

BARRINGTON REVIEW

VOLUME 20, NUMBER 12

BARRINGTON, ILLINOIS, THURSDAY, MARCH 27, 1913

50 CENTS PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

VILLAGE PRIMARY TO BE HELD NEXT SATURDAY

Five Candidates Are in Race for the Trusteeship But President Is Without Opposition.

TOWNSHIP ELECTIONS FOLLOW SOON

Annual Town Meetings and Elections Will Take Place Tuesday—Will Be No Opposition.

With five candidates in the field for village trustee, and three to be nominated, the primary election to be held next Saturday afternoon bids fair to furnish considerable excitement. The candidates are as follows: George J. Hager, A. W. Sutherland, E. J. Lagaschulte, George F. Atkins and William C. Davenport. The names will appear upon the ballots in the above order. There is also competition for the office of police magistrate, Ernest Lines, who is a candidate to succeed himself, being opposed by L. H. Bennett. The present president of the board, Miles T. Lamey, whose term expires this spring, is without opposition.

The primary will be held at the village hall from the hours of 2:00 to 8:00 p. m. A specimen of the ballot to be used will be found on another page of this issue.

It is generally felt that Messrs. Lagaschulte and Hager, members of the board at present, will be sent back, but which one of the three candidates, Mr. Atkins, Mr. Sutherland or Mr. Davenport, will be selected as the other nominee is doubtful. They are so evenly matched that no predictions are being made. It is expected that a large vote will be polled.

The township elections, when the candidates nominated two weeks ago will be elected, will be held next Tuesday, April 1. No petitions have been filed so there will be no opposition and it is not likely that many voters will take the trouble to attend, in Barrington township anyway. Interest is added in Cuba township by the fact that a vote will be taken upon the proposition of levying a tax at the rate of 60 per cent. on each one hundred dollars for the purpose of constructing gravel roads. The proposition, if passed will provide for this tax for the next five years. It is considered favorably by most of the voters in that township. Such a tax has previously been levied for a number of years and the result is that the township is noted for its good roads now, although there is much more work to be done and the tax can be used to good advantage. Barrington township intended to vote on the special gravel tax this year but the matter was not taken up in time and had to be deferred until another year.

The elections will be held at the usual places, in Barrington township at the village hall and in Cuba township at the office of Town Clerk Schaefer, and the polls will be open from 7:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

The town meetings will also be held on this day at the same places, commencing at 2:00 p. m., when the reports of officers will be heard and the annual appropriations will be made. Specimen ballots will be found on page five.

Keep Offense and Stop Gambling.
"The chief obstacle to progressive dairying," says Professor W. J. French, of the University of Illinois, "is dairying it on in a dilapidated manner, without the well balanced, intensive methods as important to profitable milk production. Many dairymen attempt to make money without the application of business principles. The milk producer must be guided, and he knows that the results will be of the different operations conducted in different ways, and in such cases, the one that will secure the most profit, it is the one result from a new plan or a new method which is making a profit or not. We cannot know what the new result is if we do not keep a record."

CATHOLICS ANSWER "THE MENACE"

Respectful Attention and Appreciation Given Lectures at Palatine By Protestant Audience.

The lecture given at Palatine on Tuesday evening in Selp's hall by the Rev. Father P. J. O'Callaghan and Hon. James Maher of Chicago was well attended by a audience of Protestant people who listened with respectful attention to their words.

An anti-Catholic publication of St. Louis called "The Menace" has been widely scattered through this vicinity containing ridiculous statements as to the Catholic faith. So much discussion arose at Palatine that Father Joseph Looney of Barrington arranged this meeting to explain to non-Catholics that the Catholic church as a body has no inclination nor power to assume control of the American government as alleged in "The Menace."

Father O'Callaghan dwelt largely on the fact that lack of knowledge of Catholic teaching produces this prejudice existing in some places against that church and that a study of the faith always makes people more in sympathy.

Mr. Maher gave an account of the patriotic Catholics who have fought for America in all her wars, bringing out the proof of the loyalty of Catholic Americans to this country and says that the more we know of our country is not "how men worship God, but how many are drifting from God in these modern times."

Miss Elmore Arpa, sang twice and by the applause received, it is known that her beautiful voice is appreciated in her home town.

VERMILYA TRIAL HELD SOON.

Famous Vermilya Case to Come to Trial in Short Time.

Mrs. Louise Vermilya of Chicago, who was tried for the murder of Richard T. Smith, an Illinois Central suburban passenger train conductor and a lodger in her home, in connection with which the jury disagreed and was discharged on April 8, last—nearly a year ago—lets the decision hospital last week. She had been an inmate for three weeks, severely ill with diphtheria. She is now with friends at 2818 Vernon avenue.

