A BOY'S HEROISM.

How Ho Saved a Ship and Crew from the Pirates.

A luminous sort of mist lay under the full moon all over the Caribbean sed. as the treasure ship Ocean Queen, of New Orleans, was wafted by a light, almost imperceptible breeze, on her course for Jamaica.

"Here! | Scull your boat alongside!". was shouted, and an oar came whizzing through the air, to fall splashing near the skiff. Jack secured the oar and sculled his light vessel alongside of the brig. Then a rope was dropped to him and he fastened it to the forward thwart of the boat.

Clambering aboard, he rounded by a numerous throng. Several lanterns had been lighted showing these people to be a dirty, evil-looking set, wery different in appearance from the tidy, honest sailormen to whom Jack was accustomed.

The gang, seeming to consist mostly of Caribs, dark-skinned Portuguese and soiled tassels, ill-fitting blue trousers and clumsy red-and-blue sashes, in which latter were huge knives and long pistols.

A man of short stature, with bandy legs and a brutish face, more like a gorilla's than a human being's, was evidently the captain. His braided jacket, his crimson sash, his white-duck trousers, his silver and gold-mounted sword and pistols and his little, round, velvet cap, with a feather in it, only added to his ugliness, which was rendered almost hideous by the cap being jauntily set on one side of his snaggy head.

Folding his arms across his massive tural voice:

"How came you admirt?"

Jack told him without mentioning the name of his ship, for he suspected, from the appearance of the fierce-looking horde, as well as that of the brig, her raking masts, enormous breadth of. canyas and the five guns on each side, ropes. At that moment, just as he had that he was aboard a pirate. REFUSED A THOUSAND DULLARS Odd Experience of a Conductor and a Mysterious Passenger

The following odd incident & related of Conductor McKinney, who was employed many years ago upon a southern railroad.

One night in leaving Washington the conductor went as usual through the train to collect the fares. In one of the rear cars a passenger without a ticket handed him a bill.

The conductor took it, glanced at it hastily, and seeing that it was of a large denomination put it in his pocket as conductors are apt to do and informed the passenger that he would return with the change.

The purpose of the delay was, of course, to afford the conductor an opportunity to examine the bill at his leisure in the baggage car to see if it was all right. When Mr. McKinney reached the baggage car and inspected the note he found to his astonishment that what he had taken for a hundreddollar bill was a note for one thousand

Of course the changing of the bill of such a denomination was out of the question. The conductor therefore passed back through the train to refund the money and obtain a smaller

When he reached the car the passenger had shifted his seat. Going up to him, the conductor said that there was probably a mistake, as the bill given by him was for one thousand dol-

To his! utter amazement the passenger disclaimed all knowledge of the bill. He had given a ticket, he said, and his seatmate confirmed the statement. The conductor expostulated, but the man was firm, and could not be prevailed upon to accept the money.

Finally, the conductor gave up in despair, not knowing whether he or the passenger was crazy, but inclined to the latter belief. At a station or two from Washington the passenger and his companion left the train and hastily disappeared.

The next day Mr. Mckinney handed in the bill to the company's office with an explanation.

The squire and his wife attenda ervice for several Sundays, and then most cordially invited the younge orgyman to visit them.

Soon after the young ministers trted out to pay his call, and as he was walking toward the quarter of Brooklyn that adjoined Abington, he saw, descending a hill, a large charcoal cart, driven by a man who seemed strikingly to resemble his new friend.

Squire Sharpe. It seemed to him impossible, for he had been born and bred in the city, and was quite unaccustomed to the sight of gentlemen engaged in such an occupation as coal-hauling. As they drew nearer each other, it became more and more apparent that the collier was really his new and honorable friend.

He remembered the injunction: "A man's a man for a' that," and braced himself for the occasion. They saluted each other, and the minister drew off his glove to shake hands

"Oh no," said Squire Sharpe, with a warm smile, "I never give my hand to a friend when it is so dirty. My brother and I want to clear up a four-acre wood lot, so that we can plant it. POISON IN THE MEDICINE.

A Sad Tragedy Enacted in an Ohio Town -Mother and Daughter Dead.

