transcript.

Elephants Roamed Rome

The last resting place of a Roman or fossil elephant that died perhaps 25,000 years before the Christian era was believed to have been found recently at the foot of a small hill between the Coliseum and the Constantinian Basilica. A molar tooth three meters (about 117 inches) and 75 centimeters wide was unearthed at the foot of the hill. It was at a depth of about 45 feet in ground formed by alluvial sand. It is believed the carcass was transported to Italy by floods, as prehistoric mammoths have never been traced near Rome before.

One of Hottest Trials

To have produced trials of genius and to find them neglected or treated with scorn is one of the heaviest trials of human patience. We exaggerate our own merits when they are denied by others and are apt to grudge and cavil at every particle of praise bestowed on those to whom we feel a conscious superiority. In mere self-defense we turn against us; brood over the undeserved slights we have received and thus the genial current of the soul is stopped.—Hazlitt: The Spirit of the Age.

Make Wise Use of Time

Time is something granted each of us in equal quantities—so many hours a day, so many days a week. It is the use we make of it that spells the difference between success and failure. Time is vastly more important than money, so the wise man never wastes it.—Grit.

Relaxation in Fishing

The best time to be had from fishing is not the number of fish on the string. It's the relaxation, the escape from the tension of a high-pressure age; a rest period in an intense daily conflict. It's the communion with nature, of which every man, poor or rich, has need.—Exchange.

Will Issue Building Permit for New Gasoline Station Along Highway Near Hough

A building permit will be issued to Longacres of Wheeling to erect a gasoline service station along the North-west highway east of Hough street, according to N. T. Maxon of the building committee of the village board. The board held a special meeting Tuesday night to consider application for the station which had been held up because of objections to cheap construction work along the highway. Mr. Maxon and other members of the committee investigated the plans for the station and inspected the Longacres station at Wheeling which the new station will be similar to. The new structure is expected to cost $5,500 or more and will not be an eyesore, Mr. Maxon said.

The speaker for the meeting will be J. B. Stokes, superintendent of the Maywood school, whose subject will be "School Child and Citizenship." The mothers of children in grades one and two will serve refreshments. The parents are urged by the association to attend these meetings as they serve many purposes, such as aiding in becoming acquainted with the principal, teachers, board members, neighbors, new and old citizens, besides being of educational value.

Famous Literary Group

The name "Hartford Wits" was given by the cultivated circles of the United States to a group of Connecticut professional men and literary aspirants, who lived in Hartford or met there for converse and collaboration from short ly after the Revolution till toward 1800. The exact composition of the group is not uniformly agreed upon, but the unquestioned members were Richard Alsop, Joel Barlow, Theodore Dwight, Lemuel Hopkins and David Humphreys. Benjamin Trumbull, the historian, is sometimes added.

Famous Errors in Bibles

The "Discharge Bible," printed in 1803, received its name from a typographical error whereby the phrase "I charge thee before God" was rendered "I discharge thee before God," says an article in the Syracuse Post-Standard. The "Wife-Hater Bible" spelled "life" with a "w" in the book of Luke, with the following result: "If any man come to me, and hate not his father . . . yea, and his own wife also, he cannot be my disciple."

LEADERSHIP THE TEST

"The deep question in this campaign is one of confidence in leadership—in leaders. The measure of truth of what they say is what they have said; the measure of what they will do is what they have done."—Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The republican party could ask nothing better of the voters in this campaign than that they accept the test the democratic nominee throws down as a challenge and let their votes at the coming election express their judgment on the sole matter of leadership as between the two candidates for president.

For nearly four years, in the face of one assault after another upon the financial stability of the United States, upon its banking structure, upon its industry, its commerce and its agriculture, somebody has been leading the forces that have resisted these assaults. When there was likelihood that wages would be cut suddenly and drastically, somebody brought forward a suggestion that maintained the standards for eighteen months until re-adjustments could be made by mutual agreement. When there was danger of strikes, riots and bloodshed such as had always occurred in previous similar periods, somebody proposed a program that prevented such tragedies. When money went into hoarding and an epidemic of bank failures threatened widespread disaster, somebody devised the National Credit Corporation which supported the banking credit of the nation through an extremely critical period. When it became necessary to provide funds to carry railroads, banks, building and loan societies, insurance companies and other great concerns weighted with the public welfare, through a long period of lean business, somebody worked out the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to meet their great need. When a devastating drought swept over twenty-four states, somebody stepped in well in advance of the need and provided organization and funds through which the people were carried through to another crop year. When it first became apparent that there would be widespread unemployment, somebody stimulated vast works of public construction, through which hundreds of thousands of men were enabled to earn hundreds of millions of dollars. When there was danger of unemployment, already large, might be increased by the influx of large numbers of foreigners, somebody interposed an executive order which averted this menace. When as a result of business conditions many thousands of people all over the country were on the verge of losing their homes and all they had invested in them, somebody worked out a plan by which a great percentage of these homes could be saved for their owners.

