

BARRINGTON REVIEW

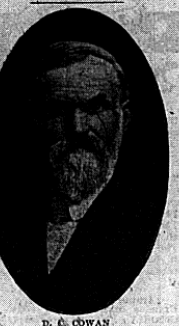

VOL. 24, NO. 20.

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, FRIDAY, AUGUST 7, 1908

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

The Prayer of the Nation.

Cook, give us men! A time like this demands strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands.
Men whom the tempt of office does not kill;
Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
Men who possess opinions and a will;
Men who have honor and will not lie;
Men who can stand before a denunciation
And score his treacherous fatherless without winking.
Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog
To public duty and in private thinking.
Primary day, Saturday, August 8. Polls are open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Voting places: Barrington, Village hall; Cuba, Lamey building.

D. C. COWAN

To the voters of the Eighth Senatorial District:
By the request of some of the leading citizens of Barrington, vote for:
D. C. COWAN
of Poplar Grove for Representative on the 8th of August, 1908. He is worthy of your support.

Smith for Lieutenant Governor.
Frank L. Smith's name appears on the republican primary ticket the last one under the heading of "For Lieutenant Governor."

Frank L. Smith would be much the stronger on the party ticket this fall of any candidate mentioned.
Frank L. Smith has been endorsed by the republican organization of Cook county, Mayor Fred. Busse, Senators Cullom and Hopkins, Speaker Cannon and republican congressmen in Illinois, the 17th congressional district, the 16th senatorial district, many representative citizens, and now asks the most important endorsement.

Vote for Frank L. Smith at the primaries August 8 and you will make no mistake.

Was Well Attended.

Waukegan's fourth annual holiday, known as Waukegan Day, which was celebrated Monday of this week, was attended by about 15,000. All business was stopped and everyone spent an enjoyable day. People attended from all over Lake County and villages in southern Wisconsin. Speeches were made by Senator Hopkins, Richard Yates, George Edmond Foss, Senator of Mason and others.

"His Dreamland." John E. Owens spectacular extravaganza, was presented to 4,000 people to performances taking place, which were capable and interesting.

In spite of the hot weather the day was a success.

Camp Meeting.

The United Evangelical church holds its thirty-first annual camp-meeting on the grounds of the Barrington Park Association, Barrington, Friday, August 21st to Monday, August 24th. Among the ministers who will be present are Rev. W. C. Wakefield of Louisville, Kentucky, a united evangelist; Rev. M. C. Morlock, who is presiding elder of the Chicago district and Bishop R. D. D. D. 1908, by the respective parties will be as follows: Republican party, white; Democratic party, tan; Prohibition party, light blue; Socialist party, pink.
Dated the 21st day of July, A. D. 1908.

ALBERT L. HENDERSON,
County Clerk.

Was a Close Game.

The Barrington Y. M. C. A. ball team won an exciting game last Saturday by the score of 8 to 7. To-morrow they play the P. Buttiner team of Chicago.

Olson's Residence.

The "political rot" that has been published and circulated throughout this district by "Ed" Shurtliff and L. E. Mench, in reference to the residence of Hon. A. J. Olson, of this city, ought to disgust even the most ardent supporters of this pair, who have inseparably linked their political (mis) fortunes.

Admitting every claim made by both, Mr. Olson is clearly entitled to qualify, as the constitution provides that the only residence qualification is two years at the time of the election.

It can be proven by every person who has lived in the city of Woodstock or surrounding country during the past five years, that ever since the spring of 1903 Mr. and Mrs. Olson have been actual residents of this city, and that neither have, during said time, had, or pretended to have, any other home, residence or domicile.

It can be easily proven that for ten years prior to that time they lived in the same house (in which they are now living) eight or nine months of each year, only going to Chicago to spend a few of the winter months.

The campaign methods of Mench and Shurtliff are not such as should be used by men running for the honorable positions they are seeking.

Shurtliff had no business to mix up in the Olson-Mench fight.

Since he has told the voters of the district that they must elect Mench over Olson, and that if Mench is beaten he (Shurtliff) prefers to be also, the voters will probably take him at his word, as it is a foregone conclusion that Mr. Olson (not Mench) will be nominated by an overwhelming majority.—Woodstock Republican, July 31, 1908.

Shurtliff a Candidate.

To the Republicans of the Eighth Senatorial District: I desire to announce that I shall be a candidate for the lower house of representatives of the general assembly from the Eighth senatorial district, subject to the Republican primaries to be held August 8, 1908. In the forty-fourth general assembly, 1905, and the forty-fifth general assembly, 1907—in substantially four sessions—the Eighth senatorial district and McHenry county have had the honor and influence of holding the speakership of the lower house. How fairly or how poorly have I filled that position. I can only leave to the judgment of others upon the record and to the opinion of those who have served in the house. That there is a very good opportunity for the Eighth senatorial district and McHenry county to fill the position of speaker in the lower house for a third successive term, and that it is the request of many of the present members who are candidates for re-election, are the causes of my candidacy at the present time. If elected, I shall vote upon the question of the United States senatorship as instructed by the Republicans of this district, in the primaries of August 8.

Very respectfully,
EDWARD D. SHURTLIFF.

Asks for Renomination.

To the Republicans of the Seventh Senatorial District:
I am grateful to the republicans of the Seventh District for their generous support in the past. For the last two sessions of the General Assembly I have tried to do my whole duty as a representative for the best interests of the people regardless of party. I am now asking for a renomination. I believe my past experience will help me to serve the district better than before. I am not conscious of being less a man mentally or morally than I was when first elected to the House. I believe that if again elected I will be a better and more useful servant than I have been before. To prove this my earnest endeavor if re-elected.

Hoping that the voters of my party will approve my record and request my further services, I respectfully submit my candidacy to their decision on August 8th.

LOUIS J. PIERSON.

For Sore Feet.

"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burns, sores, cuts, and all manner of abrasions," writes Mr. W. Stone, of East Poland, Maine. It is the proper thing too for piles. Try it! Sold under guarantee at the BARRINGTON PHARMACY, 25c.

Toll Traffic Increases.

It is a notable fact that the telephone toll has increased during hard times. This demonstrates the value of the toll service in saving money as well as time in making a trip to Chicago. Chicago Telephone Company.

THE COUNTY BOARD

A Splendid Record of Business Ability and Official Integrity.

