The decision of a recent case in the Police Court in the village shows that abusive language in the improper place will not be tolerated. The Police Magistrate says that there have come to him many complaints of boys "picking on" and "hurting" children at play for a town of six churches. There is immediate danger that the worst boys will be locked up.

The entertainment given by the Grades in the assembly room of the school was a decided success as far as numbers present was concerned. Standing room was at a premium long before the hour of opening was advertised. The pupils did even better than at the first performance given recently, and every one present enjoyed the high-class entertainment. A voluntary collection was taken which netted $14.84.

Ladies visiting Miss Jukes' grand opening of up-to-date millinery will see the finest line of ladies' trimmings and untrammelled hats ever shown in Barrington, including the famous Turbette hat, which is causing such a sensation and flurry among the fair sex; also the new creation, the Natty Palm Beach Sailor, with French and short back effects. Going to make a display equal to many city millinery stores, and at prices to suit all. Give her a call.

The chorus class by Prof. Stauchmann met Tuesday evening of this week at the M. E. church and was fully organized with 27 chapter members. Mr. Roy Waterman was chosen secretary and treasurer of the class. Regular sessions will be held on Tuesday and Friday evenings of each week at the M. E. church until other arrangements can be made. The W. R. C. met in their hall Saturday evening to hold memorial services for their esteemed comrade, Arthur Cook. A number of relatives and friends were present. The impressive ceremonies were begun by singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee," then followed the reading of the autobiography of his life. Arthur Cook was born at Stamford, Vt., Jan. 16, 1840, and came to Illinois with his parents in June of the same year. He lived at home until his country called for volunteers, when he, with quite a number of others, enlisted and was assigned to Co. B, 96th Illinois Infantry, on Aug. 9, 1862. After nearly 3 years of service, he was honorably discharged June 16, 1865. It can be said of him that he was never absent from roll call during all these years. He returned to his home here and took up farming on the old homestead where he lived the remainder of his life. He was married to Miss Laura E. Todd July 22, 1866, who, with five children survive him. It was through his efforts that the G. A. R. was organized here, Nov. 14, 1883, and he was the first commander. His death occurred March 3, 1906, and he was buried with the G. A. R. comrades from Waukegan and other places were present at the funeral and day "Small We Gather at the River."

The evening's ceremonies were closed by singing "America."