In all these matters, and in many others, "somebody" showed the highest degree of leadership.

Who was this "somebody"?

Everybody knows the answer.

It was Herbert Hoover, president of the United States.

In all the long and desperate battle against the depression which has been carried on upon a hundred fronts during these past four years, Herbert Hoover has been as truly the leader of the forces working for resistance, recovery and rehabilitation as George Washington was the leader of the forces that fought the battles of the patriots from Bunker Hill to York Town. Only the ignorant or the malignant or those blinded to the truth by political prejudice or personal ambition will deny that during this period of national stress and peril the president of the United States supplied leadership of the very highest type. He initiated every movement that was made, every measure that was taken, whether it was to maintain wages, to promote employment, to assure industrial peace, to steady the banking situation, to afford relief to farmers who had lost their crops through drouth or by grasshopper invasion, to provide for the wants of the needy in the cities, to stimulate business activity in every direction.

What else by way of leadership could any man have done?

If the "deep question" in this campaign is one of leadership, as Gov. Roosevelt declares—and to a great extent it is—then the republican party may rest its claim with complete confidence on the record President Hoover has made, a record that has shown him to be, as Elbert Hubbard proclaimed, "the one towering leader of our time."

WASHINGTON
LETTERBy National Editorial Association
(Special to The Review)

BANKERS of the country have been urged to loosen up on their purse strings as a means of stimulating prosperity. Secretary of the Treasury Mills in an address this week before the American Bankers association called on the financial leaders to "resume their normal attitude of sympathetic cooperation with their customers." Optimism is needed in all quarters. The cabinet official uncovered an important point when he insisted that study of previous business depressions showed that in "the latter phases there was a tendency for funds to pile up in the money centers, and this piling up of funds was followed by higher bond prices and then by a resumption of business activity." The American Federation of Labor claims that the improvement in employment in major industries is not enough to show a definite upturn as yet. They regard the restoration of the normal fall increase in working time as suggesting returning confidence.

WITH THE BASEBALL championship struggle out of the papers the propaganda bureau of the republican and democratic parties are pouring their broadsides on the public. They have found that the electorate is not easily taken into camp with mud-slinging as of yore. Recent reports that the average voter is inclined to show cynicism or amusing indifference at bombastic utterances. The old name of the not calling the kettle black is not effective. One major problem is to arouse their interest in candidates and party platforms to a degree which will prompt men and women to vote. Both camps are claiming the "uncertain element"—the new vote—or those who reached the voting age during the last four years.

THE DEPARTMENT of agriculture has estimated that 37 per cent of the mortgaged farms were labeled for more than half their value last January. It is significant that farms operated by owners showed a greater proportion of high debts with over five per cent of the mortgaged owner-operated farms being indebted for more than their full value. In 1920 the census showed that 63 per cent of the owner-operated farms were free from debt but 10 years later those without financial obligations had been reduced to 53 per cent. This problem continues to harass the money-lenders and government officials. It has even been projected as a political issue without much hope of help from partisan sources.

NOT WAITING until their terms expire next March, many "lame ducks," legislators defeated at the primaries, are bidding for appointive places before the elections. The ranks will be swelled after the second Tuesday in November. Representative Crisp, a democratic leader, has been named to the tariff board immediately following his failure to win a senate seat in Georgia. The pressure on the president persists with judicial jobs favored in the demands for patronage. The appointive power of the war house is always a refuge for partisan war constituents, turn thumbs down on their return to elective offices.

