The board also approved the creation of a gas tax fund to be used for the relief of the poor. The board also considered a proposal to appropriate $200,000 for the relief of the poor, but this was opposed by the county supervisors.

Two Perfect Hands in One Pinochle Deal

A problem for a higher mathematician, a professor of calculus, or at least someone versed in figuring geometric progressions developed at the home of Mrs. Henry Sass, 120 Coolidge avenue, when the members of the Thursday Afternoon Pinochle club wanted to find out just how often two perfect hands in double pinochle can be passed out in the same deal.

This phenomenal deal did occur at the club's party this week. Mrs. Nellie Donita and Mrs. W. J. Drauden each received a perfect hand in heads from the same deal. A single perfect hand is unusual. Two perfect hands in different suits from the same deal is almost unheard of, but the members of the Thursday Afternoon club believe that two perfect hands in the same suit in one deal never occurred before and by the time that its chances of happening again come around, the world will be many years older and the game of pinochle may be forgotten.

Whether two perfect hands in the same suit would be dealt out once in a million times, once in a billion times, or just once in the history of the game, can be figured out by a smart enough mathematician.

State Highway 59 Proposed to Run Through Village

Route Along E. J. & E. Tracks
and Hager Avenue Planned;
Await Hearing

Routing of state highway 59 through Barrington may be completed this winter it was indicated Monday night at the regular session of the village board of trustees. The state highway department offers cooperation in routing the highway through Barrington and was anxious to receive a recommendation as to the location of the route through the village from the board.

The tentative route favored by the highway department extends north from route 63 near Otis Lake, passing the lake on the west side and across the E. J. & E. railroad tracks, and then following the tracks along Hager avenue, thence north on Hager avenue crossing the North Western railroad tracks, Northwest highway and route 22 through the Biltmore subdivision and joining the already completed portion of route 59 at Wauconda.

This proposed route met with approval from members of the board but they hesitated to give their affirmation of the plan to the highway department without first consulting property owners along Hager avenue to learn if they wanted the highway running past their property. If Hager avenue is not available another route as near to it as possible probably will be chosen by the state department, it was indicated.

In order to get the sentiment of the property holders on Hager avenue in regard to making this street a highway, action on a resolution to the highway department was withheld, until the next regular meeting of the board on Monday, Nov. 28, at which time expressions from the property holders will be heard.

It was pointed out that the village would receive maintenance from the state if the highway was routed on Hager avenue or some street within the corporate limits. It also was suggested that with a prompt decision on the routing of the highway the project probably would be included in the state road building program for next year.

Cottage in Shady Hill Subdivision Crumbles in Blaze; Hunters Suspected

A fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the cottage of August M. Petersen of Shady Hill subdivision, Cuba township, Thursday evening, Nov. 1. As the building was unoccupied at the time, it is thought that perhaps some hunters may have entered the building for shelter and carelessly thrown cigarettes. When residents in the neighborhood awoke and discovered the blaze, the roof was about to cave in.

With the help of the Fox River Grove fire department other buildings nearby were saved.

Loan From R. F. C. Is Not Available at Present Time

State Bank Cannot Borrow
Until All Re-discounts
Are Redeemed

Although the amendment to the state banking act which allows the receivers of state banks to borrow from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, was passed at the general election, many state banks are not in a position to borrow from the corporation at this time. The First State Bank of Barrington is one of the institutions which cannot borrow at the present time due to the fact that the institution still has bills payable and re-discounts payable to the extent of about $27,000, William Huse Jr., receiver explained.

When a closed bank borrows from the corporation, it pledges all of its assets, he explained. As long as part of the assets are tied up to pledge the redemption of re-discounts and bills payable, the bank cannot furnish the proper guarantee for the newly created government corporation, he added.

Since the receiver took charge of the First State Bank on March 1, the prior claims (bills payable and re-discounts) have been reduced slightly more than $100,000. There still remains about $27,000 of bills payable to be reduced before the bank will be ready to collect funds to pay a dividend. The receiver of the bank estimated that this would take about 60 days longer, varying according to how fast notes will be liquidated, etc.

The bank receiver has among the assets a number of good first mortgages and other secured loans, which if sold to local people will hasten the day when a dividend can be paid to the depositors. He declared that the work of liquidating is being done carefully rather than hastily to conserve the greatest possible total of assets for the depositors.

Captain F. S. Cowles of Chicago, adjutant of the first battalion, headquarters division, was the other veteran to receive the purple heart award.

J. Welch Estate Sold to George Mankie; Original Deed Signed by J. K. Polk

A parcel of land taken over from the government in 1847 and the deed signed by James K. Polk during his administration passed out of the hands of the Welch family this week when the 81.7 acres of land was sold to George Mankie, a Chicago attorney, by Mrs. Elizabeth Welch, widow of the late John Welch.

The land had been taken over from the government by the late John Welch's father and had been in the Welch family for 85 years.

The transaction was handled through the Illinois Title and Trust Company, Waukegan.

Henry Pepper Injured in Automobile Accident Near Wauconda Saturday Night

Henry Pepper, former Cuba township road commissioner, was severely injured in an automobile accident about four miles west of Wauconda Saturday night. He received a severe scalp laceration and many cuts about the face when his car got out of control at a curve on the road and slid into a ditch, overturning twice.

The accident occurred on a side road. Another car was approaching Pepper's machine from the opposite direction and confused him, he said afterwards. The former commissioner crawled out of the wreckage and walked more than a half mile to a farm house where he aroused Joseph Wiemuth who got his car to take the injured man to Wauconda for treatment.

Unidentified Man Not Able to Talk Taken in Charge

Stranger Picked Up Tuesday in Cuba Township Sent to Waukegan

A fairly well dressed man, who appeared to be intelligent but who was unable to talk or disoriented to his surroundings, was picked up Tuesday night near Tower Lakes Tuesday night where he proceeded to make himself comfortable. The man was taken to Barrington for a physical examination and later to Waukegan for further examination, but according to information received from the county seat Thursday morning the man was still speechless and his identity had not been learned.

