EASTER SERVICES

Sunday Morning and Evening

The beautiful weather of Easter The beautiful weather of Easter sandy increased the attendance at all the church services and the churches here were well filled with worshipers. Extra energy had been put forth to make the "day-of days" an especial one in spirtual uplifting, so that our desires to leaf righteous lires might be intensified beyond the lenten season.

At the Salem church, owing to changes in the pastorate, only the regular Sunday services were held, with a view to making the approaching "children's day" unusually elabor-

METHODIST

The exercises at the Methodist church covered a trile more than an hour and were replete with good things from the beginning to the last number. Instead of the usual process numer. Instead of the usual pricess of program forming by a committee appointed for that purpose, the teacher of each of the 15 classes in the school was asked to provide for at least one number on the program, the selection being left to the class itself. The scheme was eminently successful and the peculiar tailent of each class brought forward.