THREADS in the political web become more tangled as the crisis approaches. The forecasting in both partisan camps is confused and misleading. Every official holder is displaying marked symptoms of unrest as the uncertainty of the elections is accentuated by various straw polls. The small army of government employees dependent wholly on patronage are frankly puzzled and worried. With a democratic trend reported there has been a sudden stoppage of campaign bullhorns in government offices. Civil service protests only to a small degree when pressure comes from high commands. Hence, the curbing of comment on the elections as a means of remaining on the safe side in event of a change of administration.

Postpone Art Show for Fair
Owing to the nearness of the Century of Progress Exposition, the Art Institute of Chicago will carry over two important annual exhibitions which are usually held in mid-winter and in the spring. The first of these is the fourth international exhibition of lithography wood engraving, which is usually held through December and January. The second is the second international exhibition of etching and engraving exhibited in cooperation with the Chicago Society of Etchers, which is usually held in March. These will be made a part of the World's Fair exhibition and will constitute the main section of the print department's offering of the world's greatest example of contemporary graphic arts. In addition to these two important exhibitions it is planned also to show a survey of the greatest prints made during the one hundred years from 1833 to 1933.

Science Demands New Calendar
Opposition to a 13-month calendar, coupled with a demand for a more moderate revision of the present calendar system, was voiced at the triennial meeting of the International Astronomical Union, which has just closed its sessions at Cambridge, Mass. This meeting called together the most important gathering of world-famous scientists in the past year, owing in part to the interest aroused by the eclipse, which happened to coincide with the opening of this great convention.

American astronomers are advocates of calendar reform in the proportion of about 7 out of 10, and they prefer a 12-month revision to any 13-month plan by an overwhelming majority. European astronomers are more conservative, many of them confirmed their immediate demands for a correction of the present wandering Easter date, which is a serious inconvenience in European life, owing to its disastrous effect on educational schedules, on the meetings of learned societies, and on courts and legislative sessions. Most European astronomers, however, agree with their American colleagues in opposition to a 13-month calendar.

The calendar reform favored by scientists is described as follows: "Adoption of a perpetual calendar of 12 weeks, plus one or two extra days, to be observed as international holidays. . . . Division of the year into four quarters of 91 days each, arranged into three successive months of 31, 30 and 30 days respectively. The year will thus consist of twelve months, as at present, with a few very slight changes in the length of certain months to establish a permanent uniformity.

Avoid Picketed Roads
Reports to the touring bureau of the Chicago Motor Club that farm pickets on Iowa roads have stopped motorists resulted in an inquiry being launched by the club, which discloses the fact that motorists might be subjected to delay, inconvenience and possibly danger in the neighborhood of Sioux City. N. H. Nielsen, assistant secretary of the Des Moines Chamber of Commerce says in a letter to the club: "It seems that at the governor's conference held a few days ago, no definite action was taken and that the situation around Sioux City, on all the Iowa roads, is in a deplorable condition; and for the time being would suggest that tourists not be routed through that section." As much as we dislike to have tourist business routed around our state, we certainly do not wish to have them unduly molested by pickets. This is the only spot in the state people need to fear and as soon as that has been cleared, we will give you due notice. It might not be amiss to state the present condition is not in the hands of our Iowa farmers. It has developed into a racket by radicals and communistic representatives.

Doctors Object
A committee of congress that is investigating with private industry has received a spirited protest from the American Medical association against the treatment in public expense of Veterans suffering from disabilities not incurred in military service.

There is strong reason for this objection, as evidenced in the vicinity of all government hospitals where veterans of the Spanish-American war, and men who were in the World war, or in other military service, flock to the government hospitals for free treatment, despite the fact that their aches and ailments, or their disabilities have absolutely no connection with their military services. The representative of the American Medical association, Dr. William C. Woodward, told the house committee that this character of government competition "will tend to undermine the morale of the medical profession, to hinder its development, and to leave the people without adequate medical service in time of need, and without adequate medical resources in case of military necessity."