When the stranger walked into the Reardon home, he was wearing two overcoats one of them bearing a Waukegan label. Except for that label, he carried no mark of identification. Mr. Reardon notified Milo Kelsey who called and helped escort the stranger to Barrington where he had been given some food. The man was examined by Dr. B. P. Graber of this village, but no sign of any physical injury was found. He was then lodged in the village jail and on Wednesday morning was taken to Waukegan where he was put in the custody of the sheriff.

The stranger did not appear demented but he showed no response to questions asked of him. The sheriff's office reported Thursday that a description of the man was being broadcasted in an effort to locate someone who could identify him. The man was about 45 years old.

Local Reduction in Milk Prices Weeks Ahead of Adjustment in Chicago

A statement published in The Review of recent date that the reduction in price of pasteurized milk was in conformity with reductions effected in Chicago was incorrect in that the proposed cut in price in Chicago had not been accepted at that time.

The Barrington dairies selling pasteurized milk were a jump ahead of the Chicago milk companies in that the price in Chicago has remained at 13 cents a quart pending an agreement of milk drivers to accept a reduction in wages. When the milk drivers accept their cut, as it now appears they will, the price in Chicago, Evanston, Waukegan and other nearby cities will be 9 cents per quart. The bulk of previous reductions in Chicago was born by farmer producers.

The first of November Barrington dairies reduced their milk prices voluntarily while union drivers of Chicago were voting down a proposal to accept wage reductions of $10 a week. Now the Chicago drivers have agreed to vote on a proposal to accept wage reductions of $5 a week.

Attend Teachers' Institute

The faculty of the Barrington Public school attended the Cook county teachers' institute of divisions one, two and three held at New Trier high school in Winnetka Monday.

Four Committees Offer Reports at Advisory Meeting

Favors Single Sewer Main
Plan and Retention of Engineers

Recommendations that the village do not install a comprehensive divided sewer system and that the present village and country club engineers work together to plan whatever changes are to be made in the system were embodied in two of the reports handed in at the joint meeting of the advisory committee and village trustees last Thursday evening.

Four committees, each assigned a subject for investigation reported at the meeting.

One committee reported on the advisability of retaining the present engineers and authorizing them to cooperate with the engineers employed by the Barrington Hills Country club. This committee reported the proposal advisable.

Another committee reported on the three proposed plans (1) a new storm sewer, (2) a new sanitary system, (3) a plan which will permit the present sewer mains to remain intact. The committee recommended leaving the present hook-up of mains intact.

Opposing Committee

Another committee appointed to outline reasons why the sanitary sewer case should be appealed, and a fourth committee appointed to outline reasons why the sanitary sewer case should not be appealed, each handed in a report.

The committee, headed by Earl Schwemm, which was appointed to outline all reasons why the case should not be appealed stated in part: By appealing, the village will lose the aid offered by the complainants in original case, namely, $32,000; the village will have to pay approximately $2450 for court costs which the complainants will waive if the proposal is followed, the cost of appealing will amount to approximately $5,000 in legal fees, etc.; failure in the original case would indicate that the chances are against the village winning an appeal; by appealing, the village would lose the good will of many rural residents whose influence and neighborhood help have been of great value to Barrington in the past; an appeal will cause considerable delay in getting the sewer situation settled; the village trustees are not prepared to offer the supreme court a definite alternative proposal for rectifying the sewer situation; some settlement satisfactory to the village can be made outside of court.

Favors Appeal

A partial report of the committee favoring appeal was given. The report was not complete and cannot be outlined in detail. The report included the statement that only about $4000 would be necessary to pay the entire cost of the appeal and that about half of that amount had been spent already in preparing for the appeal. The report also stated that the balance of cost of an appeal was small compared with the saving in interest that the delay afforded. The committee favored an appeal on the basis that Judge Shurtleff's decision does not leave a safe plan for the village to undertake because it requires removal of the disposal plant and property owners near any new proposed site would become legal objectors as soon as the village would attempt to build on the new site. It also stated that the cost of complying with Judge Shurtleff's decision would be prohibitive to the village.

Emergency Relief Committee Starts Drive for Funds

The Barrington Relief committee began its active winter program with the opening of a downtown relief station Saturday evening and the launching of a drive Monday to raise funds to meet the needs of the coming season. About 25 local women volunteered to do the house to house canvassing in the village.

The relief station, located in the vacant store building the first door north of the Fredlund Drug store on North Hough street, will be kept open Wednesday and Saturday nights from 7 to 8:30 o'clock throughout the winter. M. H. Schreiber, chairman of the Barrington Relief committee, stated. At the present time there is a considerable quantity of clothes on hand for those who may need them, he added.

United in County-Wide Drive

Simultaneously and in conjunction with the local drive, campaigns were begun in Chicago and the larger towns in Cook county by the Emergency Welfare fund of which the local unit is a member in a campaign to raise $75,000 to meet the needs of Cook county and Chicago relief and welfare agencies. On the north shore, Glencoe, Winnetka and Winfield swung into action. To the south, Argosummit and Harvey initiated their drives. Before the end of the week, every large community in the county which has not yet marshalled its forces, is expected to complete its organization and join in the county-wide drive.

The Review One Day Earlier Next Week

With The Review's regular press day falling on Thanksgiving day, a legal holiday, attention of correspondents and advertisers is called to the fact that the paper will go to press one day earlier next week. The papers will be placed in the postoffice Wednesday evening instead of Thursday evening, thus being available for distribution at the postoffice window Thursday morning.

In order to go to press a day early, the staff of The Review needs the cooperation of display and classified advertising patrons, correspondents and persons handling in regular new items. All correspondence and news of scheduled events should be turned in Monday, display advertising should be in not later than Tuesday noon and classified advertising not later than Tuesday evening. The staff appreciates this cooperation.

Most of Barrington's business firms will observe Thanksgiving day as in the past by remaining closed on that day.

Ax Bounds From Wood and Splits Finger of Chopper; Nine Stitches Are Taken

Harry Larson of Barrington was painfully injured on Wednesday of last week while chopping wood. He was holding a piece of wood with his left hand and when he struck it with the ax the tool bounded over and split the index finger of his left hand. It was necessary to take nine stitches in dressing the wound.