POMEROY, O., March 13. - Mrs. Thomas H. Holmes, who took a large dose of extract of colocynth to prove that, she had not poisoned her daughter, died Friday night. The daughter died from poison and the mother was accused of having administered the fatal dose. She denjed the charge, claiming the medicine, was for liver trouble. To demonstrate that she was acting in good faith she took two spoonfuls of the dreadful stuff. She lived a week.

An autopsy was held on the remains of Mrs. Holmes, revealing the fact that her stomach had been destroyed by some powerful drug and that she had congestion of the lungs, either of which would have proven fatal. The official investigation will not bed completed for several days, but it is now believed by the coroner that the death of mother and daughter cannot be traced to any craminal source. He states that investigation shows that the daughter, Mrs. Joseph Mathews, took an overdose of the alleged liver medicine prepared and used by her father, under misapprehension that it would more speedily relieve her trouble, and that she died from the effect in two days. She took the medicine of her own volition. The mother, Mrs. Holmes, took a double dose of the same preparation of her own accord to allay gossip and to prove the drug harmless and to place the blame on Dr. R wley. The body of the daughter is not yet exhan A. Dr. Rowley, who treated Mrs. Mathews after she took the drug and when Holmes charged with having administered poison in pills by accident, is vindicated by the post mortem, as he did not treat the mother. The funeral of Mrs. Holmes was attended by nearly the entire populace within 3 miles, aggregating 1,000 people.

The coal gas was dense and the men worked heroically and Burke and Vandemark were gotten out safely. Dunleavy and Von Gasbeck, however, were not so fortunate in getting out, for before they could reach the top of the ladder they fell back dead. Henry Pin was carried into the air and to his home, and it is thought he will die. Dunleavy and Von Gasbeck were unmarried.

INDIA ON SILVER.

It was no unmeaning coincident. that silver and wheat touched their lowest price in London on the same day. The two have an inseparable connection, especially from the London standpoint. It is attonce the greates consumer of silver and producer of wheat, driving the former from London and sinding to the same market the supplies of the latter in payment therefore.

It is now twenty one, years since the great monetary law of bimetallism was violated by Haunce and the United States This country partrally atoned for its folly by going in 1878 to bismetallism without fully restoreing the old impartiality in the monetary treatment of the two

The fishing season was formally opened last Monday by a party of 111 Elgin people who are encamped by the Lake.

A certain young man in the neighborhood, to play a joke on Liake his friend, filled his overshoes full of mud. Imagine his surprise later to find that he had filled his own instead of his friend's. How and did it happen, Frank?

A. C. Stoxen and C. D. Barker, had a hard time of it coming up from Barrington last Thursday night, after breaking down several times, had to borrow a heavy wagon to get home. Who will say that we don't need a railroad here, cut off from the world as we are? There not being a hard gravel road from Wauconda to any railroad

No excuse can be reasonably offered for the public highways being in such a condition as they have been for some time past. In the villiage the mud has been hub deep, and out side the same way. Some work on the spots that are the worst will be of a great benefit. Gravel is the only thing that will answer the purpose. Dirt on dirt, makes mud! mud!! mud!!!

Dr. E. R. Lovesee of Nunda was called to Wauconda, Monday, by Dr. Dawson, for consultation at the bed-side of Fred Wynkoop. While here he called . on Mr. Coykendall. The Doctor is a specialist treating the throat and lungs. Dr. Dawson was highly complimented on his treatment of the above cases, by Dr. Lovesee.

A gentleman while registering at a hotel not far from here saw a bed-bug crawling across the register, threw down his pen in disgust, and said I've fought St. Joe fleas, Kansas City spiders Fort Scott graybacks, but I never stoped at a hotel where the bed-bigs came to look over the register to find out the number of your room.

THE TARIFF BILL

Principal Changes in the Wilson Measure Made by Senators.

Washington, March 10.-The tariff bill as amended has been reported to the senate finance committee and given to the public. It represents the deliberations of five weeks. The chief changes in the bill by the senate committee are in the sugar, whisky, iron and lead, the duty on the first two being advanced and the last two being taken off the free list and put on the dutiable list. The smart relvance in sugar, it is charged, accounts for the smart advance in the market on Tues-

The time for the bill to go into effect, save in a few specific instances, is extended from June 1, 1894, to June 30, 1894. There will be more changes before the bill gets through the senate. and more when it gets into conference, but there is good reason to believe that the bill as it stands now will become law without many changes.

