This is a great country for growing all kinds of vegetables and we are certainly anjoring our garden. The flavor of the green pean is especially of them, and we have enjoyed them up to the fresh crop.

I am sorry I did not have time this past season to attend to transplanting trees, but will heep the land I had prepared worked up for next season's planting. I received a maiber of small trees (sain and maple) from the Government Experimental Parm as Indias at the garden and they are doing fine. I also received quits a lot of their seeds, costs, wheat, postatoes and rabustroots which were acceptable.

It is useless for us to bother with garden flowers as wild once grow in production. We are located dear a fine creek, the wither of which is soft and fine for betting and washing.
