AT THE CHICAGO THEATRES

CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE. It is generally conceeded ! Hilda Spong has scored the nocess of her life, crowded with hits, in "The Penaity," a new play by Heary C. Colwell which opened at the hicago Opera house Monday e f last week. It is a powerful ealing with the evils of An ivorce. The play has all the clever-less, ingenuity and perfections of a Pinero masterpiece and is a masterly Princero masterpiece and is a ma and thrilling exposition of a dos complication. With Miss Spong, ever, in its powerful female ro becomes an attraction of unusua

The Good Talter.

The good talter has opinion, but lets you have them, too. He does not wantonly attack another's views nor runke a nuisance of himself by obstimately forcing his own. Directsion is a fillig to conversation; argument is na sure a disrupter as a well-thrown dynamic state.