The bill may possibly be reported to the senate by Saturday and debate begun some time next week, but it will mot pass the senate before June 1, if then. The income tax feature is left in

The New Amendments.

On clothing, ready made, and articles of wearing apparel of every description, felts not woven and plushes and other pile fabrics and imitations of fur, 40 per cent ad valorem (Wiloon bill 25 per cent.)

Sugar Schedule. The portion of the bill repealing the sugar bounty is left hatact and the following provision inserted:

"All sugars, tank bottoms, sirups of cane juice or of beet juice, melada, concen trated melada, concrete and concentrated polasses testing by the polariscope not above 80 degrees shall pay a duty of 1 cent per pound, and for every ad-ditional degree or fraction or degree above 80 and not above 90 degrees shown by the polariscope shall pay 1-100 of a cent per pound additional: and above 90 and ot above 96 Gagrees for every additional degree or fraction of a degree shown the polariscope test shall pay a duty of 2-100 of a cent per pound additional, and above 96 degrees by polariscope test shall day a duty of 1 4-10 cents per pound; molasses ating not above 56 degress by the polariscop her. I hope I will meet you all in Heaven."

shall pay a duty of 2 cents per gallon: molass testing above 56 degrees shall pay a duty of 4 cents per gallon. No other changes are made:

Undecorated china, porcelain and crockery are increased from 35 to 40 per cent, and decorated china, porcelain, ornaments, etc., are increased from 40 to 45 per cent.

Plain brick is increased from 20 to 25 per cent.

Plain green and colored, molded or pressed, and flint and lime glassware, including bottles, vials, demijohns and carboys (covered or ancovered), whether filled or unfilled, and whether their contents be dutiable or free, not specially provided for in this act, 40 per cent.

valorem. (Wilson bill, 35 per cent.) Unpolished cylinder, crown and common indow glass, not exceeding 16 by 24 inches. square. 1% cents per pound (Wilson bill i cent). Above that and not exceeding 24 by 30 inches square, 1% cents per pound (Wilson bill 1% cents.) Above that and not exceeding 24 by 36 inches square, 1% cents per pound (Wilson bill, 1% cents). All above that 1% cents per pound. (Wilson bill, 11/4.)

In the stone schedule the only change is that of grindstones from $1.75 per ton to 10 per cent ad valorem. Roofing states increased from 10 to 20 per cent. ad valorem.

Income Tax Remains.

The income tax section retains the rate of $ per cent on the amount of income over $4,000, as prescribed in the Wilson bill. The classes ncome are broadened by adding to rents, profits, salaries, etc , the words "or from any source whatever." The persons to whom the tax applies are: "Every citizen of the United States and every person residing therein Banks, Trusts and Insurance Companies.

The order in which banks, trusts and insurance companies are taxed is somewhat changed, all of these institutions being included under general heads instead of seperately.

In taxing salaries of employes of corpora tions the house bill makes it the duty of the corporations to pay the tax of their employes and then deduct it from their salaries. senate bill relieves corporations from becoming the taxpayers for its employes and compels the latter to make direct payments to the collector.

The time when returns on income taxes are made is changed from the first "day" of March to the first "Monday" of March.

The entire section requiring private corpora tions to notify revenue collectors of all divi-dends, profits, etc., declared is stricken out. This does not relieve the corporations from the tax, but does away with the burden of notifying the collector every time dividends or profits are divided.

Cards and Cigarettes.

It makes a tax of 2 cents on every pack of playing cards, similar to the provisions in the Wilson bill; a tax on all tobacco, cigars and cigarettes weighing over three pounds per 1,000 than three pounds per 1,000 pay $1 per 1,000 and of those wrapped in tobacco 50 ceuts per Whisky Tax Increased.

The sections governing the tax on spirits are new throughout, and are a substitute for the house section stricken out. A tariff of $1.10 is imposed and the bonded period is extended from three to eight years.

