The most noticeable thing about Democratic attacks upon the Republican state administration is that meither figures nor facts are vited in support of the accurations.

Just for I'van now—can you name, off-hand, three candidates on the Democratic state ticket? You can't? Do you think men who are not big enough to be known are big enough to fill the several offices of this big state?

William J. Bryan some time ago de-clared that Parker's candidacy would begin with a foot race and end with a rout. And as Bryan still says that be has nothing to "take back," this prophecy may be considered as still good.

Every voter should remember that the most register if he would vote at the coming election. The registration every four pears is made anew, and all the old lists are discribed. Let every one who is entitled to vote see to it that his name goes on the registering book, that he may therethy be able to perform one of the most important du-ties of an American citizen, the ever-cise of the right of suffrage.

Senator Fairbanks, in his speech Chicago, added his urgent pleading for the election of a Republican congress. President Roosevelt was about as sur of election, he said, as any one well could be, but to give effect to his administration it must be supported by both branches of the national bouse Democratic majority in either branch would mean constant friction, and the business interests of the country would thereby be disturbed. He urged the goters of Chicago and of the other congressional districts of Illinois to send to Washington a delegation of con-gressmen who will sustain the presi-dent instead of antagonizing him.

The law abolishing contract labor in the lilinois state penitentiary, passed by the Republicans at a recent session of the general assembly, meets with the hearty approval of the labor or-ganizations of the state. It gives prom-ise, lesides, of being of considerable ganizations of the state. It gives prom-ise, besides, of being of considerable advantage to many of the convicts themselves, inasmuch as manufacturers who formerly held contracts in the penitentiary are disposed to give empenilentary are disposed to give em-ployment outside to men who former-ly worked for them in the prison. It is difficult for a mon who has "done time" to get a job when his sequence is served out, and the openings which these manufacturers offer to such men will be to them a vertiable god-send.

If Tom Targert does not soon cens if 1 om laggert does not soon came his repeated avowals that no friction exists at the national Democratic headquarters he will interest some one bendquarters he will interest some one sufficiently to bring about an investi-gation as to what is the real source of trouble there.

If some Democrat were to advance ne new principle of government or evolve some new policy of statesman ship instead of wasting his time plan-ning renewed attacks upon Republi-can statecraft would be be granted reectful consideration by his ow
