The charge was made that 50 negroes had been killed here and that the local papers and the press associations were either being censored or were suppressing the facts. Every bit of information that could be gathered and verified has appeared in the local papers. The papers here have utilted in an agreement to print only established facts, to issue no more specials or extras on the riots and the agreement is being lived up to. Following the arrest of 257 negroes at Brownville, and Clark university early Tuesday and the detention of about 100 of these in the county Jail, the Yeeling prevailed that at least peace has been restored by a strong show of authority.

Insist Dives Be Closed.

The gathering of a large representation of business and professional men at noon called for vigorous action by the city executive authorities regarding negro dives and saloons. Resolutions demanded that these places be closed and kept closed perpetually. In these demands the leading negro clergymen of the city unite, promising their support of all measures for the common good and their influence with their own people. They asked the protection of the authorities for the innocent of their own race as for those of the whites. They were given a vote of thanks for the stand they had taken.