New Power Rates for Pumps Effect Saving to Village

Reduction of $72 Is Realized
First Month; Trustees
Discuss Finances

A saving of $72.02 to the village for electrical power for the operation of its pumps was realized for the month from September 9 to October 8 through the new power rates from the Public Service Co. of Northern Illinois, it was revealed at the regular meeting of the board of trustees when the usual bills were approved and ordered paid. This was the first month the new rate had been in effect. The power bill totaled $231.66 for the month. Under the old rate the bill would have amounted to $303.68, thus making a saving of $72.02 under the new rate. Figured on the basis of a similar power consumption per month the saving would amount to better than $750 per year.

Money Question Looms

The money question has again become of major importance to the board, and it was suggested to find other means of slashing expenditures. It was reported that the village could not even meet current obligations, Earl Hatje asked if a statement could not be prepared by the treasurer showing all the bills outstanding and of the various funds available so that some solution as to meeting these obligations could be worked out. He contended that most creditors would feel satisfied to get even a small payment on their bills instead of having them ignored entirely, and this would avoid judgments against the village. A. C. Burandt, village clerk, was instructed to ask the treasurer to prepare a statement for a special meeting at the treasurer's office Wednesday night showing the bills to be paid, tax anticipation warrants issued and the village's money from the 1930 and 1931 taxes in both Cook and Lake counties.

Seeks Carrier Job

The board was asked for an expression on the question of employing a local man to deliver the monthly statements from the treasurer's office instead of sending them through the mail. An offer had been received for delivering them for three cents a letter, the same as it would cost through the mail. It was pointed out that employing a man on that basis would be in violation of the government regulations which gives to the postal department the exclusive right to deliver mail. However, a person regularly employed by an institution may deliver the statements for that institution if it is part of his duty and if he is not employed by other institutions in a similar capacity. The board decided not to go on record as making any recommendation on the contention that it was part of the treasurer's job to have the statements delivered and he should deliver them as he saw fit.

To Turn Off Water

Mr. Burandt, who is in charge of water collections, reported that several delinquent water customers had ignored 10-day notices and final notices and he asked what further steps should be taken to collect the bills. He was instructed to give orders to turn off the water in such cases to Sam Peters, superintendent of streets and water, unless the delinquents are indigent or are receiving help from relief organizations.

Cast Is Announced for "The House of a Thousand Thrills"

Tickets Selling Fast for Play
Given for Benefit of Relief Fund

Members of the Barrington Lions club, all of whom are on the ticket sales committee for the home talent mystery play "The House of a Thousand Thrills" report a brisk early sale of tickets for both nights of the production. All adult tickets are for reserved seats and these must be reserved at Pohlman's Pharmacy during the week prior to the production of the show Thursday and Friday night, Dec. 1 and 2.

Many tickets already have been sold. Undoubtedly these will be reserved during the first day or two after the charts are put out at the drug store on Saturday, Nov. 20.

The committee expects a complete sell out of seats for both nights. Two reasons for this are the good play produced by a strong cast under able direction, and the fact that the entire proceeds beyond the amount necessary to cover the bare expenses will be donated to the Barrington Relief fund for relief work among needy persons in the community this winter.

The play is required as the most popular mystery play available for home talent production. Its three acts are filled with thrills and its plot is rich with the unexpected. A vein of humor runs throughout the performance, but the mystery element is predominant. "The House of a Thousand Thrills" is reported as an excellent vehicle for good acting. The directors, T. E. Davis and R. L. Mundhenk, have both had plenty of experience in producing home talent plays. They are being assisted by Mrs. Inez M. Brown, who also has had experience coaching dramatic productions.

Careful Selection

Selection of the cast was given considerable time and attention by the directors. The best characters available for the parts were chosen. The following cast has been rehearsing two and three times weekly for the last three weeks:

David Arden, young English author interested in mysteries—Victor T. Norton.

Mona Carlton, Mrs. Carlton's favorite granddaughter—Dorothy Robertson.

Serena Carlton, Mrs. Carlton's unmarried daughter—Lillian Nightingale.

Travers, the butler at Carlton House—A. D. Cuyamaker.

Emily Temple, Mrs. Carlton's secretary—Beatrice Coleman.

Agnes Melville, Mrs. Carlton's second granddaughter—Margaret Welch.

Mrs. Rachel Carlton, the wealthy, eccentric old mistress of Carlton House—Cecelia Mae Miller.

Ronald Melville (Ronnie) her grandson—Richard D. Sturdevant.

Paul D. Albert, Ronnie's friend, an artist—Karl Weichell.

Miss Derby (Derby) Mrs. Carlton's companion—Blanche Frye.

Velve, a burglar—Wesley R. Parkner.

Want Popular Play

The Lions club, the cast, and the directors are especially anxious to offer the public a play which will merit the heavy patronage that is expected. They want and expect a heavy sale of tickets with the result that several hundred dollars will be available for the Barrington Relief fund. The women canvassing the town for the relief committee realize that a hard job is ahead of them in meeting the quota for charity work. A substantial donation from the home talent play will be appreciated by all the relief committee and the canvassers and will be a source of satisfaction to all who have part in producing the play.

Mr. Mundhenk has announced that on both production evenings the curtain will rise promptly at 8 o'clock instead of at 8:15 as previously reported.

Three Jewel Tea Men Honored for 25 Years' Service

In accordance with an established custom of the Jewel Tea Co., Inc. of recognizing length of service, O. B. Ehlman of Dayton, J. P. Lamb of Clinton, and A. J. Hedley of Barrington were given a special entertainment and dinner on November 10. The occasion for this special recognition was the completion of 25 years of service with the company on the part of each man.

M. E. Karker, president, presented Mr. Ehlman, Mr. Lamb, and Mr. Hedley with 25 year buttons and gold watches suitably engraved, at the dinner held at the Union League club of Chicago. This dinner, which was attended by the chief executives of the company and the members of the Twenty-Five Year Club, was the second of its kind, the first being held on December 5, 1928, when Frank Talbot and Charles Smith were similarly honored.

