We do not aim to excell in any of these vocations, but we expect that Emerson referred to any old line of business. and so we are endeavoring to open a reasonably passable road to the REVIEW office door by doing good printing. Our commercial printing is always done in a manner to make it attract particular notice-it partakes of individuality. We use better papers, better inks, and better type faces than most of our neighbor printers, and we give more attention to your work; that's why our printing is of a higher class. ¶ An examination of our specimens is our best testimonial.
