

BARRINGTON REVIEW

VOLUME 29, NUMBER 7

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1913

$1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

BRIEF MENTION-OF NEWS ABOUT TOWN

happenings of the Week Told in Short Paragraphs—What's Doing in Our Hasting Village.

A girl was born last Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Holze who resides 2 1/2 miles south of this village.

John Howe, tax collector of Elia township, was in this village yesterday receiving taxes from local people who own property in his district.

Dr. D. H. Richardson vaccinated all of the pupils of an Algonquin township school yesterday. There are a number of small-pox cases in that vicinity.

J. C. Burkitt of Arlington Heights has sold three Studebaker "20" automobiles this week to local people, the purchasers being Herman Ebel, Henry Berger and John Haje.

A Chicago moving picture concern has rented the village hall for next Thursday evening. An announcement of the show they will give will be found in another column.

A cartoon with Harry Lander, the Scotch comedian, as a subject, from the pen of W. J. Cameron of this place, was published last week in the Western British America, a Chicago weekly paper.

Members of the board of village trustees Friday inspected the ditch on Russell street which Mr. Kneier has been making complaint. The matter will probably be gone into more thoroughly at the next board meeting.

George Carmichael, Jr., celebrated his fifth birthday anniversary Tuesday afternoon by giving a party to which a few of his young friends were invited. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Carmichael of Garfield street.

Rev. Father T. F. Leyden of Freeport will conduct services at St. Anne's church next Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Father Leyden was a resident pastor of Woodstock about 30 years ago and the church here was included in his parish.

Remember the "Trip Around the World" to be given by the members of the Baptist Young Peoples' Social union on Friday evening, February 14. Six "countries" will be visited and it will be novel, and without doubt an enjoyable entertainment.

George Preston, who has been the tailor for H. B. Banks & Company since they started in the business, has returned to Chicago. He talks of opening a shop of his own at Palatine. His former employers expect a new man in the first of next week.

F. K. Humsted finished his work for his new Lake county directory here last Friday and the copy will be placed in the hands of the printers at once so that the books may be issued about April 1. He has raised the price of the book from five to six dollars.

Mrs. Fred Hunter of Franklin street went to Chicago Friday to see her husband who is at the West Side Hospital, and remained until Monday. She says that Mr. Hunter is improving rapidly and expects to be out of the hospital in a few days. They plan to return to Chicago to reside as soon as he is well.

Mrs. F. L. Seaver of South Hawley street celebrated her birthday here last Saturday at a luncheon in honor of her birthday. Those present were: Madeline Allen Cameron, Earl Fitch, James Thompson, P. J. Cullin, David Wood, Elmer Hendricks and Will Dawson. Mrs. Seaver was the recipient of a gift of cut glass as a souvenir of the occasion.

H. D. A. Grebe says that he has located the young man who took a sum of money his cousin Grebe last week. The boy is at Elgin, he says, and tried to communicate with him yesterday. Mr. Grebe expects to talk to the boy or his father today and will probably be able to effect a settlement. We were in error last week, Mr. Grebe says, in stating that the boy's father refused to be reconciled.

One of R. R. Hammond's teams ran away last Saturday afternoon and ran into a mole team of Mr. Hammond's, severely injuring one of the mules with the wagon pole. The mole team and wagon were engaged in hauling corn from one part of the depot when the accident occurred. The wagon pole entered the side of one of the mules and the mule was making a very wild sound which was thought to be the mule's cry. The mule was killed and the wagon was damaged.

One of R. R. Hammond's teams ran away last Saturday afternoon and ran into a mole team of Mr. Hammond's, severely injuring one of the mules with the wagon pole. The mole team and wagon were engaged in hauling corn from one part of the depot when the accident occurred. The wagon pole entered the side of one of the mules and the mule was making a very wild sound which was thought to be the mule's cry. The mule was killed and the wagon was damaged.

NEWS OF THE FARM AND DAIRY

Notes of Comment and Interest to Local Agriculturalists and Milk Producers.

The fifth international Good Roads Congress will be held at the hotel La Salle, Chicago, February 28 to March 2.

