American journalist, told this story at a recent dinner party:
"One day when I was the city editor of a small newspaper, a fine turkey was left at the office. We all bankered after the bird, but the editor finally claimed it, took it home, and had it cooked for dinner. The next day a letter was handed in to him, which he opened and read:
"Mr. Editor—I sent you a turkey yesterday which had been the cause of much dispute among us. To settle abet, will you please state in tomorrow's issue what the turkey died off."

Woman Is As Old As She Looks

No woman wants to look old. Many in their effort to look youthful resort to the "beauty doctor's" prescriptions. Their mistake is that they visit the wrong department in the drug store.

Beauty depends upon health.

Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains, disorders, irregulacities and weaknesses of a distinctly feminine character in a short time shring the dull eye, the "crow's feet," the haggard look, drooping shoulders, and the faltering step.
