THE BARRINGTON

REVIEW.

PALATINE, ILLINOIS. FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1906.

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Notice is hereby given that I will be found at the Barrington Iank every found at the Barrington Iank every Wednesday and Saturday of each week until March 10th to collect taxes. All taxes muss be paid by March 10th. SEEPHEN PALMER, Tax Collector of Barrington Township, Cook County, Illinois.

church auditorism and was in com-memoration of Lincoln's life and death. Mrs. Wm. Howarth, the ven-erable president of the club, presided with the case and dignity of a woman accustomed to lead, introducing the numbers in a simple cogniting man-accompanied him in brautiful accord with maske in itself, a solo to be uponed. When make it makes to make a more a duction of Sunshine, "played by "Dream of Sunshine," played by "Brown of Sunshine," played by "Gille a "Brown of Sunshine," and with "Laring the spirit shown in educating them along artistic lines that talent may be secured in the club families, indicating the real interest existent in the light in education and progress.

The lecture given by Mr. Henry Rathbone of Chicago on Abraham Lincoln is one of the finest delivered on this much chosen subject. The opportunity afforded those present in hear the words of an eloquent and widely informed man on a topic fitting to the time and always of interest to patricular Americans, was presented by the Timersday chus to their friends, through especial favor and was valued by each lictence. Mr. Rathbone is particularly able to gill before the progress of the works of an eloquent and widely informed man on a topic fitting to the time and always of interesting to the time and always of interesting to the progress of the progress of

The Barrington Woman's Thurstage of the Woman's Thurstage club and the general college of the Woman's thing to the Woman's thing the state of the Morting to the Woman's thing to the Woman's Club Entertained Guests

Friday of Last Week.

The development in this vicinity of club life for woman was demonstrated and index progress and several sincerity with a desire to think high and worthly ask Friday afternoon at the first an mual "Guest Day" of the Woman's Librage, the librage, the librage, the librage work of the Martington Woman's club and the general copies of the Martington Woman's club and the general copies of the Woman's club, thirteen and duling rown chairs, bed-acceptance resulted in a large attends ance, nearly filling the clurch. The moderate librage is the work of the Woman's club, thirteen from the Arlington club, therety-seen footeses of the Thursday club and therefore the Woman's club, thirteen from the Arlington club, therety-seen footeses of the Thursday club and the general college of the Woman's club, thirteen from the Woman's club, thirteen work of the wo A mystery hangs over the town
Which baths and defies running down.
A creature appears at midfulght in black
A creature appears at midfulght in black
A-romaining the streets—similes list track—
Whether man or woman it is not known.
The street will be the street in the creature here.
But none can prove their words, it is clear.
But none can prove their words, it is clear.
But none can prove their words, it is clear.
But none can prove their words, it is clear.
But none can prove their words, it is clear.
But the story is not yet,
But less the story is now,
But less the sto

church auditorium and was in commemoration of Lincoln's He and death. Mrs. Wm. Howarth, the venerable president of the cluts, pecisided with the case and dignity of a woman accustomed to lead, introducing the numbers in a simple engaling manner.

Mr. Walter Scars opned the program with a violius old. He charmed, without exception, his listeners with the case and dignity of a woman accustomed to lead, introducing the numbers in a simple engaling manner.

Mr. Walter Scars opned the program with a violius old. He charmed, without exception, his listeners with the case and daily that few possessions of the program of Sunshine," played by Mrs. Scarge of the program of Sunshine," played by Mrs. Scarge of the program of Sunshine," played by Mrs. Scarge of the program of Sunshine," played by Mrs. Scarge of the program of Sunshine," played by Mrs. Scarge of the program of Sunshine," played by Mrs. Scarge of the program of Sunshine," played by Mrs. Scarge of the program of Sunshine," played by Mrs. Scarge of the program of Sunshine," played by Mrs. Scarge of the program of Sunshine," played by Mrs. Scarge of the program of Sunshine," played by Mrs. Scarge of the program of Sunshine," played by Mrs. Scarge of the program of Sunshine, and the program of Sunshine, and the program of the p al Shower Tendered Mica Flat Costello at the Home of Mrs. F. O. Wilmarth

F. O. Wilmarth

The matrons and malits of St. Ann's parish gathered at the home of Mrs. Frank Wilmarth Monday excessing to attend a bridge stope by Missen Neille Doulea and Rose Volker to Mass Elsle Coastelly, whose marriage to Mr. Arthur Smith of Corona, Canada, is approaching. The guests numbered about twenty-fire, cach offering some article in token of friendship for the young lady, who in the residence of five years here, has made and retained many friends to the gifts were received, also, until a fair start towards home-keeping was reached. Misse and a game in which Miss Genevieve Dolan excelled lent amusements with the serving of a nice little lunciron.

A pure of twenty dollars was given nice little luncheon.

A purso of twenty dollars was given ber also as a present from some of the parishioners for lier faithful work as church organist.

ADVERTISED LETTERS

The following letters remain un-claimed in the Barrington Post Office for week ending Feb. 23, 1906:

S B. Gaines, Edward Herfort, Samie Heckendorn, J. W. Howard, Harry W. Halin, Rudolph Heft, H. K. BROCKWAY, P. M.

THE SCHOOL'S HONOR ROLL

Those Neither Tardy Nor Absen During the Month-What the Pupils Are Doing.

Pupils who have been neither tardy nor absent and whose deportment has been satisfactory during the month ending Feb. 2, 1996;

school.
Alta Powers
Win Grunan
Walter Cannon
Walter Cannon
Vennie Loouth
Emma Schiede
Emma Schiede
Emma Schiede
Litzle Brandtij
TH GRADE
Arthur Moorhous
Newton Plagge
Litzle Mrade
Litzle Rruger
Mina Kirmee
Poarl Wilner
GRADE
Loura Nacher

REMEMBER THEIR FRIEND. A NEW SOCIETY IS FORMED

A Local Branch of the National Co-Operative Burial Association to be Launched in Barrington.

The National Observative Burial Association of Barrington is a new institution to promote the welfare of the unbrothunates. It is strictly a home institution, and the first years' directorate and officers include some of the beading business men of the city of the strictly of the product of ber an assessment of 10 cents will be made.

As last year's mortuary record shess that only alwait twenty deaths occurred, it can readily be seen that the assessments will be few and far between. It is the cheapest insurance in time of need that can be secured. Each member, at the time of death, is entitled to 3000 for funceral expenses, over 11 years, and 500 for ages under eleven years. Books will be upseed at E. M. the place of business of the officers, and This Review office.

Closing-Out Auction Sale of Dairy Cows.

Closing-out Auction Sale of Dairy Cows.

On the Dunning dairy farm, two and a buff miles seat off latrington, III., on Tuesday, Feb. 37, 1004, commercing at 10 o'clocks am, will occur the closing out sale of dairy cows, so head of dairy cows. This herd consists of many due grade Holsteink; some Short Horse, and some Grade Green's Miles and State British and Short Holsteink; some Short Horse, and some Grade Green's All will be sold, as the herd must be disposed of. Holstein Stock Bull. 33 tons of claver lay, 30 shocks of commercial sources of the sold o

Baltimos of College on Alchebra of the College of the Colleg