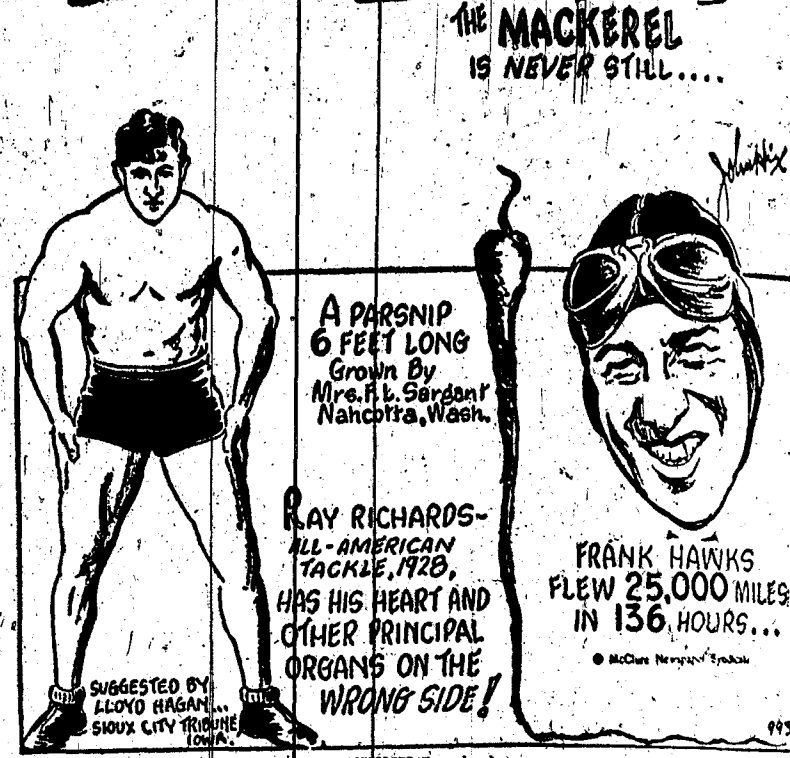

Fifteen Years of Progress
Publication of a new encyclopedia under able editorship served to show the tremendous progress that has been made by the "dear old world" since the last previous important undertaking of this kind.

"Never in all history," says Professor Suzzallo, "have there been such kaleidoscopic changes in every field of human thought and achievement as in the last 15 years."

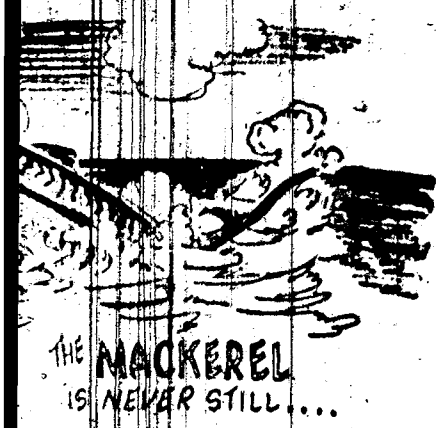

"These changes were not only physical and concrete and material, but reached far back into the vital structure of our civilization. The great earth geographically and politically. And since the war the world has raced on."

Bears Lose Eight Out of 23 Games During '32 Season

Chuck Berg Leads Sluggers With .391 Average; .259 Average for Team

The Barrington Bears baseball team ended their 1932 season with a record of 15 victories and eight defeats against the strongest opposition that could be scheduled, playing such teams as House of David, Elgin Merchants, Knights of Lithuania, Stanczak Bros. and North Chicago Giants. Charles Berg led the local players in batting with an average of .391. The batting average for the 10 Bears is .259.

The Bears have made a good record although it is not up to the excellent record of last year when they lost three and tied one of 20 games played and it just falls short of the 1930 record when they lost seven out of 23 games played.

The teams which defeated the Bears this year are Elgin Parkides, Algonquin's Own, Stanczak Bros., Gilbert Grays, Knights of Lithuania, House of David and Wilmette. Of these they defeated Stanczak Bros. and Algonquin's Own and lost to Gilbert Grays in return games. No return games were played with the Parkides, Knights of Lithuania, House of David or Wilmette. The Bears' total number of runs for the season was 152 as compared with 117 runs for their opponents. A list of the games played follows:

HOW ONE WOMAN LOST 10 LBS. IN ONE WEEK

Mrs. Betty Luedcke of Dayton, writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it."

To take off fat easily, SAFELY and HARMLESSLY—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast go lighter on fatty meats, potatoes, butter, cream and pastries—it is the safe way to lose unsightly fat and one bottle lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Get it at any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the safest way to lose fat—money back.

But be sure you use Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous and you must safeguard your health.