The employees of the Borden condensed milk company won the prize last month for "factory efficiency" among the Borden factories throughout the United States.

McHenry county is making rapid forward strides in the matter of up-to-date farming. A soil improvement association has been formed and Delos James of Huntley, a graduate of the agricultural college of the University of Illinois, has been appointed soil expert and farm advisor.

Fred Witt's auction sale is being held today. Rudolph Wierdt's was held yesterday and well patronized. John Haines' takes place tomorrow and Edward Horn will sell Tuesday. William Feigenhauer, Jr., will sell next Thursday. No further sales in this vicinity have been announced as yet, but it is understood that there will be one or two more. Mr. Peters will carry all of these sales and also has several more near Gilmer.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

ST. ANN'S.

Services will be held next Sunday morning promptly at 9:30 o'clock.

During the winter season there will be devotions every Sunday evening at eight o'clock, which will be followed by a short sermon.

BAFFERT.

Morning worship at 10:30 o'clock.

Evening worship at 7:30 o'clock. Sunday school at 11:45 a. m. Pre-Sunday devotional service Saturday at three o'clock p. m.

Covenant meeting the last Saturday of each month.

SALEM.

Sunday worship at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Sunday school at 9:15 a. m. George F. Stiefenhofer, superintendent. K. L. C. E. meets at 6:45 p. m. Clarence Plagge, president.

Prayer services Tuesday and Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.

Choir meets Friday evening.

General missionary meeting held first Wednesday each month at 1:30.

Woman's Missionary society meets first Thursday of each month, Mrs. B. H. Soti, president.

Mission band meets first Sunday of each month at 1:30.

Monthly offering of the church is taken on the second Sunday of each month.

Sunday school council meets first Wednesday evening of each month at 7:30.

The pastor will gladly respond to calls. Phone 115-M. Herman H. Thoren, Salem parsonage.

METHUEN.

At 9:30 a. m. next Sunday the classes will meet. The effects of the Sunday school concert are seen in the high average of attendance, it was 90 last Sunday. The spirited singing led by the orchestra is an attractive feature. The collection on Sunday was added to the amount given by the public congregation for the "Freedom of the South."

At 10:40 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. there will be public worship with preaching by the pastor of the church.

Communion next Wednesday evening, there will be special religious and evangelistic services at the church each evening except Sunday. The pastor will be assisted in these meetings by the Rev. J. E. Robinson, pastor of the Methodist church in Palatine.

A very cordial invitation is extended to all who may be interested in such religious services to attend and assist in and be profited by the meetings.

EMMA McFARLAND.

Mrs. Emma McFarland of Cook street and Henry Tuppel of Barrington township, were married Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock at the Baptist church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. G. E. Lockhart, the pastor of that church. The church was crowded and descriptions of the wedding say that it surpasses any in the history of the village in the protection of all its details.

A VALENTINE.

THE WORLD IS MINE.

WAUCONDA.

Floyd Carr of Chicago spent Sunday here.

F. L. Carr returned from Chicago Tuesday.

William Tidmarsh has been quite ill with the grippe.

Plinn Arps of Palatine is spending a few days with relatives here.

Ed Mills of Chicago spent Sunday and Monday with relatives here.

Mrs. John Murphy and daughter Mary returned to Chicago recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Geary recently welcomed a baby girl to their home.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wainwright of McHenry Tuesday, February 4, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tomlisky of North Crystal Lake are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Pratt.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Geary of Grayslake announce the birth of a ten pound son Monday February 10.

Miss Lelah Glynn of Lake Bluff and Mr. Lester of Lake Villa were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kent Sunday.

Dr. Golding, wife and daughter spent Sunday here. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Jane Neville who had just returned from a two weeks' visit with relatives at Elgin and North Crystal Lake.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral of Miss Olive Jenks were: Mr. and Mrs. Sobardi, Mr. and Mrs. Hoff, Mr. and Mrs. Will Grantham, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Godfrey, and Mrs. John Murphy of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Crabtree, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grantham and Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Grantham of Cary, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grantham of Barrerville, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Jenks of McHenry.