Collectors of internal revenue are made the taxes instead of the deputy collectors, as provided in the Wilson till. The right of appeal against imposition of unjust taxes is retained. but the final decision rests with the secretary of the treasury, as provided in the house bill. Changes in the Free List.

The free list is not so much changed as had been supposed it would be, and the articles taken from it are far more numerous than the additions. The date when the free list shall go into effect is changed from June 1, 1894, to June 30, 1894. Apples of all kinds are stricken from the free list and placed on the dutiable list, as are also beef, mutton and pork, and bone charcoal, suitable for use in decolorizing sugar. Bituminous coal, shale, coal slack and coke are transferred to the dutiable list, leaving anthracite coal on the free list. Cocoa fiber is made dutiable. Diamonds and other precious stones lough or uncut are added to the free list. Floor matting is made dutiable. Dates, cocoanuts, Brazil nuts and peanuts are also taken from the free list. Cod oil is made free of duty. Iron ore is taken from the free list, and also olives and orchids, azaleas and palms and other plants used for forcing under glass for cut flowers. Double and twisted silk or silk advanced in manufacturing any way is to pay a duty. Sugars are to be moved to the dutiable list. There is a touch of reciprocity in a proviso attached to the paragraph admitting plows, harrows, harvesters and other agricult ural implements free, the proviso being to the effect that all the articles mentioned in this paragraph "when in ported from any country which lays an import duty on like articles coming from the United States shall be subject to the duties existing prior to the passage of this

A JEALOUS HOOSIER.

He Kills His Wife in Cold Blood and Proceeds to Commit Suicide.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., March 10 .-Wednesday morning the dead body of Philip Petrie, of this city, was found on the Wabash railroad track in this city. His head was completely severed from his body and lay a few feet away, indicating suicide. He had quarreled with his wife and as she was supposed to be in the country his body was taken to the undertakers and a telegram was sent her.

Thursday morning in putting crape upon the door of Petrie's dwelling the undertaker noticed a peculiar odor and made an investigation. In a room which showed the marks of a violent struggle was found the body of Petrie's wife. Marks on her throat indicated that she had been strangled and it was apparent that the woman had been dead about five days. She was last seen by the neighbors Sunday. Near the body lay a piece of paper on which Petrie had written the following, showing that jealousy had prompted the act: "I, Philip Petrie, am 45 years and 4 months old. She has done all the disgrace she can make me. She not make more. She promised Good Foust to marry him as soon as him and wife get divorce. I am no good in her eyes. She had me arrested four times. had no rest, so I thought I'd give her rest. My wife can bring no more disgrace upon me. Bury us together. The children shall divide everything we have. Write to Onward and tell my children they can have everything coming to me from the old country. She was never satisfied. She wanted some one else to love

PASSED THE PENSION BILL The House Votes $151,000,000 for Veterans of the War. WASHINGTON, March 9.- After five days of debate the pension appropriation bill carrying $151,000,000 was passed Wednesday afternoon without a division. Throughout the debate there had been no criticism of the amount carried by the bill debate being on the one hand confined an assault on the manner in which the present commissioner of pensions had administered the office and his alleged unauthorized suspension of pensions, and on the other to a defense of the attempt of the commissioner to purge the rolls of those who were not entitled to a place upon them.

All the amendments to the bill, save one, that of Mr. Pickler, to make the reports of the examining surgeons open to the inspection of the applicant or his attorneys, were defeated. They all fell under points of order that they were not germane. The one which attracted most attention was that of Mr. Enloe, to repeal a portion of the provision included in the act of last December to prevent the suspension of any pension, except on thirty days' notice, so as to permit the suspension in case of prima facie evidence that the pensioner had procured his pension by forgery, perjury or other palpable fraud. This amendment was offered at the suggestion of Commissioner Lochren himself, who, under the opinion of the attorney gencral, declared that if the act of last December stood over $500,000 would have to be paid out to suspended pensioners who were proved beyond all question not to be longer entitled to the pensions they had been drawing. Mr. Outhwaite, the chairman ef the committee of the whole, however, ruled the amendment out on Mr. Martin's point of order that it was not germane.

BLANCHARD FOR SENATOR.

