The satary or the average school (secher is $40 a month, of $300 a year. She can work only nine months and must remain fiels for three months in each year. The salary of the average cook is $7 a week, or $364 a year. The cook is in greater demand than the school teacher. She earns twice as much, for she receives her board, and good board, too, in ad-dition to her salary. She has her nights off, while the teacher must work nights as well as days to handle her examination papers and get up her work for the coming day's lessons. I tell you the world is wrong.

Nature's Hints of Immontality

If the Father deigns to touch with di-vine power the cold and pulseless heart of the buried acorn, and make it burst forth from its prison walls, will He leave neglected in the earth the soul of man, wh was ed in the earth the soul of man, who was made in the image of his Creator? If He stops to give to the rose-bush whose with-ered blossoms float upon the breeze sweet assurance of another apringtime, will He withhold the words of hope from the sons of nice when the frosts of winter come? by will be defined and index of the irreds of white come? If matter, much and insinites, though changed by the forces of nature into a multi-thanged by the forces of nature into a multi-tude of forms, can never die, will the imperi-al spirit of, man suffer annihilation after it has paid a briet visit, like a royal guest, to this tenement of clay? Rather let us believe that He who, in his ap-parent prodigality, wastes not the raindrop, the blade of grass, or the evening's sighing zephyr, but makes them all to carry out its eternal plans, has given im-mortality to the montal, and gathered to himself the spirits of our Yieneds. Instead of mourning; let us look up and address our departed in the words of the next: the poet:
