THE BOYS WHO FOUGHT

nething About the Barringt Grand Army Post-Some Reminiscences.

Twenty-three years ago this June Post No. 275, Dept. of Ill., Grand Army of the Republic, was organized in Barrington with 15 charter bers as the charter in the half records. The men, comprising this orginating body, were all veterans, of course, but from many regiments. Their personnel was as follows: Christopher, Dickinson; Frank Hollister, Sr; M. E. Henderson; A. A. Glesson; Fredrick Hager; H. H. Church; Robert Parcell; Fredric Wiseman; A. S. Henderson; L. E. Runyan; Charles Senn; F. A. Lageschulte and John Harrower. The Post grew rapidly and a great interest was always shown in it by members until recent years when death, old age and illiess have forced a decrease in the attendance. As early correct as can be cathered from the records with the assistance of Lawson Elvidge, the total membership has been about 70. Among these names we find many with which we are very familiar and whom we see in person on our streets today. Those of us who were raised here will recall others who moved away, or passed beyond.

MARRIED AFTER 40 YEARS

Old Soldier Meets Former Sweet " Is Renewed.

The Waukegan Daily Sun of Saturday evening contained the following:
James Shreve aged 69, and Mrs. Minnie Kelloge, aged 60, of Palatine, Ill., went to Chicago and were married Saturday afteracon. The ceremony was the cumination of a courtship which had its origin before the outbreak of the civil, war, guilived another marriage by eache and finally was consummated when the former sweethearts met after forty years.

When the civil war broke out Mr. Shreve lived in a western Fennsylvania town. Miss Minnie Ncherer, aged 21, was his sweetheart. When the war broke out they were engaged. but Shreve enlisted and went to the front. The girl with her parents remered to Palatine, where all trace of her former sweetheart was lost.

When he returned and was mostered out of the service Mr. Shreve found no trace of Miss Nehrer. He removed to Illinois and was married.

At the last state convention of the G. A. R., Shreve met a comrade from Philadelphia, who invited him there for a visit. The invitation was accepted and hat Wednesday Shreve was introduced to Mrs. Kellogy, now a widow, was instantly recognized as the sweetheart of other days. Preparations for the marriage were made at once.