He Is to Succeed White as One of Louisia

na's Representatives. NEW ORLEANS, March 9. - Congress man Blanchard has been appointed United States senator to succeed Justice White, whose resignation takes effect

Newton Crain Blanchard, of Shreveport, was born in Rapides parish, La., January 24, 1849. He entered the law department of the University of Louisiana in the winter of 1869, graduating the following year with the degree of bachelor of laws. In 1876 he became chairman of the democratic committee of Caddo parish and was representative from that parish in the state constitutional convention of 1879, serving as chairman of the committee on federal relations. SOUGHT DEATH TOGETHER.

San Francisco Couple Found Dying in a Room from Poison.

FRANCISCO, March 9 .- Dr. J. J. Leek a well-known centist, and Miss Alice Aldersley, of Napa, have been lying at the city hospital at the point of death. Tuesday morning were found in Leek's room, with the gas turned on and both black in the face from asphyxiation. Physicians pronounced them suffering from narcotic poison. Miss Aldersley died at 1 o'clock a. m. Dr. Leek is in a precarious condition. There is much mystery surrounding the case, but there is little doubt that poison was taken by both with suicidal intent.

KILLED AND ROBBED.

Another Victim of an Assassin Near Jeffersonville, Ind.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., March 0 .-William Bowman was murdered by highwaymen Tuesday night near St. Joseph's Hill, 15 miles from here. It is thought Bowman was robbed and afterward shot. Bowman was in the city Tuesday and assisted in ferreting out the assassin of Geer. He was known to have considerable money on his person. He left for St. Joseph's Hill on business in his buggy via New Albany, and it was between these points that his body was found on the road with a wound in the abdomen and his pockets rifled. There is no clew.

A KANSAS BANK ROBBED.

Burglars Get $1,500, But Fall to Open the Chest Containing $10,000.

PLEASANTON, Kan., March 9.-The Bank of Pleasanton was burglarized Tuesday night. The combination of the tault door was blown out. When the safe was opened it was found that about $1,500 had been taken. The safe was cracked with dynamite, but the burglars failed to open the chest in the safe which contained about $10,000. All the private boxes were rifled and $600 worth of stamps taken from Postmaster Holmes' box

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion, or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present, alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent, or overbusy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he prescribes his pills and potions, assuming them to be such, when, in reality, then are all only symmotons caused by some then are all only symptoms caused by some womb disorder. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages his practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worso by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medi-cine, like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery.

The lady whose portrait heads this article is Mrs. Ida Coventry, of Huntsville, Logan County, Ohio. She had an experience which we will permit her to felate in her own language. It illustrates the foregoing. She writes: "I had 'female weakness' very bad—in bed most of the time, dragging down pains through my back and hips; no appetite; no energy. The family physician was treating me for 'liver complaint'. I did not get any better under that treatment so I thought I would try Dr. Pierce's Favorito Prescription and his Golden Medical Discovery. I felt better before I used one bottle of each. I continued their use until I took six bottles of each. In three months' time I felt so well I did not think it necessary to take any more. In childbirth it does what Dr. Pierce recommends it to do—lessens the pain and perils to both mother and child and shortens 'labor'. I would like to recommend Dr. Pierce's Extract of Smart-Weed to those who have never tried it; it surely is the best thing for cholera merbus, or pain in the stomach I ever used; it works passing Kenwood, 30 miles west of like a charm. I try never to be without it." The following is from Mrs. Harriet Hards, of Montpelier, Idaho: "I have enjoyed better health since I began treatment with Dr.

Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for lencor-rhea and uterine debility than I have for sixteen years. I am cured of my trouble, and now weigh one hundred and sixty-six pounds, whereas my weight for many years stood at one hundred and twenty-five pounds. With pleasure, I remain," Yours truly,

yours Harriet Hards

The following is from Mrs. M. A. McAllister, of Lim Reck, Jackson Co., Ala: "I was in bad health; ago was working upon me, and I had ulceration of the womb; could not get about. I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it cured me; I felt ten years younger. I have not had any return of my trouble. I am the mother of thirteen children and I am fifty-three years old, have never seen a better woman's friend. old, have never seen a better woman's friend than your medicine. I have recommended it to my friends here, and it has never failed in any case, so let me thank you for the good it did me." Yours truly

THE JURY'S VIEW.

