METHODISTS WELCOME NEW PASTOR

On Thursday evening, Nov. 13, the members and friends of the Methodist Episcopal church gathered at the church to honor the new pastor, the Rev. Milton S. Freeman, and Mrs. Freeman.

R. W. Dawson expressed in a few words the welcome which all wished to extend.

Mrs. W. D. McEwen played two piano selections by MacDowell, and Mrs. H. R. Hammond gave a great pleasure to all by reading two groups of her own poems. The first group contained poems for special days—Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Day, and Easter. The second group, composed of garden poems, in addition to their own beauty, served as a most fitting introduction to the lovely pictures which Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. W. showed of some of Harrington's beautiful gardens.

All the guests were invited to the social hour for an opportunity to become acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Freeman. A beautiful table of refreshments and cake were served, added to the hospitality of the occasion.

Barrington Woman's Club

The Barrington Woman's Club met for its November meeting yesterday at the First Baptist church. After the committee reports and delegate reports, the meeting was turned over to Miss Zonia Baber. Miss Baber came as a lecturer from the University of Chicago. She has been a teacher for many years; was the founder of the Chicago Geographic Society, and is a member of the Society of Women Geographers. This latter is an international organization which membership eligibility requires that one be a woman who has traveled and who has discovered something new about the people or place of her travels. It may be interesting to know that her fund of knowledge was placed at our disposal as courtesy to a few of our members who are fortunate enough to be her friends.

Miss Baber's subject was "The Philippine Islands: A Study in Modern Colonial Policy." She gave a resume of the location of the islands, their climate, topography, resources, history, and race. At the time of our gaining the islands from Spain, the struggle for their independence had gone a long way and had culminated in their electing a president. They took long their struggle toward the island of Spain. In her visit among the natives, Miss Baber asked every one from the Spanish to the Ilocos to the bell boy his idea as to the United States and also as to freedom from us. All said they had no grievance against us—only deep gratitude for the improvements and facilities for education we had given them, and all, quite as universally, wanted their freedom. In searching for the reasons for this seeming contradiction in their reasoning, she came to the same conclusion with other thinkers on the subject that their desire for freedom is based on race prejudice caused by the Anglo-Saxon habit of thinking in race superior to all other races. They think that their freedom is "a suppressed desire" and they are willing to take their chances of temporary financial insecurity in order to get rid of this prejudice.

The lecture was followed by a social hour and refreshments served from a delightfully appointed table.

The study class met Thursday, Nov. 13, at the Public Library with Robert Work discussed "The Meaning of Culture" by John Cowper Powys. Her comprehensive interpretation of the book, was the marked attention of her audience. In Mrs. Work's interesting talk she stressed the author's idea of awareness and awareness every day and every moment in the source of cultured life. She went on to say that culture is an

JEANETTE POUTRE WEDS

Mrs. Evelyn Poutre of 122 W. Main street announces the marriage on November 15 of her daughter, Jeanette, to A. M. Dahlinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Dahlinger of Edison Park.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Philip N. Boucher at the parsonage of the Salem Evangelical church at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. The attendants were Miss Delavan, Mrs. J. 121 N. Haver avenue, and Walter Blase of Chicago. Other present were the bride's mother, Mrs. Evelyn Poutre, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brandt and Miss Jessie Clark of Barrington, and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dahlinger, William Dahlinger, H. Dahlinger, and Miss Irene Perelli of Edison Park.

The bride wore a turquoise blue satin gown, and a pearl headpiece. She carried an arm bouquet of sea roses, spray dragons, and lilies of the valley. Miss Jura was dressed in blue chiffon and wore a corsage of pink peonies and lilies of the valley.

After the ceremony the bride party dined at the Chateau, Waukegan and acquired taste. One has to overcome a certain sense of inertia and be alert. In an illuminating and stimulating way Poutre set forth the test of awareness, to philosophy, literature, poetry, painting and religion. As the author states "A cultured person does not merely read philosophy but he feels it, does not merely know poets but saturates himself with their poetry, and his peculiar style, then another. But of all the activities culture, pursued in its effort to develop our awareness, the one which ought most profoundly to influence us is the reading of books. What one is to do with books is to saturate oneself with their imaginative atmospheres. No one can be regarded as cultured who does not treat every human being, without a single exception, as of deep and startling interest."

Mrs. Elden Gieske, Mrs. R. L. Mundbach, Mrs. Arthur J. Donnan, and Mrs. Heuben G. Plager attended the reciprocity meeting which was held at Des Plaines Monday, Nov. 17, in the Masonic Temple. This was the sixth joint meeting of the Park Ridge Woman's Club, the Twentieth Century Club of Park Ridge which was formerly the Park Ridge Improvement Association), and the Des Plaines Woman's Club. The entertainment for the afternoon was "A Musician's Holiday in Spain." The last part of the program was done in costume. Edward Clarke was the baritone; his wife, Rachel Steinman Clarke, the violinist, and Marie Colinton, the pianist.

The names of the women who are to work in the cafeteria next week, Nov. 24-28 inclusive, follows:

Monday, Nov. 17—Medames Solt, Stevens, Lawrence.

Tuesday, Nov. 18—Gillespie, Gieske, Brooks.

Wednesday, Nov. 19—Madison, Schabinger, Ward.

Thursday, Nov. 20—Mrs. G. L. Lines.

There will be no school Thursday and Friday, Nov. 27 and 28.

The Education Department of the seventh district is sponsoring a trip through the Adler Planetarium on November 11. The lecture begins at 11:00 a. m. Everyone is asked to be assembled at 10:40 a. m.

The Jackson boulevard bus will take you as far as the aquarium.
