The entrance of March on Tuesday regards weather was not typical of as regards weather washot typical of an angyr roaring line as, according to tradition, should have been the case to assure an early spring. The day was a gloomy one but no chill was in the wind nor was there rain or snow. Therefore we conclude the day being neither "line like" nor very "lamb like" that a compromise was planned and we shall have bainy days at the proper time, neither late nor early.

Spring is beginning to show up and on begin to want wall paper you will soon begin to want wall paper. We have just received our spring line of about 8000 rolls of new and latest, patterns from 34c to 35c per roll. Border to match and same price as the paper. Do not fall to see our line before you buy also have extra sample books of special patterns to select from. De your papering early and avoid the spring rush.