FACTS FOR COOK COUNTY VOTERS

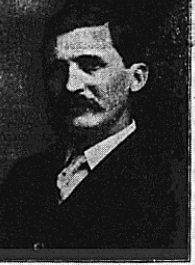

President Busse is Head and Shoulders Above all Rivals.

The two million citizens of Cook County should be supremely interested in the election of the next Board of Cook County Commissioners. For it is the Board of Directors of the people of Cook county. The people are the stockholders, but the board "delivers the goods." Millions of dollars are spent every year in conducting the business of the city and county, and this vast expenditure should be made economically and with the best business judgment.

And this is what the County Board has done for the past eight years. It has made a record for business ability and official integrity which deserves the highest commendation which can come from faithfully served and appreciative people.

So much has been done by President Busse and his faithful co-workers that it is not possible to mention details of their work.

No private corporation would think of changing its president or board of directors after it had realized the results achieved by the present County Board. The stockholders would not fail to re-elect the old board.

Mr. Busse is a candidate for the nomination for President of the County Board on the Republican ticket at the primary election on August 8. His record should assure his nomination.

Every business man who thinks the county's affairs ought to be managed on business lines and every friend of the unfortunate poor and afflicted ought to vote for President Busse to succeed himself and for every member of the present board who is a candidate for re-election.

Baptist Sunday School Picnic.

The Baptist Sunday school picnic was held Thursday at the home of J. Whitney on the south bank of Lake Zurich. Each year this invitation is extended and gladly accepted for the Whitney lawn is beautiful and shady and the home a most hospitable one to visit.

The ladies, children and a few gentlemen numbered about fifty and a long day of rest, or amusements, was passed. Two little boys and a lady fell in near the Whitney landing.

On the trip over, when near the lake, a bus containing twenty young ladies, with Louis Schumacher as driver, barely escaped a serious accident.

One of the rear wheels suddenly collapsed and was completely smashed, but as it did not fall off, let the box down easily and no one was hurt. Beyond fright at what might have happened, the girls were unharmed and walked the short distance remaining; the driver drove home and his arrival caused a little apprehension until the extent of the accident was learned.

Ralph J. Dady
of Whitney & Dady

Republican Candidate for the Nomination for State's Attorney

Primaries Saturday, August 8th, 1908. TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF LAKE COUNTY:

I would like to meet every voter of Lake County personally, but as this is practically impossible, I take this way of appealing to you to support me in my candidacy, if you feel you can conscientiously do so.

The primary election on August 8th will be a direct primary, and the candidate receiving the highest number of votes in the ENTIRE COUNTY will be the nominee of his party.

There are certain offenders who know what the law is, but willfully violate it; as to such persons, my policy will be, if elected, an uncompromising prosecution to the end, to the best of my skill and ability.

As to many others, the State's Attorney is vested by law with a discretion to temper the prosecution or not, as circumstances seem to him to require; as to offenders of this character, I intend myself to so conduct the affairs of the office that the public welfare shall be my guiding motive, and I will never, under any circumstances, offer a shield to crime.

If a work I will ever strive to conduct the office to prompt obedience to, and respect for the law.

Respectfully,
RALPH J. DADY

Smother

Recommender Pierson.

To the Republican of the Seventh Senatorial District:
The undersigned, residents of the Seventh Senatorial District and constituents of Honorable Louis J. Pierson desire to recommend him to Republican voters for renomination to the House of Representatives, at the coming primary election on August 8th.

His Chairmanship of the Committee on Banks and Banking establishes his high standing in the General Assembly, and his efforts in favor of sane and conservative banking laws met with our unqualified approval.

We believe the interests of the district will be best served by his renomination and re-election.

Respectfully submitted,
July 24, 1908.

OUR NEXT SENATOR

It Will be Almost Unanimous.

Will Carry All Three Counties.

WILL SWEEP THE DISTRICT

Shurtliff Will Probably Be Left at Home For His Attack on Olson.

No one can be found in this vicinity, who does not predict the nomination of Honorable A. J. Olson of Woodstock, for State Senator, by the Republicans of this district, on Saturday, August 8th.

Mr. Olson has made the most vigorous campaign ever known in this Senatorial District. While it has been vigorous, it has been clean, honest and fair, and no mud-slinging was injected into this campaign until it was started by one of his opponents.

He has answered every charge, but if everything charged was true, Mr. Olson is competent to be nominated and can legally qualify when elected.

Mr. Shurtliff is a lawyer and if there had been any ground whatever he would have kept Mr. Olson's name from being put on the primary ballot.

The voters of this community do not like the methods used by Shurtliff and Mench, and without knowing it they have made votes for Olson.

Let every Republican be sure and attend the primaries on Saturday, August 8th, and vote, and vote right.

Under the present primary law the voters are delegates, and make their own nomination, and it will be shown when the ballots are counted that they have taken advantage of the opportunity, and it is safe to say that the November ticket will bear the name of Honorable A. J. Olson of Woodstock for State Senator.

REFUSE SUBSTITUTES

Woman's Vanity

By PROF. EMILE DE LAVELETTE.

UNITY and the love of fine clothes which it engenders are marked among the savages who tattoo themselves before putting on garments, and they become more refined in civilized man in what is called society. But a higher state of culture and the growing empire of reason temper them and give them a less evil direction. Formerly men as well as women wore brilliant stuffs and ribbons, laces, and jewels, and it is still the custom in China and among savage peoples. But since the beginning of this century civilized nations have borrowed from England the black suit of the Quaker. For a man to wear diamonds, even as shirt buttons, is considered bad taste. Simplicity, extreme neatness, and cleanliness constitute the whole of masculine elegance.

Women, on the other hand, still love to pierce their ears to hang from them certain stones, or to surround their neck with beads or small pieces of metal, as in the isles of the Pacific or in the days of prehistoric man. Every year they seek some new mode of rendering their garments more inconvenient and more costly.

How shall we set about curing this infirmity, this relic of primitive barbarism? Stewart Neill tells us in his book on the condition of woman: "Give her such instruction as will set her at work in the matters of mind, and, like the modern man, she will cease to find pleasure in feathers and finery." A chimera, do you say? Feminine vanity is an incurable cure? I do not believe a word of it. Christianity wrought this miracle among the Quakers and in the monasteries; why should it not be wrought to-day by the same of justice allied to the culture of reason?

