A bigamist in Britain is said to have married 500 times. And yet, so stub-born is tradition, they will probably continue, in England, to give the paim of brayery to Nelson and Gordon.

Another well-known French writer on international politics declares that war between the United States and Japan is inevitable. Couldn't we get the French to let, us have peace if we paid them well for it?

The World almanac gives the stand-ing army of Japan as 220,000, figures indicating that a great part of it is in the United States acting as sples and getting arrested to help out the poor, but deserving, newspaper correspond-ents.

According to a St. Louis physician no scientific practitioner of medicine recognizes any such disease as the grippe. But it is pretty safe to suppose that they get rather angry if their bill for its treatment is not recognized.

Clear Cut Decision Made by Judge Thompson at Charleston.

Charleston.—The only federal juriat ever under indictment in a crimtant case, Peter S. Grosseup, was freed from that position when Judge Thompson denounced the action of the Coles county grand jury in holding the directors of the Mattoon City rallway liable for the deaths of 18 persons in a wreek on their line as unjustified in a sweeping oral opinion, based upon broad and general grounds as well as upon legal faults, he quashed all the indictments against the officers and directors of the corporation.

Because of technical errors Judge Thompson also discharged the two motormen who were in control of the life their care; but because of the public description of the control of the legal issues as to threat or the public legal issues as to the control of the legal issues as to the control of the legal issues as to the care to the public their release is regarded as the most important phase of the decision.
