The ball game Saturday between the local Y. M. C. A. and the Pilcher Hamiltons of Chicago resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 5 to 1. Both teams played good ball throughout the game. The visitors held the lead for the first few innings and it locked as though it would be a close game until our boys brought in five scores in the fourth, which placed them four to the good. The rest was eav.

Ninetsen Heur Days.

"Our hours," said a nature student, "are nothing to the birds. Why, some birds, work in the summer mineten haurs a day. Inderstigably they clear the crays of insects. The thrush gets up at 2:30 every summer morating. He roils up his sleeves and falls to work at once. And he never stops till 0:30 at night. A clean nineteen hours. During that time be feeds his veracious young 200 times. The blackbird hatarts work at the same time as the thrush, but he lays of ceriler. His whistle blows at 7:30, and during his seventeen hour day he sets about 100 meals before his kiddles. The titmouse is up and shout by 3 in the morning, and his stopping time is 0 at night. A fast worker, the titmouse is ended to even the form of the product of the second of the prints.

Jay Gould's Millions.

Jay Gould's millions were at one time in danger. It was in 1873, and their fats depended upon the fluctuations in the gold masket. Gould saw his presentous position in times, and so enormous was his power and indisease that he maneuvreed himself out of the difficulty. In fact, when it was over he was wealther than ever. About len years after this happened there were dark rumors about his affairs, and it was hinted that the great Gould was not what he was supposed to be in a pecuniary sense. He disposed off these doobts in a very simple men nee. He invited a number of gentlement to his private Office, and when they arrived he laid on the table before them for examination certificates of steed in his own name to the value of the control of