If the black dress coat has taken the place of the silken garments and trimmings of lace why should not a similar change be wrought in the costume of women? Throughout the whole period of classical antiquity were they not content with the linen tunic and the chlamys of fine wool? As luxury in this instance has its root in vanity, what we need is to change the current of opinion. If public opinion were sufficiently enlightened to understand that luxury is a thing barbarous, infantile, immoral, and, above all, wrong, the woman who to-day dresses herself in costly clothes in order to please and be imposing would content herself with being beautiful or pretty at a slight cost, which is certainly the most charming fashion of so being.

Nobility of Work America's Strength

By VICTOR G. FAYENEL.
Best French Writer.

By honoring the holy law of work more than any other people, America keeps its strength and moral health. The self-satisfaction which at times amuses foreigners is not, in an American, charlatanry or boasting; it is the convinced optimism of a man who believes in success through trying. Pasteur used to say that "to make the maximum of effort in this life is to attain the object of life." That, without the formula—the American cares naught for formulas—is the ideal of the citizen of the United States.

What saves the American proletariat from discontent and bitterness is not its material welfare, but its mental state. It is not the five or ten additional francs per day which the workman earns, but his dream of fortune, which he always cherishes, though he infrequently sees it realized. To know that he may succeed and to wish passionately to do so is sufficient to keep him keyed up to success, insensible to setbacks.

The bricklayer, building his brick wall, looks without bitterness on the man bound to his office in an automobile motor car. Wealth alone cannot create classes in this country where nobody has possessed it long, where many lose it after once getting it, and where, most especially, everybody hopes to acquire it some day. It never occurs to an American that insurmountable barriers can exist between individuals, and that a miner who became rich yesterday is not the equal of a miner who became rich 30 years ago, as long as both of them wear the same equally valuable pearl buttons on their shirt fronts and know enough to take off their hats when they are in an elevator with ladies.

Good Roads a Factor in Trade

By EDWARD H. GROSS,
Secretary Farmers' Good Roads League.

Country merchants do not fully appreciate what an important part good roads play in their business. Let any town improve its roads out five or six miles and it will draw trade that hitherto had gone to neighboring towns. People move along the line of least resistance. A farmer will travel five miles over good roads rather than three miles over bad ones; he can go quicker and haul twice the load.

The following quotation from the Valley City, North Dakota, Record, of June 25, is significant:

"One of the towns in the northern part of the state a few years ago discovered that trade was leaving it and the farmers were marketing their grain at another town, making their deposits in the banks of the other town and largely buying their supplies there. The people of the losing town began an investigation as to the cause and found the merchants of the town which was securing the trade were not able to offer bargains equal to the other. The price of grain was no better, the banks were no safer and the distance was against the successful town. When these conditions were found people began to look elsewhere for the cause. Inquiry among farmers disclosed the fact that because of the bad condition of the roads leading to the unsupported town the farmers could haul only three-fourths as much of a load to it as to the other town, consequently it lost its trade."

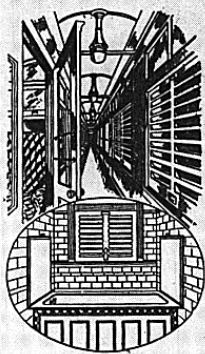

There is no fact established in business that is any more certain than that good roads help trade. They shorten distances to market, promote business and enhance values and make life better worth living. Good roads are an indication of the intelligence, prosperity and industry of any community.

FINEST TRAIN IN INDIA

In Some Respects It Has Advantages Over Those of America.

The American has long been taught, and perhaps rightly so, that the United States is the real home of the railroad, but a passenger train has just been placed in service in India by the side of which the finest passenger train in this country would not have the advantage, as far as comfort for travelers are concerned.

Chief among the special features of this train, which runs between Calcutta and Bombay, are the bathrooms. There are three of these in each first-class coach, or corridor saloon, as they are called. The tops of the basins are almost on a level with the floor and are provided with hinged covers to keep out dust and dirt. The floors are tiled with elegant encaustic tiles and the sides are paneled to the window sills in a glass sash of life of dark shade.

The train consists of two composite baggage and third-class coaches, three first-class coaches, and a dining car. The first-class coaches are 63 feet long, 10 feet wide and 9 feet high. Each car is divided into four compartments with four berths to each, and an additional stateroom at one end. The seats and berths are upholstered in dark green moiré. At intervals throughout the entire train are electric fans which keep the air in circulation. In the illustrations are shown the neat wood bunks which protect travelers from the scorching sun.—Popular Mechanics.

ENGINEER'S TAME SPARROW.

Has a Fondness for Railroad Men—His Quirky Meeting Place.

Jim is the name of a sparrow which is the pet of the engine drivers and firemen at one of the railroad centers in the north of Scotland.

He was hatched within the noisy precincts of a busy locomotive stable, but falling out of the nest before he was fully feathered, was placed in a cage and tenderly cared for in the railroad office. On the third day he began to be friendly, and in a very short time was flying all over the room, and even allowed himself to be petted.

In fact, he quickly became so tame that one day when his owner (the local railroad engineer) was writing, he flew onto his hand and quietly fell asleep, and when about six months old, he accompanied him on his daily rounds among the engines in the yard, perched jauntily on his shoulder, or hopping contentedly by his side.

He chooses very quiet places for his nests, the oddest and most awkward so far being the inside breast coat pocket of his owner, whom he would follow wherever he went, stuffing the selected pocket with miscellaneous nesting material. Jim is now six years of age.—Animals' Friend.

An Up-to-Date Car.

A new car has just been put into commission on the Monongahela and Conemaugh divisions of the Pennsylvania railroad. It has a fine shower bath, the first to be installed in any car of its kind in the United States. There are six sleeping cots of gleaming brass, and the interior of the car looks like an armory, for it has a complete set of the latest "shooting arms," calculated to discourage the offering of bribes to the servant in uniform. There is a burglar-proof safe, which only time can unlock when set. The banking end of the coach can be converted at will into an observation parlor and an elegantly appointed superintendent's office.—Philadelphia Record.

Railroad Attracts Skunks.

A locomotive engineer remarked the other day that he never made a run in his life at night that he did not strike several skunks. For some reason the skunks are attracted to the railroad track, and when the locomotive thunders along at night the rays of the headlight blind the little pests, and they are ground to death under the wheels. The engine driver very immediately knows when a skunk has been struck. Most engineers are very superstitious and have a "sign" about skunks. If they find a skunk killed without striking one they believe an accident is due.—Atchison Globe.