It Thinks Dan Coughlin Innocent of Dr. Cronin's Murder.

And Therefore Returns a Verdict of "Not Guilty"-Its Decision Reached in & Short Time-How the Verdict Was Received.

COUGHLIN A FREE MAX. CHICAGO, March 10. - Daniel Coughlin. with his wife clinging to his arm, walked out of Judge Tuthill's court a free man Thursday afternoon. The jury took the case at 11:50 o'clock and at 4:45 p. m. returned this verdict: "We, the jury, find the defendant, Daniel Coughlin, not guilty."

Shortly after 4 p. m. word was sent by a bailiff to Judge Tuthill that a verdict had been reached. The news spread quickly, and before the jury could reach the courtroom in response to the judge's order it was packed with people eager to be present at this important period of the great trial. The defendant was brought in by a bailiff.

Judge Tuthill took his seat upon the bench and court was called to order. The jury filed in amidst the utmost si-lence. With signs of nervous-ness Judge Tuthill asked if a verdict had been reached, and upon receiving an affirmative reply ordered the clerk

Coughlin shot up from his chair as though a powerful spring beneath him was released by the word "not." For the shortest part of a second the rows of men who stood chest to back from the clerk's desk to the rear wall remained motionless. But a cheer broke the spell, and a wild rush for the man who had just been acquitted of the charge of murdering Dr. Patrick H. Cronin swept bailiffs, spectators, policemen, court attendants and newspaper men into the narrow confines of the space within the railing.

Joseph B. David, Daniel Donahoe's partner, threw himself across the table domestic fleeces have again been shaded, and grasped Coughlin's hand. Old Michael Coughlin, with quivering lips and wet cheeks, was the next man to hold the hand of his son. But Coughlin seemed dazed. He shook hands heedlessly and answered congratulations with mumbled words. He stood bewildered, stunned by the blow of a great joy. For a few seconds he stood thus, while men climbed over chairs, railing and tables in their mad desire to see Coughlin or to speak to him. Judge Tuthill commanded silence again and again, and men stood beside him waving their hats and uttering wild cries. Few heard the judge when he thanked the jury commended them for their services and dismissed them.

Coughlin finally broke away from the surging mob which carried him manufacturers do not report an improvement, from one side to the other, and, starting with Juror Benson, went down the line, grasping the hand of each of the men who had set him free. He met Judge Tuthill and they shook hands together.

Just as Coughlin reached Juror Bruce another commotion began. It started at the door and was indicated by a sud den opening in the crowd. Coughlin was passing behind the witness stand on his way out of the courtroom when some one cried: "Here's your wife 'Dan,' here's your wife."

Coughlin turned back. The jurors stepped aside and the crowd opened right and left to give free passageway to the sobbing woman, who rushed toward her husband. "Oh, 'Dan,' 'Dan, is it true, is it true?" she sobbed, as he threw both arms around her.

After many minutes more spent in congratulations Coughlin, accompanied by his wife, started for the county jail on the north side. En route the exprisoner was loudly cheered, and he acknowledged it by bows and smiles. Arrived at the jail the papers containing his formal discharge from custody were handed him, and this formality having been concluded, Daniel Conghlin stood once more before the world a free man. Before leaving the jall Coughlin said to a reporter: "The wrong is righted at last. I wish that every judge and prosecuting attorney would be sent to jail for six months, and then they would not be so anxious to send innocent men there. The case against me was all perjury. It's all over now, though, and we might as well let it drop. I don't know what I shall do at present. I am going to visit Hancock, Mich., my old home, with my family, and then I am coming back to Chicago to live."

A great deal of dissatisfaction is expressed by citizens at the verdict, which was a surprise to everyone. It seems to have been the general ex-pectation that the jury would disagree, while many confidently looked for conviction, and few anticipated a verdict of not guilty. The case has been ou trial for nearly four months and the cost to the county has been in the neighborhood of $100,000.

TRADE REVIEW.

Dun and Bradstreet Say Business Is Im

NEW YORK, March 12.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

"Evidences of present improvement in business multiply, but confidence in future improvement does not seem to increase. There is more business and a larger production by industries, for the season has arrived when greater activity is necessary if dealers' stocks are to be replenished, and those who cannot make calculations beyond a few months are the more anxious to crowd as much trade as they safely can into those months.

"In some branches of distribution, however, there are indications of a diminishing demand for goods and the evident preference for medium and low-priced articles, with the known reduction in wages and family expenditures, leads many to feel somewhat less confident that business will soon recover its former volume. Un-ness will soon recover its former volume. Undertakings reaching beyond a short time are not made with greater freedom and in spite of a larger present demand prices of manufactured goods tend downward.

"The most gain is in iron and steel manufacture. The output of pig iron increased 10 per cent. though it is still 37.8 per cent. less than a year ago.

"Shipments of boots and shoes from the east are 14.8 per cent smaller than a year ago for the same weeks, and purchases are still mainly of medium or low-priced goods.

"In textile manufactures and dry goods there are increased activity and replenishment of stocks, as is natural at this season. But the demand thus far falls much short of expectations and its character indicates great economy in consumption. In woolens also manufacturers are increasing production mainly in a tentative way, or on orders which are little more than sufficient to test the market.

"Breadstuffs and oils have been stronger, provisions weaker and cotton hesitates. Wheat advanced half a cent and corn rose nearly a cent. Lard and hogs both declined, nevertheless. Sales of cotton were larger at first with some decline, which was afterwards recovered "The recovery in the price of bar silver which fell to 27d but recovered to 27.31d, has affected prices. The volume of domestic trade shown by clearings decreases for the week only 17.4 per cent outside New York and 34.9 per cent. here compared with last year. In foreign trade changes are also for the better, exports having been large, and for four weeks 14 per pent. larger than last year, while the decrease in imports for February was 37 per cent. "Failures are growing less important and somewhat fewer also. For the week ending March 8 the liabilities thus far reported were only $2,937,832, and for four weeks in February $14,886,691, of which $6,732,615 were of manufacturing and $7,697,127 of trading concerns. The number of failures during the last week have been 248 in the United States, against 193 last year, and 60 in Canada, against 32 last

Bradstreet's says:

'The comparatively less favorable report as to the volume of sales and distribution of general merchandise emphasized last week remains, with some exceptions, practi-cally unchanged Bright and warmer weather has stimulated retail lines at a number of cities. Eastern shoe manufacturers report a slightly improved demand, and at a number of larger distributing centers jobbers in groceries, dry goods, hardware, hats, shoes and millinery report a steadily maintained inquiry, yet, with exceptions, numerous orders for small amounts for immediate wants contine the rule.

"While wheat, Indian corn and oats advanced 14c, 1c and 14c in price respectively this week, and cotton and sugar remained unch which stood between him and Coughlin cutting Australian wools out of the market so far as competition as to price is concerned. Pig and shaped iron, steel billets, and rails and iron ore have also been shaded again in some instances, making new low records, and pork has gone off 25 cents and lard 15. Chicago advises that loans of national banks there have increased $2,000,-000 and total deposits $13,000,000 since Decem-

> "Favorable trade conditions center at Chica go and St. Louis, the former reporting the best week's sale of dry goods for months, bringing the total for the year into favorable compar-ison with that in the like portion of last year. Jobbers in hats, millinery and dry goods at St. Louis also report continued improvement, with a favorable comparison thus far during the year with last year. Milwaukee bankers report increased demand for accommodation and other evidences of improvement in trade, while at St Paul spring trade, although moderate, is in full swing. Kansas City and Omaha make reports which suggest a strong underlying demand. At Cincinnati although some jobbers do. A fair trade is experienced in a few lines at Cleveland, although a better outlook in manufacturing lines is announced at Louisville, Detroit and Indianap. olis. There is more inquiry for lumber at Minneapolis, and the production of flour is increasing. Increased activity is also reported from Duluth and Portland, Ore.

> "Gross earnings of eighty-three railroads in February reported to Bradstreet's show a loss of 12.6 per cent. compared with February, 1893. that being a little greater than in January, when it was 224 per cent less than in that month the year before. Southern and southwestern roads present heavier proportionate losses, the granger lines doing better than in

sioner Lamoreux of the general land office, after examining into the question of approvals of land grants in the upper peminsula of Michigan to the Portage Lake & Lake Superior Ship Canal company, has decided that nearly 69,000 acres of land were erroneously approved to that company in 1868. These lands were listed as "mineral" prior the act making the grant to the company. As the granting act expressly excluded from its terms lands which had formerly been classed as "mineral," Commissioner Lamoreux holds that the approval was without authority of law. He recommends to Secretary Smith that suit be instituted to set aside the title of the company.