Platform Meeting at the M. E. Church. The evening services at the Methodist church last Sunday were quite out of the usual order. In this, instead of a sermon by the pastor, there were addresses by several men of the church. Frank Dohmeyer spoke on "The help the Sunday services have been to me." E. S. Smith on "Christian training for the young." E. A. Cannon gave some interesting statements in regard to "Traveling men's religious giving some account of the 'Gideon' traveling man's religious organization. Charles H. Graham gave his ideas on "The kind of religious service that appeals to men," the closing address by H. P. Castle was on "The practical character of bible teaching."

Dr. Freeman opened the services with prayer. The number of men present was larger than usual, and all seemed to enjoy the change in the order.

Christmas Stock Sale $78.00.

The report of the sale of Christmas stock in Lake county for the year 1912 has just arrived from Dr. M. Olive Reed of Lake Forest, the chairman of the Christmas stock committee of the Lake County Tuberculosis Institute.

The sale in Barrington, conducted by the Review, brought in a larger amount than any other town outside of Washington and Lake Forest.

CARY STATION.

Foy Menich was a Woodstock visitor Sunday.

L. E. Menich transacted business in Chicago Saturday.

Miss Ida Wascher was a Chicago shopper Thursday.

Mrs. August Hincle was a Crystal Lake visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Nish of Barrerville were here on business.

Miss Gladys Munger of Elgin visited over the week end with her parents.

Miss Jennie Piche of Elgin visited with relatives here the last of the week.

Mrs. T. Allen was quite ill the last of the week and under the doctor's care.

Ed Stanley of Chicago was a guest last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen.

Mrs. Kamholz was confined to the house with a severe attack of tonsillitis the last of the week.

Mrs. Harry Jensen entertained her sister Miss Mabel Peck of Algonquin at her home here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wolf attended the funeral at Woodstock Saturday.

Some of the funeral services were given by Mr. Wolf's sister, Mrs. Minnie Thompson.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The board of education gave the pupils and teachers a holiday yesterday, Lincoln's birthday.

Don't forget the concert given by the school last night. Come, enjoy the evening and encourage the boys.

Signs of spring (roller skates and marbles) have been no good for some. The present cold snap might cause us to think that those signs are not reliable.

Pupils and teachers are arranging for the fifth annual school exhibit to be held March 14. Work of the pupils for the current school year will be on exhibition.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following transfers of real estate in this vicinity have been recorded recently:

E. H. Wilmer to H. W. Ebel, lot 14, Illinois subdivision, Barrington, w. d., $2,000.00.

W. M. Wilmer and wife to H. W. Ebel, lots 8, 9 and 10, Hesse subdivision, Barrington, w. d., $400.00.

R. H. Meyer and wife to William Looze, tract of land in a. e. 1, section 27, Wauconda township, w. d., $8.00.

A. J. Raymond and wife to Albert Delaine, w. 1 lot 1 and - 1 lot 2 block 1, Range 2d addition, Wauconda, $1000.

H. C. S. Meyer and wife to A. C. Schwaner, part n. w. 1 section 10, Elia township, w. d., $500.00.

Anna Meyer and husband to C. Pollock Kishner, 20 acres in northwest one-fourth, section 5, Elia township, e. e., $1.00.

MEN'S BANQUET IS A BIG SUCCESS

Eighty Served at Men's Club Annual Social—Program by the Most Prominent Villagers.

The fifth annual banquet of the "Barrington Men's Club" took place last evening, as a commemoration of Abraham Lincoln and the fiftieth anniversary of the liberation of the American negro from slavery. As in preceding years this banquet was largely attended by prominent people of this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

The dinner was served at seven o'clock in the Methodist church parlor by the ladies of the club serving by this village representing various nationalities and creeds, who have been so amalgamated in this "Melting Pot"—the Men's Club—that personal differences and opinions have been eliminated and harmony evolved, making all present at the meetings and entertainments of the club feel a friendly interest in one another. Few towns possess such an organization and those who have failed to affiliate would do well to become members.

LAKE ZURICH.

E. A. Ficke made a trip to Chicago Monday.

H. L. Prehm made a business trip to Waukegan Tuesday.

George Foreman made a visit at Barrington last Monday.