JOHN HENRY ON THE COUNTRY HOTEL

BY GEO. V. HOBART, ("HUGH M'WHUG")

Dear Bunch: I'm doing a hotfoot over the state for the insurance company. I've hooked up with, and I'm having the time of my life—believe me not.

Say, aren't some of these Reub bachelors the worst I met!

I blew into the Commercial house at Spoonbury day before yesterday, and the hotel clerk, certainly stated me to a fine bundle of home-made laughs.

Did you ever make Spoonbury, Bunch? It's on the map, all right. Spoonbury is a railroad junction where careless people change cars and wait for the other train.

I fell for this "change cars" gag and went over to the Commercial house to kill time.

"It was deep in conversation with Steve Splevin, the hotel clerk, when an old guy with Persian rug trimmings on the end of his chin squeezed up and began to let a peep out of him about the pie he had eaten for dinner. "Calm yourself!" said Steve Splevin, "and tell me where it bit you."

Steve was still blowing keys at the wall for some time, and he knows how to burn the beavers.

"Bit me! bit me!" snarled the old guy with the tapestry chin-piece; "nothing of the kind, sir! I want you to know, sir, that your pie isn't fit to eat. Sit out!" suggested Steve.

"Sit out! sit out! how can I sit out when I've eaten it, sir? It's an out-pie, I assure you. Sit out this hotel to-morrow," said Omar Khayyam.

"With the exception of $31.72, balance due, that will be about all from you," said Steve.

"I'll see the proprietor," said the old guy, moving away with a face on him like four dollars in bad money.

"We get it good and plenty every day," said Steve, and just then something about six feet tall, wearing a slouch hat and a gilt mustache for against the counter, grabbed the register and buried a stub pen in its pages.

After looking over the result, I decided the stranger's first name must be Skate, because it looked like one on the register.

"Bath?" queried Steve.

"Only during a hot wave," said Skate.

Steve went to the ropes, but he came out smiling, as usual.

"American or European?" asked Steve.

"Neither," said Skate. "Don't you see I'm from Jersey City?" answered Skate. "You just push me into a stall and lock the gate—I'm tired."

"Front show this gentleman to 481!" said Steve, side-stepping to avoid bumping.

Then Sweet William, the Boy Drummer, hopped into the ring for the next round.

Willie peddled pickles for the fun he gets out of it.

It is Willie's joy and delight to get a gingerale bun on and recite "Peter Joe."

When trained down to 95 feet, Willie can get up and beat the clapper off "Curlew Shall Not Sing Tonight!"

"Willie gets a strange hold on 'Forward, march!'"

"Forward's Ride" you can hear horses galloping outside.

It's the rest of the community getting out of the way.

"Any mail?" inquired Willie.

All the mail that Willie ever gets is

"The engineer," sighed Steve.

"Oh, you drill that," said the pickle-pusher; "give me some tooth-picks." Then Sweet William went over to a big window, burrowed into a big chair, stuck his feet up on the brass rail, ate toothpicks, and thought he was IT.

When I got back to Steve he was dealing out the cards to a lady from Reading, Pa.

Her husband had been up in the air with a bum automobile, and when he came down he was several sections shy.

They found a monkey-wrench imbedded in his left shoulder which he couldn't remember using when he tried to fix the machine.

She was traveling for his health.

"My room is immediately over the kitchen," she informed Steve.

"The cook hasn't made a kick up to now," Steve went back at her.

"But they've been trying to come over since we took the room yesterday afternoon," she snarled.

"Yes, madam,"

"This is a local option town, and the onion is the only pickle that's allowed to appear in public!"

She started to get back, but she gave Steve the society sting with both eyes and bounced out.

Steve sat the end off a penholder and read the rest intently.

Just then a couple of trouper trilled in.

"They were with the 'Bandit's Bride Co.' and the way had been long and weary."

"What have you got—double?" asked the village pick place.

"Two dollars and up!" said Steve.

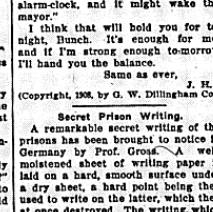

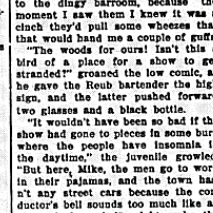

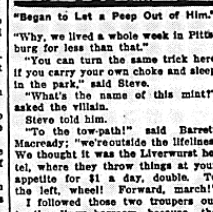

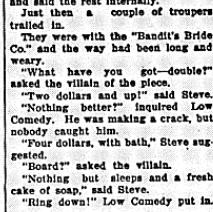

"Nothing better!" inquired Lou Comedy. He was making a crack, but nobody caught him.

"Four dollars, with bath," Steve suggested.

"Nothing," asked the villain.

"Nothing but sleep and a fresh cake of soap," said Steve.

"Ring down!" Lou Comedy put in.

Alf Makes French People Cheerful.

One of the great charms of Paris is certainly its atmosphere—so clear, light and buoyant; it is like inhaling champagne. Paris in May or June is sufficient to convert the venal of a hydropathic into a cheerful, good-natured being. This climate has, no doubt, a great influence on the character of the people, and accounts for their joyousness, their excitability, their wit.—Donahoe's Magazine.

WAS TOO MUCH FOR PAPA.

Childish Questions Were Becoming Entirely Too Personal.

There is a member of the faculty of George Washington university, who, to use the words of a colleague, "is as round physically as he is profound metaphysically," says the Philadelphia Ledger.

One day the professor chanced to come upon his children, of which he has a number, all of whom were, to his astonishment, engaged in an earnest discussion of the meaning of the word "absolute."

"Dad," queried one of the youngsters, "can a man be absolutely good?"

"No."

"Dad," queried another youngster, "can a man be absolutely bad?"

"No."

"Papa," ventured the third child, a girl, "can a man be absolutely fair?"

Whereupon the father fled instantaneously.

IT SEEMED INCURABLE

Body Rung with Excess—Discharged from Hospital—Cured by a Course of Remedies.

"From the age of three months until fifteen years ago my son's life was made intolerable by eczema in its worst form. In spite of treatments the disease gradually spread until nearly every part of his body was quite raw. He used to tear himself dreadfully in his sleep and the agony he went through is quite beyond words. The regimental doctor pronounced the case hopeless. We had him in hospital four times and he was pronounced one of the worst cases ever admitted. From each he was discharged as incurable. We kept trying remedy after remedy, but had gotten almost past hoping for a cure. Six months ago we purchased a set of Cuticura Remedies. The result was truly marvelous and today he is perfectly cured. Mrs. Lily H. Green, 1207 W. Green, England, Jan. 13, 1907."

