PROGRESSIVES AND REPUBLICANS RALLY

REPUBLICANS MEET NEXT NIGHT

k H. Pank Bere a Per

Last Monday evening 350 voters of this village, together with a dosen women and a number of children, filled the village hall to overflowing to hear the Progressive speakers' version of the present campaign issues. Frank H. Funk, candidate for governor, was probably the man of greatest interest, but as he did not arrive until 10:20 and departed at 10:40 he only had time to say a few words. The burden of his argument was: "get away from the old parties; they are boss ridden." With Mr. Funk was William H. Malone of Park Ridge, candidate for member of the state board of equalization. In a short taik he spoke in favor of the abolition of that office.

that office.

The meeting was opened at eight o'clock, Robert Mickey, senior, of Bariogoto township, acting as chairman and introducing the speakers. George E. Colby. a Chiesgo cartoonist, first gave a chair talk which was quite amusing. The direct present and a reason and the control of th

BARRINGTON'S CANDIDATES

Village Has Five Local Men on Be at the Coming Election All Are Prohibitionists.

Five residents of the village of Barington are candidates for county of state offices on the Prohibition ticket this fall. Frank H. Plagge is a candidate for member of the state board of qualitation from the tenth district A. W. Meyer a candidate for representative from the eight sensionis district, Dr. D. H. Richardson a candidate for clerk of the circuit count of Lake county, J. F. Gleske a candidate for representative from the greath for representative from the greath date for clerk of the circuit court of Lake county, J. F. Gieske a candidate for representative from the seventh clerk representative from the seventh district and H. J. Lageschulte is a candidate for county commissioner in Cook county. Voters in Barrington township may vote for the latter two, while the first named three will appear on the ballots to be used in Cuba township.

A. W. Meyer is the only one among these men who stands a chence of winning. In the eighth senatorial district there are four candidates for representative who are considered to be in the light; two Republicans, E. D. Bhurtleff of Marengo and James H. Vickers of Harvard; one Democrat, Thomas E. Orsham of Ingleside; and Mr. Meyer, the Prohibitionist; and there are three to be elected. Mr. Gharuleff's election is conceeded and Mr. Graham's is almost equally sure, while Mr. Meyer and Mr. Vickers have shoots an equal chance, have simons an equal chance, have simons an equal chance, but a proper control of the control of the country of the country of the control of the country of the cou