LAKE ZURICH REVIEW

Candidate for Auditor to Ask for a Recount

Being declared the winner of an election by a small number of votes often keeps the declared victor in hot water until his apparently defeated opponent has exercised his right to demand a recount. Robert J. Pearsall, republican candidate for county auditor of Lake county has learned.

Edward McDermott, democratic candidate whose defeat by 212 votes was announced following completion of the vote counting process, will demand a recount, he intimated.

"I have an appointment with an attorney for the first part of the week and a great deal will hinge on that conference."

"Two hundred and twelve votes do not seem like an awful lot when it is taken into consideration that 42,012 votes were cast for county auditor. As far as I know today, I believe I will ask for a recount," McDermott said.

During Tuesday night and through Wednesday morning following election it was believed that McDermott was the winner. In fact most republicans conceded his victory. Of the basis of returns with about a dozen precincts and it appeared that he would win by 1000.

Returning from Highland Park, Deerfield and Deerfield, however, gave Pearsall substantial margins and without out the McDermott lead entirely. Pearsall was leading by 67 votes with 70 of the 75 precincts reported, and the last vote, two in Deerfield, two in Highland Park, and one in Antioch, brought up his lead to 212 votes over McDermott.

Recounts, according to attorneys, are paid for by the person asking for them, even if it is found later that they were wrong. This was true in the case of James Simpson, Jr., who asked for a recount of the Ralph E. Church vote. The recount developed that Simpson was the winner, and he footed the bill in Judge Lynch's court.

Lake County Board Gives O. K. to Salary Boosts of Two Elected Officers

Two Lake county officers received their $500 per year salary boosts allowed by statute due to the county's population increase when the board of supervisors voted 19 to 17 in their favor. The increases go to Circuit Clerk L. J. Wilmut and Recorder Lewis O. Brockway.

When Lake county reached a population of 104,387 in 1930, the board acted on the law which provides that elective county officers should be paid $4000 a year instead of $3300. Since both Wilmut and Brockway were in office at that time, their salaries were not raised.

Last September the board, in its annual budgeting, allowed for the salary increases for those officers. Taxpayer organizations and some individuals protested the raises at that time. During the election campaign some of the democratic candidates declared that they would return to the county the $500 raises, if elected.

Assistant Supervisor Walter Piquette, at the special meeting yesterday, declared that the voters of Lake county disregarded the pledges of those candidates who objected to the salary increases and re-elected Wilmut and Brockway. He stated that the salary changes would mean only an additional one-half cent tax payment by county property owners.

J. W. C. Wright, headed some of the rural township supervisors who asked the board to reconsider the salary raises. He stated that these are perforce times to add to the salaries of county officials.

The board, by a vote of 10 to 17, refused to reconsider its action of the September meeting.

The county board of supervisors approved a measure to pay $100,000 for poor relief out of the gas tax, and as the board agreed recently to pay three of its road bond issues with motor fuel tax money it takes a sum of $290,000 out of the $841,845.03 seemingly available for construction next spring, or brings the total that could be used then down to $551,845.03.

The report from Kinney would indicate that the money is on deposit in the state treasury, although the report does not actually state that.

Of the 3 cent gasoline tax the county is entitled to one-third collected by the state based on the number of licenses issued to each county.

Emmerson Commutes Death Sentence for First Time

Convinced by its own investigation that a reasonable doubt exists as to the guilt of Howard C. Bonham of Chicago, under sentence of death for murder, the board of pardons and paroles has recommended a commutation of his sentence to 99 years in prison, and Gov. Louis L. Emmerson has accepted the board's finding. Bonham was sentenced to death on July 15, 1932, by Judge Joseph Burke of Cook county in whose court he was convicted on circumstantial evidence of the murder of Paul H. Tulapan, restaurateur at 1244 N. Dearborn street, Chicago. Tulapan was killed on the evening of December 13 by a handkerchief carrying a deadly poison. Bonham marked the first time Gov. Emmerson commuted a death sentence.

According to official tabulation, 1078 votes were cast at the Cuba polling place. Because of that fact, the county board of supervisors will split Cuba into two precincts, as a general election in Lake county which will add 17 new precincts to the county and drop one.

The board is expected to act on this in the June session when election districts usually are brought up for consideration.

Seven of the 17 new precincts would be in Waukegan township, with all of them being in the city of Waukegan. One would be in Grant township where there now are two; one in Avon where there are two at the present time; one in Warren where there is one now; two in Shiloh where there is one now; one in the township of one in Libertyville where there are five; one in Cuba where there is now one; and three in Deerfield where there now are 12.

Eliminate Benton
One will be eliminated, Benton, precinct 3, where only 71 votes were cast Tuesday. By dropping the Benton precinct and adding 17, there would be a total of 94 precincts in the county instead of 75.

The law conceives that a normal precinct should run around 500 votes, according to County Clerk Lew A. Hendee, and not exceed 800 in strength.

In the election 47,673 voters went to the polls against 41,038 in 1928, the last time any division was made in the polling precincts.

Those districts with more than 500 votes Tuesday were as follows:

Grant 1873; Avon 1810; Warren 947; Waukegan 2, 1184; Waukegan 3, 850; Waukegan 5, 803; Waukegan 8, 1248; Waukegan 11, 901; Waukegan 14, 901; Waukegan 19, 940; Shiloh 2, 877; Shiloh 4, 833; Libertyville 2, 410; Cuba 1678; Deerfield 6, 1111; Deerfield 10, 847; and Deerfield 11, 801.

Crop of Fish Fingerlings in State Above Average

Thomas S. McCafferty began removing the fingerlings from the Spring Grove breeding ponds last week. Assisting him in inspecting the baby fish is Prof. David H. Thompson of the state Biological Survey.

The first shipment from the hatchery was 1,200,000 blue gills and crappie fingerlings. This week and next Mr. McCafferty said, blue gills and crappie fingerlings will be taken from two more ponds, black bass from one and twenty acre breeding pond, and small mouth bass fingerlings from a three acre pond.