LEAP-YEAR LAUGH.

"You look worried, old man!"

"Yes. Had three proposals last night and I don't know which one I ought to accept!"

Mail Calne's Early Life.

Mail Calne is writing his life story. He tells how he spent his early life by driving with his uncle at the age of five from the lonely homestead behind Shanefelt to what he thought must be a vast and mighty city. It was Douglas, with its 10,000 inhabitants. His first nickname was "Honey-bug," the name for "Little Tommy." His grandmother cherished him thus. "I think I must have been in her company," he says, "for I have the clearest memory of countless stories she told me of fairies and witches and the evil eye. My many grandmother was a poet."

Near Dead.

The ship doctor of an English liner notified the deathward, Howard, an Irishman, that a man had died in stateroom 45. The usual instructions to bury the body were given. Some hours later the doctor peeked into the room and found that the body was still there. He called the Irishman's attention to the matter, and the latter replied:

"I thought you said room 26. I went to that room and noticed a want in a bunk. 'Are ye dead?' says I. 'No,' says he, 'I'm not dead.' So I buried him."—The Wasp.

WONDERED WHY

Found the Answer Was "Coffee."

Many pale, sickly persons wonder for years why they have to suffer so, and eventually discover that the drug—coffee—in coffee is the main cause of the trouble.

"I was always very fond of coffee and drank it every day. I never had much flesh and often wondered why I was always so pale, thin and weak. "About five years ago my health completely broke down and I was confined to my bed. My stomach was in such condition that I could hardly take sufficient nourishment to sustain life."

"During this time I was drinking coffee, didn't think I could do without it."

"After awhile I came to the conclusion that coffee was hurting me, and decided to give it up and try Postum. I didn't like the taste of it at first, but when it was made right—boiled until dark and rich—I soon became very fond of it."

"In one week I began to feel better. I could eat more and sleep better. My sick headaches were less frequent, and within five months I looked and felt like a new being, headache spells entirely gone."

"My health continued to improve and today I am well and strong, weigh 145 lbs. I attribute my present health to the life-giving qualities of Postum."

"There's a testimonial from Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read 'The Road to Well-being,' in page 14.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest."

Organized Rescue Work in Mines.

Since the terrible colliery explosions of the last couple of years in Europe and the United States a public demand has been awakened for some kind of organized rescue work similar to the life saving corps of the coast. Recently Consul Blake of Dunfermline, Scotland, reviewed the progress for safe mining methods in England and on the continent. In Austria, France and Russia the provision of rescue apparatus by mine owners is compulsory. In Germany it is optional, but has been voluntarily adopted. In every colliery of Russia there must be a trained corps of rescuers equivalent to 4 per cent of the miners employed.

Consul Blake reports that the English are considering the question of making rescue work compulsory, but the authorities are undecided as to the best methods. In fact, it is conceded that the apparatus for life saving after explosions is far from perfect. One appliance is the tube worn about the chest, which regenerates the air after it has been breathed, and it is said to be trustworthy for about two hours. The tube is not adapted for laborious exertion, and is believed operated on the principle of the diving helmet is preferred by the miners engaged in heavy work. The helmet is engaged for a distance over 200 yards from the fresh air intake. The ideal apparatus should be light in weight, air tight and have capacity for a dependable supply of oxygen. So far of these features are not claimed for any one apparatus invented.

Second only in importance to a perfect breathing apparatus for miners buried by explosion is a trained corps of rescuers. In England and Scotland rescue stations are being organized to train colliers in the work of rescue. It has been suggested by mine owners that a central rescue station be established in every mining district and equipped with sufficient apparatus ready for use and that at least five sets of appliances be kept at each station with the record of 1907 shows an alarming increase of accidents and casualties. In 1907 there were fifty-eight accidents, resulting in the killing of sixteen persons and the maiming of twenty-eight others, during the month of April. This year the accidents jumped to seventy-nine, while the casualties numbered twenty-five killed and forty-nine injured. Thus the month's casualties a year ago were less than the month of April in this year's seventy-four in seventy-nine accidents.

On the other hand, the prosecutions this year were made with more vigor and indicate that the British local authorities are becoming concerned over the increasing number of accidents. In April, 1907, there were 158 citations before the courts and 141 convictions and 310 citations leading to 291 convictions. Convictions for exceeding the speed limit were only seventy-four for the month in 1907 and 218 for April in 1908. The crime soon spread across the channel, and if motorists ever learn anything except at the point of the bayonet the Britons should be well on the way to sane behavior by this time and able to give "those crude Americans" points. Evidently they cannot teach on anything beyond the lesson we've already learned—that is, that stricter laws rigorously enforced will be needed wherever the motor car gets a hold in order to protect the public from dangers which profit nobody.

"Politics is of no more importance than the price of beef" says a contemporary. But just now the people think that the price of beef is the most important thing moving.

A master at arms is a petty officer who forms one of the police of a ship. In Uncle Sam's navy there are four grades of masters at arms—chief master at arms and master at arms of the first, second and third class.

It Will Be Almost Unanimous. He is the People's Candidate.

The Farmers of McHenry County are Solid for Olson. They are Working for Him and Will Poll a Big Vote. More Than Probable He Will Also Carry Lake and Boone Counties.

It is almost unanimous for his nomination, and when they are daily receiving reports like above?

We predict that Mr. Olson will be nominated, and that Mr. Mench will be third man in the race, with a good show of being at the rear end of the procession, when the votes are counted on August 8.

Bad Accident.

Just before train-time John Ohlander of Rockford, Iowa, decided to use the telephone to communicate with a distant friend. The train was wrecked. Accidents of travel avoided by using the telephone toll service. Chicago Telephone Company.

A Surprise.

There is a law in Italy forbidding the depiction of paintings of the old masters. Once, says the Paris Gazette, a French artist discovered an interesting Titian in what appeared to be a good state of preservation and paid a good round sum for it. In order to smuggle it out of the country he conceived the idea of painting over the original a portrait of Victor Emmanuel in full uniform. The trick was successful, and the Italian in disguise duly arrived in Paris. The climate, however, came when the artist started to restore the Titian to its original condition. With a pad of cotton wool steeped in alcohol he effected the Victor Emmanuel, when, to his horror, the original Titian began to peel off. Much puzzled, he continued the washing until finally a portrait of Garibaldi was disclosed. The valuable Titian was a forgery.

