Mr. and Mrs. George Wunder left Wednesday for Libertyville where Mr. Wunder will oversee construction work for two weeks and then they will settle in Englewood. Mr. Wunder had been in charge of the building on the H. Miller farm, west of town, since last summer.

There will be an entertainment and basket social at the White school Friday night, April 10th, which should draw a crowd, as Miss Alta Powers, the teacher, has made a great effort to plan a good program. Among the numbers will be a minstrel show in which the older children will appear.

William Burling of Chicago has purchased of H. M. Hawley his farm, consisting of 180 acres of land in Cuba township and all the stock and farming tools and implements. It is considered one of the finest farms in this section of the state. R. C. Mills expects to move onto the farm. Mr. Hawley has leased the Wm. Hager residence in this village.

The monthly business meeting of the Epworth League of the Methodist church took place at the residence of William Ison Tuesday evening where some forty people were present with an amusing evening. Business was finished and then games, music and supper were tasteful. Several helped to entertain the guests and were Misses J. Lewis, Elsie, A. Plagge, Allen, Pennington, R. Bennett and R. Horn.

At the Majestic.

"Chico" Loftus who is recognized as one of the greatest attractions on any stage, will be the headline feature at the Majestic Theatre, Chicago, for the week of April 6th, on which occasion she will give for the first time in Chicago vaudeville her new and original imitations in which she is confessedly without a peer. She will introduce a number of those striking impersonations which have made her famous around the world. Miss Jessie Wynn, perhaps the most charming singer at present on the stage is not only beautiful but vocally superior to nearly all her class present a number of her attractive songs. The Hengler Sisters will add to this bouquet of beauty and talent, presenting the dances which have made them famous. By way of comedy with musical accompaniment the noted Jack Gardiner will present an interlude well worth hearing, while Smith and Campbell in a conversational melange of fun are certain to keep things moving while they are on the stage. Henry Horton and company have an entertaining sketch, while the Four Parrots introduce a brilliant acrobatic feature, and Gertrude Mandfield, whose name suggests high art, plays the "Girl with the Red Kimono," which suggests raucy comedy.

Husband—I say, my dear, such luck! I've engaged two maids for you to-day.

Wife—Whatever did you get two for? We only want one.

Husband—Ah, that's just it. One is coming tomorrow and the other in a week's time.

Mrs. Stubb—John, what in the world are you doing with those boxing gloves in one hand and the remnants of dinner in the other?

Mr. Stubb—Maria, there is a tramp downstairs who says he is looking for scraps. I want to be certain which kind he means.

Death Was on His Heels.

Josee P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the spring of 1908. He says: An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world. Sold under guarantee at Barrington Pharmacy. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Mrs. John Robertson entertained the Thursday club at her beautiful home this week.

Mrs. Laura Hawley had charge of the program which consisted of a song by the club, music, instrumental and vocal by Mrs. Maud Robertson. Mrs. Weichert sang in her usual pleasing manner and Mrs. Spinner read clippings from "The Transfiguration of Miss Philana." Mrs. Maud Robertson proved to have the best knowledge of musical terms and received a laurel wreath and a box as a prize. Luncheon was served and covers laid for twenty.