As soon as the ponds are refilled, Mr. McCafferty said, the breeding stock of 600 black bass, 150 small mouth bass, 500 blue gills and 800 crappies will be returned to the ponds.

"This year's crop is well above the average," said Mr. McCafferty. "In addition to our blue gill and crappie fingerlings, we are now hatching 6,000,000 lake trout fry. They will be placed in Lake Michigan."

HERE TODAY

GONE TOMORROW!

Merchant or Makeshift?

ESTABLISHED DEPENDABLE MERCHANTS

Are here to serve you, to sell you merchandise that will give satisfaction

This satisfaction can not be found in the factory
"seconds" goods pawned off by the mushroom store or the here to-day, gone tomorrow house to house peddler

LET the dictionary itself give you the answer. It describes a Merchant as, "A person who buys and sells merchandise as a business and for a profit, especially one who has a place of sale and a stock of goods."

By the same authority, a Makeshift is something "Having the character of a temporary contrivance in any emergency."

Go beyond these definitions and see what the vast difference between Merchant and Makeshift means to you. Both parties buy and sell goods. Your Merchant does so as a permanent means of earning his livelihood with the interests of the community at heart. He is interested, not in the single sale, but in retaining your good will and your trust. He is interested in offering reliable merchandise at fair prices. Only by such sound methods can he keep you satisfied—only by catering to your needs and protecting your expenditures can he enjoy your continued patronage.

Your legitimate Merchant must deliver value, quality and worth. Else tomorrow he will lose your business.

The Makeshift, on the other hand, is not interested in tomorrow's business. For tomorrow he is gone, anyway. His business is a temporary expediency existing because of the selling opportunity of the moment.

With the Holiday buying season at hand, Makeshift stores and Makeshift itinerant salesmen (peddlers) appear like mushrooms. They will lure the unwary dollar with questionable merchandise at seemingly attractive prices. These Makeshift stores will probably depart, and the peddlers are sure to depart—like your satisfaction—as soon as Christmas has gone.

Your Merchant expects to be in business after Christmas and after many Christmases. His merchandise is of unquestioned worth—priced fairly and reasonably. He advertises his wares honestly.

Don't be fooled by Makeshift measures when you do your Christmas shopping this year. Be SURE that your purchases are all that is claimed for them—be SURE you are getting the qualities you pay for, no matter how much or how little you pay—be SURE that they are backed by responsible sellers, that your store will be on hand to serve you if something goes wrong.

The one way to do that is to rely on responsible, recognized and dependable dealers. You know these accredited stores by the service they have given you and by their associations in Barrington community life.

3,000,000 Families Aided By Red Cross During Last Winter

Distress in All Areas Met by Giving Food, Clothing and Other Help

More than 3,000,000 families throughout the nation were given relief of various types by the American Red Cross in the past winter, to aid them in their distress caused by unemployment, disaster or other misfortune.

A major relief task, due to unemployment and other unusual conditions in the blizzardous winter months in twenty states, was met by the Red Cross chapters alone, or participating with other agencies. In these 143 counties, the Red Cross aided 30,000 families through giving groceries, school lunches, clothing, flour and other necessities to combat privation.

Flour, milled from government wheat turned over to the Red Cross by Congress, was given to 25,000,000 persons in the period from March 8 to June 30, the close of the fiscal year. Flour will continue to be given through the winter of 1932-33, and Red Cross chapters also will give cotton clothing, made from government cotton turned over to the Red Cross for distribution.

"The Red Cross faces the busiest winter since the days of the World War," Chairman John Barton Payne said. "It is organized in virtually every one of the 3,072 counties in the United States, and will co-operate with all agencies to meet distress wherever found. The hour has proved of great benefit, and the cotton clothing will be given wide distribution."

While carrying on nation-wide these unemployment and other relief measures, the Red Cross also was engaged in its regular peacetime activities in public health nursing, service to ex-service men and their families, teaching home hygiene, life saving and first aid. The Junior Red Cross, composed of almost 7,000,000 school children, also rallied to the support of the society's relief efforts, and the children aided others of their age in practical ways, formed sewing and food canning classes, and were of great assistance in chapter relief work.

While the wheat and cotton were given by the U. S. Government, no money was provided to pay for the necessary work entailed. The Red Cross will meet this expense of almost $500,000 from its treasury. Citizens can aid by joining as members of the local Red Cross chapter during the roll call from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day.

Emergency Action for Relief Funds Necessary

Emergency action by the legislature to provide funds for the unemployed, will again be necessary when the general assembly reconvenes. November 14, William S. Reynolds, executive secretary of the Illinois Emergency relief commission, has declared. The $6,000,000 loan from the Reconstruction Finance corporation will take care of November only. With two weeks between the time of reconvening of the legislature and the first of December when the present funds will be exhausted, Mr. Reynolds has pointed out that an emergency program, requiring a two-thirds vote, must be constructed and put through.

SPORTSMANSHIP

The thing that distinguishes a genuine sportsman from a "bum sport" is that those who have the spirit of sportsmanship not only know how to win gracefully; but how to lose uncomplainingly. The difference between a genuine sportsman and the other kind is that your real sportsman never tries to shift the responsibility for his failure upon somebody else.

We have long believed that the sporting attitude toward life is the soundest of all philosophies of living. Try your best to win, but if you lose don't be too quick to blame somebody else for your failure. Nine times out of ten, people get what- over rewards their individual ability, character and industry entitle them to. But it is our observation, also, that about nine times out of ten the man who fails is ready to lay the blame upon the government, or the capitalists, or the boss, or anybody else but himself.

True sportsmanship does not imply taking defeat lying down. The true sportsman never knows when he is licked. He never accepts defeat as final, but continues to strive to the end of the game. He observes the rules of the game rigidly. If he doesn't like them, he may try to have them changed, but so long as the rules are as they are, he follows them.

We hear a great deal of whining in these days of depression, but every little while we run across a real sportsman, who hasn't let circumstances lick him, but is starting out afresh to try to win the game of life. To every such man we take off our hat.—Republican, Stanley, Wis.