The Cheapest Roadmaker.

The "good roads without money" movement that has by means of King's split log road drag converted the slough holes of the "corn belt" roads into model turnpikes is extending to the eastern states, where most roads are either very good or very bad, says Garden Magazine. Mr. King is arranging with the various state boards of agriculture to give a series of practical demonstrations of the use of his device on eastern roads where the success of road dragging is more doubtful because of sand and rocks.

VICTIMS OF CANADIAN FIRE MA-
NUMBER 200 TO 400.

RAILROAD IS CRIPPLED

Six Thousand Refugees Crowd the Spared Towns and Buffer for Lack of Food.

Winnipeg, Man.—The list of fatalities in the forest fire, which, starting at four o'clock Saturday afternoon, burned for 40 hours, is growing along the Crow's Nest Pass and the Canadian Pacific's new line, and devoured the prosperous mining towns of Fernie and the down smaller places is steadily increasing and is now placed at between 200 and 400.

Homer and Michel are still fighting the flames. The townspeople, after a battle of more than 30 hours, believe they had saved a remnant of the dwellings and lay down at their posts, but the flames swept down upon them, impelled by a strong west wind.

Late Monday afternoon the inhabitants of Michel, which is 20 miles from Fernie, were on the point of giving up the struggle, recognizing that their town was doomed. Nothing had been heard from the fire since the announcement of a fresh outbreak, but it is believed the place is in the same terrible straits as its neighbor.

Crowds of refugees are arriving at Nelson and other places which have escaped the disaster. These consist of men, women and children, many having remained behind to fight the flames. They are all in a pitiable condition, most of them having been without food for several days, and scanty raiment they wore at the time the onrush of the fire made it necessary to flee. It is estimated that fully 10,000 persons are now suffering from the burned area, suffering from exposure to the keen mountain air and lack of food.

The Railway Company has recalled from Editor Sampson of Cranbrook, which town is filled with refugees, stating that unless relief is sent quickly the place will almost certainly be ruined, with the situation, as its food supplies will not last much longer in view of the many extra mouths to feed.

To add to the horrors of the situation, the Canadian Pacific railway, connecting district with the outside world, has been almost completely burned and the movement of trains by which fire fighters, refugees and provisions are transported is at a standstill, almost insurmountable difficulties. Consequently, the supplies of food and clothing which are being rushed to the stricken region from the west are almost entirely blocked in transit.

Vancouver wired $5,000 for relief and a train load of supplies was sent to the town, accompanied by a special train with nurses, doctors, hospital stores and provisions. How soon they will get through is problematical.

Such was the force of the fiery tornado that one frame building, 70 feet long, was picked up, carried across the river, almost to the middle of the bed of the main street.

Five families were hemmed in by the fire and every soul perished. The only person who was saved, it was reported, could not be saved. Several people took their lives in trying to cross the burning structures. Numbers fled to the river, but the flames were unrelenting in the water; others ran to the Canadian Pacific tracks, where special trains were waiting to convey the people to safety. In the meantime, a bridge was made because the bridge between Homer and Michel had been burned. In one part of the city an aged woman was almost killed by the flames, but she managed to escape by a narrow chance, but the heat became so great that she began to be left to her fate and her relatives, wrapping her in a blanket, carried her to the hills. She was burned to death.

When the flames were consuming the town all the prisoners with the exception of five black and white men were released. Later they were recaptured and sent to Nelson.

Fernie Death Toll 173.

The town of Fernie, which is in the neighborhood of 170 miles from 173, with a property loss of $8,000,000 for the locality. Loggers to the number of 50 in the neighborhood of the lumber company have perished and several settlers with their families who lived on the line of railroad between Fernie and the town of Fernie.

The great wave of fire is still rolling eastward through the forest, following the lines of the Canadian Pacific and the Crow's Nest Pass line, but is a mile wide, in others three miles. Nothing can stop it, apparently, till the rain falls, and that may be the end of the fire.

The estimated property loss so far is $10,000,000, but it is feared that this figure will be greatly swollen before the fire is extinguished.

SHURTLEFF'S REPLY TO A. J. OLSON

Olson Much Mistaken.

Open Letter.

Chicago, Ill.,
July 23, 1908.

Hon. A. J. Olson,
Woodstock, Ill.

Dear Sir:

In a published statement over your signature, dated July 23, 1908, headed "OLSON'S ANSWER TO SHURTLEFF'S ATTACK," you state: "If my name appeared as a Cook County delegate to any convention in 1904, it was without my knowledge or consent." The primary election ballot for Republican delegates voted at the 10th Delegate District, comprising election precincts 21, 22, 27, 28 and 29 of the 22nd Ward of the City of Chicago, at the primary election held August 4, 1908, bears the names of Albert J. Olson and Samuel E. Erickson as delegates to the delegates, and it also bears the names of Samuel E. Erickson, Albert J. Olson, Frank O. Desaix and B. A. Nelson as delegates to the county convention in Cook County, Illinois.

The Chicago City Directory of 1905 gives:

OLSON Albert J. m. 261 N. Franklin
I have caused to be filed with the County Clerk of Cook County, Illinois, a certificate issued by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Chicago, Illinois, as follows:

"List of persons voting at the Republican Primary Election, Aug. 4, 1908."

(22nd Ward)

and on page 4 is the following:

"FRANKLIN ST.
"261 Olson A. J.
"260 Gustafson Oscar
"259 Larson C. W."

"State of Illinois, Cook County of Cook County, Illinois, do hereby certify that the foregoing list of voters at the Republican Primary Election of August 4, 1908, was prepared by this office from the original poll books used at said primary."

(Seal) "Isaac N. Powell, Chief Clerk."

This is the official list of all persons voting in the 22nd Ward at the primary election of August 4, 1908; and as it has been a matter of such general repute in the City of Chicago and through the directories that your place of business before and at about this time was Number 261 North Franklin Street, WILL YOU EXPLAIN TO THE VOTERS OF THE EIGHTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT HOW YOU COULD HAVE VOTED YOUR OWN DELEGATE BALLOT, WITH YOUR NAME ON THE BALLOT AS A STATE DELEGATE, AND AS A COUNTY DELEGATE, AND NOT HAVE KNOWN IT?

You further state in your circular as follows:

"I voted at the Smiley-Gilmore primaries in Woodstock in August, 1908, which can be proven by Judge Smiley."

