Washington.-The three days' battle

Washington.—The three days battle for supermenty in the national house of representatives ended Saturday with the deposition of Speker Can-non from his place of power. With a determination that gave no quarter, the insurgent Republicans, sak-sided by their Democratical allies, nink-alded by their Democratical allies, nink-turned in and helped the regular Re-publicans give "Unicle Joe" a rousing and affecting vote of personal confi-dence.

The Right Spirit.

Apropos of Valentine's Day, a passenger on the Bermudian said.

"Mark Twain once told us, in a little Valentine Day speech on this boat of an Irish woose who had the right Valentine spirit. Acceptance or rejection he could take with equal jection he could take with equal grace.

"Will ye be my valentine," he said, on February 14, to the girl he loved.
"No," she replied, "I am anothers."
"He heaved a sigh and said:
"Sure, thin, darlin, I wish ye was twins, so that I could have at laste the half of ye."