SEASONAL BUS LINES

Now that the holidays shopping season has begun and signs of a business recovery are more pronounced than they have been earlier this year, the bus line feeders to shopping districts of nearby cities are again coming to life.

Just a year ago an Elgin and Dundee bus line, reported to be subsidized by the Elgin Chamber of Commerce, started operating between Barrington and Elgin. As soon as the Christmas season was over, the enterprise was dropped.

The Illinois Commerce Commission recently granted a charter to the same line. "Present transportation service rendered between these points is inadequate and insufficient so far as schedules and service are concerned" the commission found. Whether the bus line will be any more successful than it was last year and take in more than enough car fares to pay for motor fuel remains to be seen. Whether this line and one already operating along the Northwest highway will continue to do business after the holiday season is ended is another matter for speculation.

If a bus line operates day after day twelve months each year, it renders a service to the residents of the communities along its route. If it merely springs up in the busy season for retail shopping and then dies out like a short-lived mushroom, it can not do much good to the retail shops or the residents of the communities and will not prove a successful financial undertaking in itself.

LETTERBy National Editorial Association
(Special to The Review)

CIVIL SERVICE has been extended in recent years to cover many of our officials. Otherwise the mortality rate among minor officials would be alarming. There are devious ways of off-setting the protective wing of civil service by promotions and demotions which are effective as forced resignations.

The defeat of Senator Reed Smoot of Utah opens up an avenue for rich political patronage. Smoot served longer than any other senator and built up a tremendous system under which he controlled key positions. The Utah colon as chairman of important committees had the power and exercised it. His tendency to grab every federal job for constituents brought about sarcastic comment of one senator "We have the United States—and the Kingdom of Smoot."

Senator Watson of Indiana, also a veteran and now a lame duck, ran Smoot out of office by a close vote. Without the protection of the senators it is obvious that an upheaval in soft government jobs is due. GOING DEEPER into the major problem you will find that the candidates for congress pledged to repeal do not have to make good until they take office, March 4, 1933. The short session of the present congress is so constituted that the "wets" could not muster the required strength to put through modifying laws, to say nothing of the two-thirds of both senate and house to stave off repeal of the eighteenth amendment. Enthusiasts overlook the high hurdles that this item must meet in the state legislature where ratification will require two out of five years. The nearest approach to a change may be found in congressional action amending the Volstead law permitting the increase in the alcoholic content—which may mean beer with a kick of at least four per cent alcohol.

FOUR MONTHS REMAIN before the republican army of office holders evacuate the stronghold they occupied for 12 years. Many partisans reading the writing on the wall weeks ago prepared for a graceful retreat. The main exodus will not occur until the victorians democrats have actually taken over the reins of government on March 4. Machinery of government must always operate that republican officials will be let out gracefully after inauguration day. Stories are coming to the surface of the appeals of anxious officials for their retention because of their experience and in spite of their G. O. P. connections. No one wants to give up a job these days especially if it carries a title and some compensation.

ONLY A BLIND OPTIMIST would attempt to predict marked changes in prohibition laws within the next few months. It is generally conceded that the ballots clearly indicated the people's desire for a change of administration and policies dealing with this momentous problem. Whatever is accomplished in modifying prohibition will be more by indication than by positive nullifying action. The fact that six or seven states wiped out their state enforcement agencies last week will carry weight. It is manifestly impossible for the federal authorities to adequately enforce the "dry" laws without some state assistance.

A SHAKE-UP in the higher ranks of the American diplomatic corps is due. These foreign berths are usual choice political plums to party workers or the latest campaign fund contributors. It applies with equal force to all parties. The return of congress will also be a signal for submittal of several hundred postmasters or other designated office holders requiring senate approval.

Wandering
From This to ThatGuy Comfort, Perry, N. Y.
Editor Tells "Why I Don't Like the Depression"

Guy Comfort, editor of the Perry, N. Y. Herald, has written an article on "I Don't Like the Depression," which has created favorable comment in various newspapers where it has been reproduced in print. The article is as follows:

I don't like the lost homes, the long lists of unpaid taxes published in the newspapers; the cutting and slashing of salaries and the doleful look on scores of faces. I don't like five-cent beans because I know the man who grew 'em will not get over a dollar a hundred for 'em. He can't live on prices like that and neither can he buy the stuff I have to sell, or from the store next door.

Depression is Unnatural
I don't like the depression because it is unnatural. Everyone is on edge, friendships are sacrificed and we pinch and squeeze and get nowhere. No one dares blossom forth with a new necktie, a cotton gown or a new auto because folks think we should economize. Because we buy no new autos we know that one man is knocked out of work for nine months and he must become a public charge.

I don't like the depression because I am not happy. Even my wife, who smiles in prosperous times, cannot get a kick out of dull ones. She gets less new clothes than she should and so the ready-to-wear and the dry goods stores are unhappy. Too. Moreover the merchantman cuts down his advertising and both he and I have less money to spend.

I don't like a depression because the whole world seems out of tune, and songs without harmony never please the ear. They are neither jumpy, tuneful nor classical. They crowd along and then some wisecracker screams "prosperity is just around the corner."

I don't like the depression because I know greed, avarice and the cardinal sins of mankind brought it on—not overproduction, plenty and righteousness. Want, distress and sorrow always follow in the wake of war and Sherman and millions of others know that "war is hell." Hence a depression is a child of Satan.

Depression Changes Values
I don't like a depression because values change. Money may buy more if you can get the money. It has more purchasing power but strangely enough it will not buy satisfaction nor happiness. Unless money can buy satisfaction, it has little value, hence I would rather pay 10 cents a quart for beans and 10 cents a quart for milk and know that I am not living on some farmers' losses than to eat the farmers' products at half the price.

I don't like the depression because nothing tastes so good when it is cheap. Ham at 45 cents a pound has a savor that 12½ cent ham can never have, even though it comes from the same hog and the same packer. Bread at 5 cents does not seem to have the same vitamin content that it does at 7 and 10 cents neither does toast as well. That's too much imagination, perhaps, but that's another reason why I don't like a depression. Imagination is the stuff dreams are made of and dreams become nightmare when they are depressive.