It is a well known fact that the primary election on August 4, 1908, was an official election, poll books were kept, and the names of voters registered in the City of Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, as to your voting at the Smiley-Gilmore primary, which was held under the forms of August 4, 1908, in McHenry County, and as to that you did not vote at that primary.

CERTIFICATE

State of Illinois, Cook County, Illinois, do hereby certify that I am the County Clerk of McHenry County, Illinois, duly qualified and acting as such County Clerk on the 4th day of August, A. D. 1908, and have been such ever since said time.

"I further certify that I have fully examined the original poll books used at the primary election in the Third Election District of the Township of Dorr, of said McHenry County, at said primary election, and that on the poll books of said election, there does not appear the name of Albert J. Olson, Albert Olson, A. Olson, or any other name describing Albert J. Olson as a voter at said primary election, and that if the said Albert J. Olson voted at said primary election in the said Township Dorr in August 4, 1908, his name was not recorded by the clerks on the poll books of said election."

"I further certify that the records have that at said primary election David T. Smiley, of Woodstock, Illinois, was nominated as the Republican candidate for County Judge."

(Seal) "G. F. Rushion, County Clerk of McHenry County, Illinois."

Also, consult Judge Smiley yourself as to whether you voted in that primary. WILL YOU EXPLAIN TO THE VOTERS OF THE EIGHTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT WHEN AND WHERE YOU VOTED FOR JUDGE SMILEY IN THE SMILEY GILMORE CONTEST, OR WHEN YOU EVER VOTED IN McHENRY COUNTY PRIOR TO NOVEMBER, 1907?

In the City of Chicago, on April 28, 1908, another primary election was held under delegates to a judicial convention to select one Republican candidate for Supreme Court Judge, and I believe, one or two other judges. The records show that you were voted for as a delegate and elected to this convention, and it was the delegates selected to this convention, upon their election, that selected the Republican County Central Committee from the 22nd Ward of the City of Chicago, in which was the celebrated fight between Samuel E. Erickson and B. F. Clendenberg for control of the ward. During this contest, Mr. Erickson and Mr. Clendenberg were both members of the Legislature, and I knew from them, at the time, from Major Busse, from Mr. Kilbourne and from Dr. Frank W. Lambden, and from many other prominent men of Chicago, that you were actively engaged in that contest and sought with Mr. Erickson to get control of the ward. I submit herewith a statement signed by Mr. A. E. Lambden as to your connection with this contest in April, 1908. The statement speaks for itself.

Statement made by A. E. Lambden, now residing at 102 Walnut Street, in the City of Chicago.

"I am acquainted with A. J. Olson, who is running for State Senator in the 8th Senatorial District, and who formerly lived in the 22nd ward of the City of Chicago. I am also acquainted with Frank J. Chaiser, and have known both Chaiser and Olson for over fifteen years."

"Two days before the April primaries, 1908, these men met at the North Turner Hall. A. J. Olson, Frank J. Chaiser, Martin Mullen and Dr. Frank W. Lambden, and A. E. Olson proposed that they should divide the patronage of the north and south ends of the ward, and said there would be no trouble about it. It was decided to be for Sam Erickson for committeeman from the 22nd ward. Mullen was walking delegate for the Teamsters' Union, and it was agreed that he should go to Dr. Lambden and Olson and get money as he needed it. Mullen agreed to deliver his precinct. In the afternoon Dr. Lambden and A. J. Olson both spent considerable money. The doctor spent about six or seven hundred dollars. Chaiser was to have the patronage of the north end of the ward, and Olson the south end. Dr. Lambden did not care for any patronage, as he lived out of the ward. Erickson agreed, if he was elected, to let Olson and Chaiser run the patronage."

"This Frank J. Chaiser is the same person who was cashier for John A. Linn while Linn was clerk of the Board of Supervisors, and caused Linn's indictment, and confessed in that that he had perjured himself and changed the books and records, by which Linn got the money."

"After the election to John Olson bought a half interest in a saloon and restaurant at 13 State Street for Chaiser, and said that he had put in six thousand dollars. Chaiser did not stay there long, but sold out and took his money from Olson as a salesman, collecting milk orders in bulk, and as the milk business is at the corner of Oak and Chestnut Streets, at Olson's old stand, under the name of P. J. Chaiser & Company, but Olson a silent partner, backing Chaiser up."

"A. E. Lambden, '102 Walnut St., 'Chicago.'"

And if this is not sufficient, I attach hereto, editorials from the Chicago Chronicle, the Chicago Daily News and the Chicago Evening Post, showing that you and your associates were connected with this contest in the 22nd ward of Chicago, in April, 1908, but that it was your contest.

As to the other statements in your reply, charging me with falsification, I shall not go into them, but leave it to yourself and your conscience to settle in any way that you see fit, as to what you have said or done, or have not said or done. BUT AS YOU HAVE BEEN SO VIOLENTLY MISTAKEN AS TO THE ABOVE MATTERS, it is more than possible that you may be mistaken as to the remainder.

I have no desire whatever to do you any injury, but the people of the Eighth Senatorial District are entitled to know the truth and to form their judgment upon the truth and not to be misled by things that are not the truth.

Mr. Olson, under all of these circumstances, DON'T YOU THINK THAT YOU SHOULD RETIRE FROM THE RACE FOR STATE SENATOR, IN FAVOR OF MR. L. E. MENTCH AKA? YOU THE MAN WHO IS KEEPING McHENRY COUNTY FROM HAVING A STATE SENATOR?

Very respectfully,
EDWARD D. SHURTLEFF.

Chicago Evening Post, Friday, April 27, 1908.

BATTLE FOR POWER IN A WARD CONTEST.

Interest in Judicial Primaries Tomorrow Centers in a Fight in the Twenty-Second.

DENEEN CROWD VS. BUSSE
Fight by Governors Friends to Curtail the Postmaster's Influence on the North Side.

In preparing for the judicial primaries set for tomorrow, Republican county leaders say the only contest will be in the Twenty-second ward, but the indications are that the fight there will be a battle royal. It is now, however, a contest over the nominee to be placed on either ticket, the participants in the struggle being solely interested in securing control of the ward committee.

Representative Bernard F. Clendenberg, an ally of Postmaster Fred A. Busse, is a candidate for the leadership held by John A. Linn, and opposed to him is Albert J. Olson, former alderman and state representative, whose public record has been one of denunciation of the Municipal and Legislative Voters' leagues.

