cracked, infamed, and bad, swollen, with terrible burning and itching. When I think of his suffering, it nearly breaks my heart. His screams could be heard downstafrs.
The suffering of my son made me full of misery. I had no ambition to work, to eat, nor could I sleep,
One doctor told me that my son's
eccema was incurable, and gave it up for a bad job, One evening I saw an article in the paper about the wonderful Cuticura and decided to give it a

Imitations have been placed upon the market so closely resembling All-cock's Plasfers in general appearance as to be well calculated to deceive. It is, however, in general appearance, for they are not only lickling in the best elements which have made All-cock's so efficient, but are often harmful in their effects. Remember that Allcock's are the original and only genuing, porcous plasters—the best external remedy known—and when purchassing plasters the coly safe way is to always insist upon having Allcock's.

Economy as the Boy Saw It.
Paul Morton, in a recent address on economy:

That would not be an economy, but an extravagance, in the long run. It reminds me of the boy and the fam.

"My son," said this boy's mother, 'inn't it rather an extravagance to est butter with that superb fam."

"No, ma'am, it's an economy, the boy answered. The same piece of bread does for both."