I don't like the depression because there's nothing funny about it. You can't joke about it and you can't laugh it off. It's like a thunder storm—it pours the milk of human kindness and curdles the optimism of men.

It makes poor losers out of good sports and upsets all the rules of the game. It throws your bottles at the umpire and fills the score card with alibis. It rubs the wrong way because our right way can't even get to first base.

I don't like the depression because it makes leaky roofs, the plaster comes off the ceiling and the wall paper falls to the floor. It begets carelessness and laziness, waxen leaders on it. It makes everything look doleful and anything that has a dol in it, makes folks dependent. When they become dependent fewer folks become independent and no one profits. In fact everybody loses.

Upsets Civic Stomach
I don't like the depression because it upsets the civic stomach. You give 'em facts about tax relief and it nauseates. You mention the H. O. L. of a few years ago and no one knows what it means. You go to the post-office for your letter expecting a dividend check in it and you get a slip saying "our cash reserves are being conserved for the good of our stockholders." And then you wonder what a stockholder is. You get red ink where you expect black and the banks tell you it's a good time to pay something on your note. You borrow in prosperity and try to pay in adversity—and not sweet are the ways of adversity.

No, I don't like the depression and neither do you, so the more you hate it and the more I hate it, the sooner we will drive it from this land. Hate brings on war but war on depression requires no muskets, no cannons, no battleships. It's time we called back the white flag of truce! It's time to bare our arms, screw up our courage and polish up our spiritual armor! When we do that, the depression will be behind us, not ahead.

No, I don't like the depression but I do love prosperity because it tells me "all's well with the world."

Union Thanksgiving Service

As we have for several years had a Union Thanksgiving service so we will again this year combine in a service for giving recognition to this great and important day. Through-out our country many sincerely feel to the spirit of this year's Thanksgiving service. Specially concerned are we to have a part in such a service because it is the George Washington anniversary year and we want to be with those who respond to his Thanksgiving Proclamation and approach the throne of grace not only with gratitude for past favors but with prayers and supplications to the great Lord and Ruler of nations for his blessings upon us today.

It will be held on Wednesday evening, Nov. 23, at 7:30 o'clock so that everyone may be able to arrange to be present. The service is in the Methodist church and Rev. H. E. Koenig is the preacher. The subject of the service is "The Blessings of Thanksgiving." While the St. Paul Evangelical, the Salem Evangelical, the Baptist, and the Methodist Episcopal churches are definitely arranging for the service a special invitation is extended to the friends of all the churches and to those with no church affiliations in the community. "Come ye thankful people, come."

Arlington Heights Wins by Touchdown in Fourth Quarter

Ten Locals Play Their Last Game Under Maroon and White Banner

The Barrington High football team put up the best game they played all season but finally lost their Armistice day struggle to Arlington Heights by a score of 7 to 0. The field was frozen, there were bits of snow over the grass and the wind was bitterly cold but all that did not seem to make any difference to the two teams. For three quarters they battled on even terms. Each side could gain but neither could put over a score. The Barrington ends and tackles were showing the famed end runs of the Greenmen and the center of the Ironhorse held when it was necessary. Finally in the last quarter Heights got all of their gains together at one end to push over a score and added the extra point for the only tally of the game.

Ten Players' Last Game
The entire Barrington team played "heads up" football throughout the game. Ten of the players on the local squad were playing their last game and they all performed creditably. All of the 10 were not considered as regulars but they will be missed next year. Only three of this number were members of the 1931 heavyweight team and the rest of them had to get their "big time" experience as they went.

Bob Buckley was not out last year although he played as a sophomore at Todd school. He improved rapidly and was going good last week. Carl Billings died up for his lack of weight by his aggressiveness and was a capable lineman. Bill Grabenkort was used mostly at end. He was a good defensive player. LaPointe, at tackle, was handicapped by injuries but he played one of the best games of his career on Armistice day. Harold Roth was another senior end. He was first and a good pass receiver. William Bertram was the regular quarterback. He was a good blocker and a heady field general. Harry Miller was a good passer and kicker and though light he was the fastest man in the backfield. Bernard Christensen was a reserve back whose greatest skill lay in his shifty open field running. Dan Capelli was used at end, backfield and guard. He was in the midst of every play whenever he got in the game. Eddie DeLomb was the other senior. He was the hard hitting fullback and on defense he backed up the line. He was one of the two hardest hitting tacklers on the team.

Veterans Next Year
After citing all these players who will be missing next season it looks as if Coach Clark will have to start all over again. On the contrary if the boys make the grade in their studies he will have seven or eight veterans around which to build a team. Workman at center should be among the best in the conference next year if he continues to improve. Al Witte at guard was just really "getting the hang of it" when the season closed. Bill Short, tackle, was the hardest smashing lineman on the team. He played a stellar game at Arlington Heights. Henry Brandt was used at both tackle and end and was good at both places. LaVerno Kilburn is a rover who should elicit regular job next year.

In the backfield there will be the old hitting Willie Altenburg and Claude Gunn, who were looking for a shiftier every game. Mike Taylor is another promising possibility who handles his scholastic requisites.

Ponies Defeated
The Ponies proved to be poor. Teams at Arlington Heights and took 25 to 0 drubbing. Although the locals were weak this season they had several good players who will help to strengthen the regulars next year.

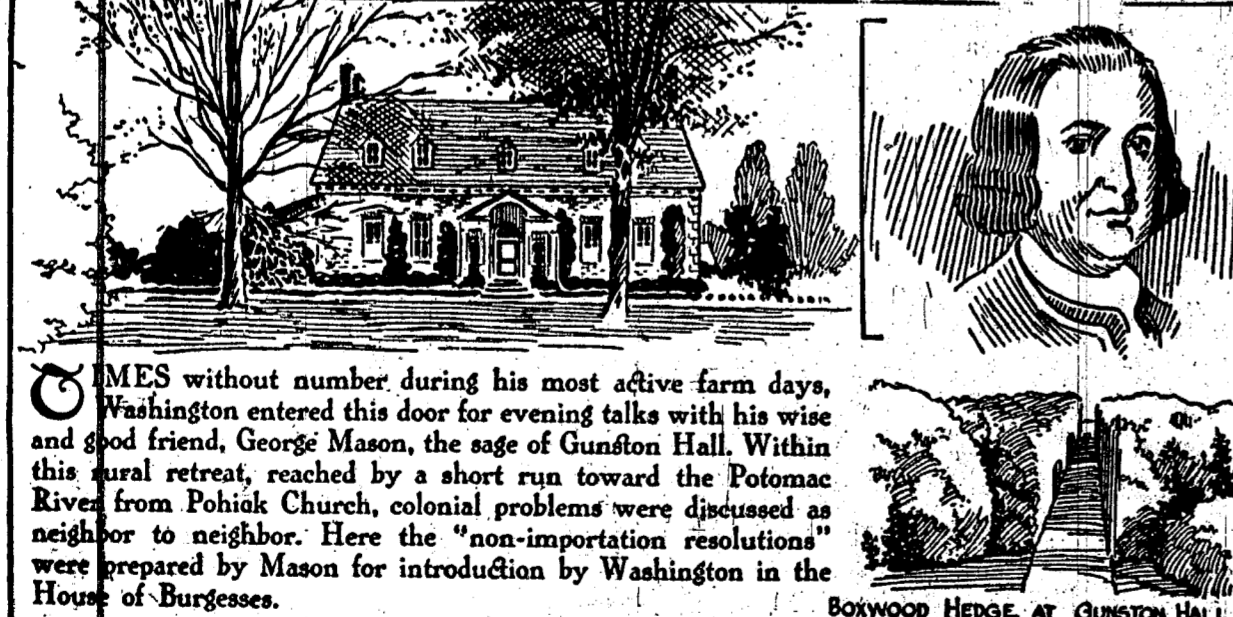

George Banks, Ted Kampert and Duane Latta looked the best in the district game but Frederick Wedt, Oscar Howard and Warren Grom of a few of the others have played well during the season and could be heard from next year.

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S TRAVELS

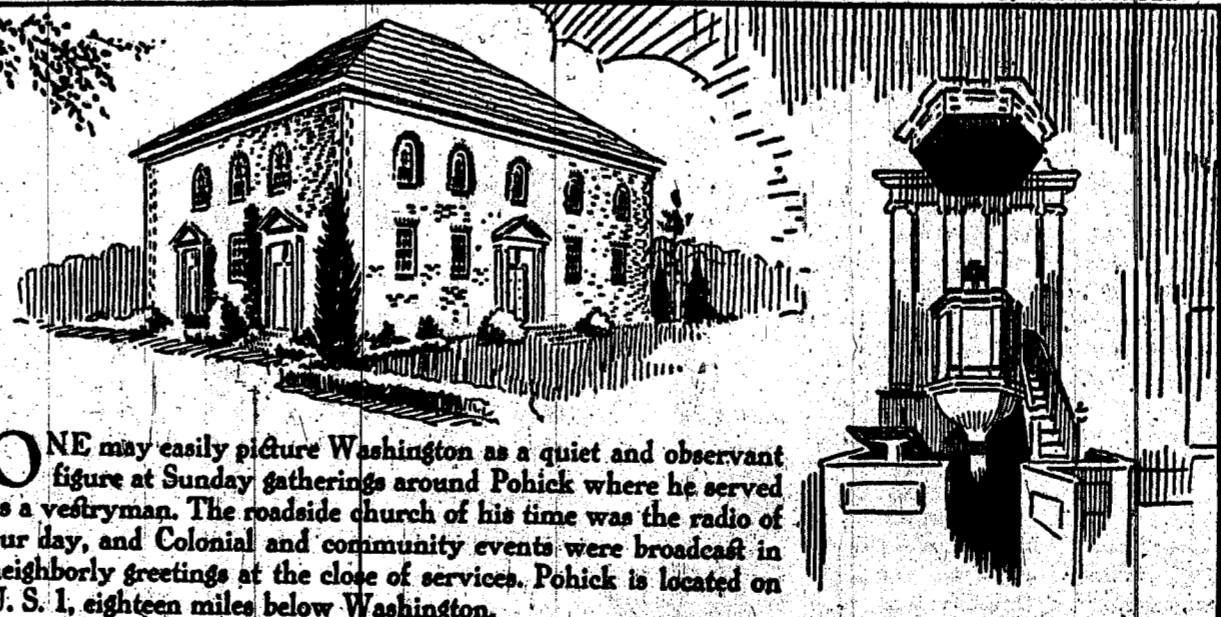

MES without number during his most active farm days, Washington entered this door for evening talks with his wife and good friend, George Mason, the sage of Gunston Hall. Within this rural retreat, reached by a short run toward the Potomac River from Pohick Church, colonial problems were discussed as neighbor to neighbor. Here the "non-importation resolutions" were prepared by Mason for introduction by Washington in the House of Burgesses.

WHEN traveling between Mount Vernon, Fredericksburg and Williamsburg, Washington was a frequent guest at Rippon Lodge, a house built about 1725, later the home of Col. Thomas Blackburn, "friend and comrade in arms of Gen. Washington", reads the tablet placed at the entrance by the Mount Vernon Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Rippon Lodge, near Dumfries on U. S. 1, was also the family home of Mrs. Bushrod Washington (Ann Blackburn) and Mrs. John Augustine Washington (Jane Charlotte Blackburn) each in turn the mistress of Mount Vernon.

ONE may easily picture Washington as a quiet and observant figure at Sunday gatherings around Pohick where he served as a vestryman. The roadside church of his time was the radio of our day, and Colonial and community events were broadcast in neighborly greetings at the close of services. Pohick is located on U. S. 1, eighteen miles below Washington.

THE tea-bushes in the foreground have grown on the lawn at Rippon Lodge since Colonial days when England enacted a tax on tea. The non-importation resolutions drawn at Gunston Hall by George Mason, introduced in the House of Burgesses by George Washington, and favorably reported on by the Chairman of the Committee, Col. Thomas Blackburn, made the tea discussion a neighborhood affair. But how significant its bearing upon the country's future!