The chief interest in the fight is the fact that it has dragged Postmaster Busse into the fray. Reports are circulated also that certain members of the Board of Supervisors are planning to fight Busse through Olson, to prevent the postmaster from gaining control of the solid North Side.

THE FIGHT ON BUSSE'S POWER.
The word has gone out that Clendenberg must be defeated, because he is Busse's friend, and in order to clip the postmaster's wings in county politics, Mr. Busse has accepted the challenge, and, no matter how the fight results it is likely to have a far-reaching effect on the local situation, as tending to widen the breach between the Busse combination and Governor Deneen's wing.

Representative Clendenberg today mailed a circular to every Republican voter in the ward asking: "Do you want to be honestly represented? Frank Chaiser, A. J. Olson and Sam Erickson represent themselves. Bernard F. Clendenberg represents you. A vote for Clendenberg means a vote for decent administration of party affairs."

Erickson is Clendenberg's colleague in the legislature, and Chaiser was cashier in Linn's office. Both are working for Olson under the direction of a Deneen lieutenant who, with Sheriff Pease, would like to see Busse's influence in North Side politics curtailed.

Chicago Daily News, Friday, April 27, 1908.

PRIMARIES ARE ON TO-MORROW

Republicans Will Contest at Polls.

Lahiff Back from South.

Republican judicial primaries are to be held to-morrow. In the 22nd ward, where the fight between the republican committee relinquished by John A. Linn is to be held, looks the only contest of consequence. In the 13th ward, where rival republican factions have fought with bloodshed and death recently, a truce has been declared and no trouble is looked for. In the 22nd ward the contest for committeeman between Representative B. F. Clendenberg and Samuel E. Erickson is backed by A. J. Olson, formerly a representative and an alderman. Circulars have been distributed throughout the ward by the Legislative Voters' league report for 1908, and the endorsement of Olson by the Municipal Voters' league in 1902. Postmaster Busse is behind Clendenberg, and with the election of his candidate will get control of the only ward in the north town which has not owed allegiance to his wing.

Chronicle, Sunday, April 29, 1908.

CLENDENBERG WINS IN PRIMARIES.

Republican primary elections were held yesterday in the city and Cicero, but the only contest of importance was in the Twenty-second ward, where Bernard P. Clendenberg won a bitter fight against Samuel E. Erickson and his ally, John A. Linn, capturing seventeen out of twenty-four delegates.

The contest was over the county committee to succeed John A. Linn, who within a week will begin serving a five-year term in the Illinois legislature. Although the struggle was nominally between Representative Clendenberg on one side and Erickson and Linn on the other, the real battle was between Postmaster Fred A. Busse and his political rivals in the Linn ward.

By his victory yesterday Mr. Busse establishes his supremacy as a party leader in the Twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth wards and will go into the convention tomorrow with seventeen delegates. Mr. Busse made a hard fight against great odds, but triumph doubtless will add much to his prestige as a leader in the republican county organization.

The Busse-Clendenberg combination carried five out of seven primary districts in the Twenty-second ward, and the postmaster is now the undisputed boss of the town of North Chicago.

TWO THIRTY-THREE PER CENT VOTE. OF 11,039 votes cast in the city and Cicero nearly 2,500 were cast by the Twenty-second ward, or more votes than were polled in the ward primaries of May 6, 1904, when Deneen and Linn were battling for the republican gubernatorial nomination. Erickson and Olson evidenced their intention to overthrow Busse, Erickson running as a candidate for committeeman in the Twelfth district, and Olson in the Twelfth district, the sixth, and his combination carried the fifth or Polk district; the rest went to the Busse organization.

CLAIRE C. EDWARDS
Candidate for States Attorney of Lake County.

Subject to the Decision of the Republican Party at Primaries to be Held August 8th, 1908.

Claire C. Edwards was born in the town of Avon and reared on a farm about two miles north of Graylake. He attended the public schools in Lake county, graduating and receiving a teacher's certificate at the age of 19. After two years spent on the farm, he entered the law as his profession and with the end in view, attended the Northern Indiana Normal School; Wheaton College and the Northwestern University at Evanston, Illinois, in the year 1904.

He then entered the Chicago Law School and graduated therefrom in 1901, and was admitted to practice in all courts in Illinois in the early winter of 1901, and in the United States Courts in February, 1907.

During the eight years spent in college, Mr. Edwards worked and paid his expenses, thus being essentially a self-reliant and self-made man.

Mr. Edwards has been engaged in the active practice of law in Lake county for over seven years, nearly six years of which have been in the city of Waukegan, having had an extensive and varied office and trial practice.

Mr. Edwards has, as the court records will show, been engaged in the trial of nearly all the important criminal cases tried for the past five years, among which might be mentioned the murder cases of John Sosnosky; Strickland; Pilo Salvatore; Pilo Grano; Mary Ross Salvatore Murdo; Harold Mitchell and May Mitchell.

Mr. Edwards has recently been engaged to lecture to the students of the Chicago Law School for the years 1908-9 on the subject of "CRIMINAL LAW," thus being recognized as one of the leading criminal lawyers in the northern part of the state.

By reason of his extended criminal practice and of his having made a specialty of criminal law, Mr. Edwards, if elected States Attorney, could and would give the People of the County the benefits of this valuable training and experience.

March 1st, 1908, Mr. Edwards formed a partnership with J. K. Orvis, and on April 1st, 1908, the same was dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Edwards is now engaged in the general practice of law in the new Wetzel Building, corner of Washington and County Streets.

In an interview with a Star reporter Mr. Edwards stated:

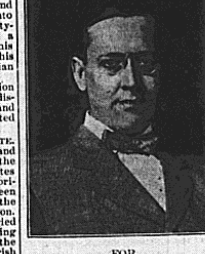

"I am a candidate for this office, standing squarely on my past record, which is well known to the majority of the voters of Lake county. I have nothing to conceal and no promises to make further than this: 'If elected, I mean to so conduct the office that I can look every man squarely in the eye and honestly say, that I am doing my plain duty, and to be able after the completion of my term to point to my record as States Attorney with pride.'"

He further stated: "I am the candidate of no faction, association or clique, but shall appeal direct to the voters."

If any man is unacquainted with my record, let them inquire of any man that has served on the numerous juries of this county for the past six years."

Primary day, Saturday, August 8. Polls are open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Voting places: Barrington, Village hall; Cuba, Lamey building.