Phil Armour's Generosity.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.-It is learned that Philip D. Armour will give $500,000 to the San Francisco public schools for the establishment of a manual training school for boys. The only condition Mr. Armour makes is that the school shall be carried on under the school department and shall be open to any one eligible to the public schools. This generous endowment of a trade school is intended by Mr. Armour to serve as a memorial of his success in California in the pioneer days when he made money, which served as the nucleus of his fortune.

INVESTIGATING JENKINS.

Congressional Inquiry Into the Judge's Ruling Begins.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The congressional investigation into the course of United States Judge Jenkins in enjoining prominent labor leaders and Northern Pacific employes from counseling or taking part in a strike promises to have important developments. At the meeting of the house judiciary committee Chairman Culbert-son announced Representatives Boatner, Terry and W. A. Stone as the committee to investigate the matter. It was decided to notify Judge Jen-kins of the proposed investigation, and to leave it for him to suggest what course he desired to pursue, either in appearing in person or by counsel. It was also decided to notify all of the labor leaders and Northern Pacific employes who were named in the writs of injunction ssued by Judge Jenkins.

Mr. Boather wrote to Judge Jenkins Friday night. It is suggested to him in the letter that the committee is ready to hear from him either by the submission of papers or personally. Letters were also sent to the following officers of railway employes' associa-tions who had been enjoined from counseling a strike: Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, P. M. Arthur, G. C. E.; T. S. Ingraham, F. G. E., Arthur, G. C. E. T. S. Ingraham, F. G. E., Cleveland, O. Order of Railway Conductors, E. E. The subordinate employes of the road who were enjoined have also been no-tified of the investigation.

BIG MEN COMPARED.

Points of Difference Between Corbett and Peter Jackson.

NEW YORK, March 12 .- Peter Jackson was pronounced to be in good physical condition by Dr. John Wilson Gibbs, who made an examination of the pugilist Friday morning. The only thing that marred Jackson's condition was a slight cough due to an attack of the grip. Following is a comparison of the measurements of the two gladiators. Corbett's measurements were made shortly before his fight with Mitchell. Jackson's are those taken by Dr. Gibbs

One of the most noticeable things in the above comparison is the difference in the neck measurements of the men. Corbett has the better of it in the size of the biceps. Jackson has the larger chest and a greater expansion. The unusually long reach of the colored man is apparent from the figures. Corbett has always been considered to have a long reach, but it is nothing compared with Peter's. Jackson appeared to have fine shoulder development. The muscles started from his neck and stood out hard and firm.

DAN COUGHLIN TALKS. Says He Has No Guilty Knowledge of

How Cronin Met His Death CHICAGO, March 12.—Daniel Coughlin's acquittal at the hands of the second jury that tried him for complicity in the conspiracy to murder Dr. Cronin was the subject of general comment and criticism in the city. It is not going outside the fact to say that no verdict ever rendered by a jury in Cook county gave so much dissatisfaction to the majority of the public. In the comments made on the jury's action, adverse opinion was almost unanimous. Everywhere the same sentiment prevailed.

Concerning the murder of Dr. Cronin, Coughlin vehemently declared that he knew nothing whatever. He continued:

friend. It was simply an act of courtesy; yet it was used against me in the terrible charge for which I have been twice tried and which has brought suffering to myself and has brought suffering to myself and family. The only time I ever had anything to do with Dr. Cronin and his connection with the united brotherhood was nearly ten years ago. In 1885 charges were preferred against the doctor for falsely reporting some matters of interest to the brotherhood. A committee of five, of which I was a member, was named to hear the charges and pass upon them. Cronin then willingly admitted the truth of the charges, and suitable action was taken by the committee, which was unanimous in the decision presented. It was a district trial and all members were interested, and knew of the trouble. Although pleading guilty. Cronin never again spoke to me."