"Bird of Paradise" Is Screen Feature Sunday, Monday

Harold Lloyd's Latest Production Coming for Three-Day Run

With Marlon Davies and Robert Montgomery together for the first time, "Bird of Paradise" comes to The Catlow theatre Friday and Saturday nights.

It is the story of two New York girls who graduate from poverty in the tenements to the extravagance and luxury of Park avenue. They are the closest of chums and the bitterest of rivals, yet both seek to sacrifice their hearts when it comes to the love of the same man.

Another exciting chapter of "The Lightning Warrior" with Rip Tin Tin and Frankie Darro will be an added feature of this program. Having played to almost as many legitimate theatre audiences as "Uncle Tom's Cabin," Richard Walton Tully's famous play, "Bird of Paradise" has finally reached the talking screen and will play here Sunday and Monday nights. Dolores Del Rio will be seen in the exotic role of "Luana," created on the stage by Leonore Ulric. Joel McCrea heads the supporting cast.

Filmed in Hawaii, this late picture is filled with the sensuous beauty of the tropics and has been given a lavish production by King Vidor.

One of the episodes particularly praised by critics in metropolitan cities where the film has been shown, is the first native marriage feast ever to be recorded by camera and microphone.

The Masques will provide fun for this program with their new comedy, "The Engineer's Daughter." News, cartoon and community singing will be added attractions.

Violet Fleming, outstanding star of the New York stage, makes her screen debut in "Almost Married," in which she shares the leading honors with

TOPNOTCHERS

by KET

Ralph Bellamy and Alexander Kirkland. The new film revolves around the struggle of two lovers to free themselves from the insane clutches of a mad musician.

Harold Lloyd's latest production, "Movie Crazy," with Constance Cummings, the first the bespectacled comedian has released in two years, comes to the Catlow theatre Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights of next week.

Eight minutes of consecutive laughing incidents have been rolled in one "faction" of "Movie Crazy," giving Lloyd, as well as every other comedian, a record to shoot at in the future.

In "Movie Crazy," one gag rolls into another, and to the satisfied amazement of Lloyd, neither dialogue nor music is heard in the entire ball room situation, which runs virtually the length of an entire reel.

There are three, among the numerous laugh factions in "Movie Crazy," which stand out in relief, and it is going to be difficult to find any two persons who will agree as to which is the funniest.

Bill Introduced for New Corporation for Housing

Of the 33 bills introduced in the Special Relief Session of the Illinois legislature on the opening day, one gives promise of creating thousands of new jobs without cost to the taxpayer. This is the proposed state housing act which provides for setting up immediately the supervisory machinery which is necessary if the Reconstruction Finance Corporation money is to be available to finance self-liquidating housing and slum-reclamation projects in Illinois. The proposed act, prepared and submitted by the Illinois Housing Commission, of which Alfred K. Stern is chairman, creates a new class of private corporations, to acquire land and to construct buildings. It is estimated that 30,000 mechanics will have jobs, not considering the countless thousands in industries necessary to serve the building workers.

Report Diphtheria in Down State Illinois

The rising prevalence of diphtheria in down state Illinois has all the earmarks of an epidemic, according to the state department of public health. Threatening epidemics, according to the health department's warning, can be suppressed by the rigorous application of three control methods: prompt diagnosis and treatment of the infected persons; protection of susceptible people known to have been in close contact with a patient and the permanent immunization of susceptible children with toxoid. The efforts to immunize should be concentrated on children under 5 to get the greatest benefit, according to the health authorities.

Fabric Fire Hose Co. Gets Village Contract for Hose

Schroeder Equipment Purchased; Many Items of Business Transacted

The Fabric Fire Hose Co. of which Warren Meier of Barrington is the district representative, was awarded the contract for sale of 200 feet of hose to the village; and Schroeder Hardware Co. was awarded the contract for sale of other needed miscellaneous fire equipment. The total price for the equipment to be purchased from Schroeder is $113.

These contracts were awarded at a regular meeting of the village board Monday night after bids were received from several firms for sale of the equipment. Bids had been opened and considered at an earlier meeting, at which time the Greb Hardware Co. offered the low figure on several items, but the trustees decided that there had not been sufficient and clearly enough defined specifications for the equipment.

Following the awarding of the contracts for hose and other miscellaneous equipment, a long discussion was held relative to purchase of a new fire truck.