Mrs. Emil Frank and daughter Anna were Chicago visitors Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Hinklerbocker Ice company has sent the village treasurer a check for $25.00 for cutting the weeds on the lake.

John Howe, the tax collector, has started to collect this week, he will be at Emil Frank's place Lake Zurich every Tuesday and Saturday, the Gilmer store every Monday morning, and at Sauer Bros. store at Long Grove every Wednesday morning.

Six bids for building the new school house were given in last Saturday. Ernest Branding was awarded the contract, his bid of $7350.29 being the lowest. The directors are now taking steps to see what can be done in changing the present location of the school lot as great many people think the old location is not very desirable on account of being close to both railroads, making it very noisy and also dangerous.

Comedy in Four Acts. "Her Ladyship's Vice," a comedy in four acts, will be given at the Lake Shore Pavilion, Lake Zurich, Illinois, Saturday evening, February 22, 1913, under the auspices of the Ladies Lacrosse Club.

Cast of characters: Captain Charles Sanford, E. M. Schaefer Sir Thos. Melbourne, L. C. Hockmeyer Sir John Phillips, E. M. Fiedler Joseph Luxton, L. O. Ellison Lady Melbourne, A. L. Prehm Nurse.

Lady Betty Everline, C. H. Prehm Nora Jones, E. R. Schneider Tickets 15, 25 and 35 cents.

A dance will be given after the show. Their will be a special train which will leave Palatine at 7:30 P. M. and return at 1:00 A. M.

ARTHUR'S CORNERS. Arthur and Walter Witt visited with their parents this week.

Mrs. D. Smith is spending a few weeks with her daughter Mary Catlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrell Young visited Sunday with Fred Fiedler's folks.

Fred Fiedler and family spent Sunday with relatives at Lake Zurich.

John Wilhelm will move to Palatine after working years in this vicinity.

H. L. Rockleman of Palatine called on J. Strum Jr. on business Sunday.

Daniel Strum is going to enlarge his barn this summer and put it in first-class shape.

Miss Melba Klenschmidt visited a few days last week with her sister Elsie Kruger.

Charles Kassel is spending the week in Chicago visiting with his brothers Ben and David.

Arthur Strum claims to be the boss rabbit hunter in the village and has bagged about forty this winter.

J. Strum Jr. and Sons were at Prairie View last week with some stock for the Chicago market.

Charles Kellogg has rented the Leonard farm for a term of years and has moved there already.

Fred Klenschmidt intends to raise his barn and put it in a basement and cement floor this season.

Fred Fiedler was rendered a surprise party by a number of neighbors last Sunday in honor of his birthday.

Our tax collector John Howe is out collecting taxes in the township of Elia. They are a little more this year.

Fred Eichler has returned from Wisconsin where he has bought land and reports 18 inches of snow and 20 degrees below zero.

The people of this vicinity are sorry to hear of the death of the late Miss Olive Jenks. She was one of our former teachers, and was well thought of by parents and scholars.

John Smith has bought out his partner in the moving picture show business and is now owner alone of their entire circuit. He gave his first show at Park Ridge Tuesday evening and says that he had a most excellent audience. He has purchased a new Edison machine which will remain in Barrington all of the time.

Rural route men are somewhat alarmed at a recent order of the postmaster general that the rigs of all rural letter carriers be painted a brilliant and conspicuous red. The order also applies to letter boxes. Carriers declare that they will be the object of attack of all the heads of the highly prized Holstein herds on their routes.

Pay Your Taxes. I will be at the office of the Public Service company in the Village of Barrington to receive taxes for the Town of Barrington commencing Saturday, February 16, and every next week. Bring description of property you wish to pay on. L. H. HENNETT, Collector.

Notice to Taxpayers. I will be at the office of E. F. Schaefer town clerk, each Tuesday and Saturday for the purpose of collecting taxes for the town of Cuba. An early call will be appreciated. WILL RIECK, collector.

For Village Trustees. I hereby announce myself as a candidate for office of village trustee, subject to the decision of the voters at the ensuing primary.