When a mistrial was declared in her case last summer Judge Denis E. Sullivan fixed her bail at $5,000 and she was released pending a new trial. Meanwhile the Wayne administration in the state's attorney's office went out and the Hayne administration came in. The case was kept upon the books of the office. It was said Monday that it would be assigned to an assistant state's attorney and brought to a hearing shortly.

The elections will be held at the usual places, in Barrington township at the village hall and in Cuba township at the office of Town Clerk Schaefer, and the polls will be open from 7:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

CONCERT COMPANY TO ENTERTAIN FARMERS ARE STILL HOLDING OUT SEVERE STORM CAUSES DAMAGE

Barrington Orchestra Will Give Vocal and Musical Program at M. E. Church Next Thursday.

The Barrington Concert company will give an entertainment at the Methodist Episcopal church, next Thursday evening, April 3. A good musical program with several new features will be given and Mrs. Emma C. W. Matthews of Chicago will give a number of her excellent readings.

The reputation of the Barrington Concert company for orchestral music is well known here, having read at several local entertainments. She was one of the most popular entertainers of the talent heard at the chautauque here last summer and will probably be remembered by her renditions of "Barbara Frietie" and the "Pulman Car Dressing Room." This combination should attract a large attendance.

The work of this excellent orchestra is always highly spoken of and appreciated, but their entertainments have not been so well patronized as they desire and they announce that this will audience on this evening is of a size which will indicate the desire of the public to have them continue. The company is self-supporting and only works to pay expenses, without thought of personal financial gain.

Tickets will be on sale for this entertainment by members of the orchestra and at the Barrington pharmacy.

Refuse to Take Milk Board's Advice to Sell—Will Meet to Confer at Village Hall Tomorrow.

When asked about the milk situation this morning, one of the leaders of the local union said: "You may say that the milk question is what Sherman said was. I think that will cover the ground thoroughly."

The Milk Producers' association is advising the dairymen to sell to friendly companies such as Bowman's and Koe & Chappel, but the majority are refusing to do this. There is a difference of only 10 cents between the prices offered by the Bowman and those of the association officials look upon the fight as a success so far as this company is concerned but the dairymen are refusing to sign up unless they get exactly the price asked. A meeting was held at Crystal Lake and Palatine this morning and one will be held here to 10:00 o'clock, and it is now planned to have representatives of the local association of the three towns confer on Saturday, so that they may take action in union.

At the Borden stations they are still holding out and making arrangements to market their milk in Chicago or separate it if the price asked is not paid. At a meeting at Woodstock yesterday 65,000 were raised for this purpose. The local superintendent of the Borden plants are asking the farmers to defer action until Saturday, when they expect to be able to offer a better price.

The superintendent of the Borden company conferred with his assistants in Chicago and in hurrying back to call a meeting of the board of directors. At Dundee 40,000 pounds of milk were sold to the Oatman company yesterday at an average price of $1.50 for 3.5 milk.

Telephone and Telegraph Wires Put Out of Order—Students Four for Friends in Flooded Districts.

Sunday night's severe storm, which has done so much damage in Nebraska, Indiana and Ohio, did not overlook this section of the country entirely. A number of barns and small out-buildings were demolished, hay stacks upset and windmills blown down. The most serious accident which occurred near here happened at Oak Plaines when a brick chimney fell onto the caboose of a moving train on the Soo line, killing the conductor and a brakeman. L. Olsen's barn near Palatine was overturned and four horses and seven cows were killed. The Des Plaines river is on a rampage and the Plaines have been anxiously watched although no danger is anticipated from that source now as it was reported yesterday that the water had dropped three inches during the day.

Roselle takes first place in the number and unusual character of storm frecks in northern Illinois. Here are a few of them:

A farmer had just completed a modern residence, but was still living in the old farmhouse nearby. The storm knocked the house into kindling, but left the old one, with the family, intact.

A barn was scattered to the four winds, but its two horses tied to their mangers, and didn't even remove the night's ration of hay.

Another barn assumed the dirigibility of an aeroplane, ascending into space and leaving a haystack standing, well loaded, on the barn floor.

The greatest source of worry to local people at present is the fear for the safety of relatives who lived in the flood districts. The Volker family of Main street have relatives at Piqua, Ohio, which is in the heart of the flooded territory in that state. One sister of Mrs. Volker, Mrs. Schlusser, has visited here several times and is quite well known locally. Mr. and Mrs. George Atkins have a number of relatives in Dayton, Ohio, and there are many others who have relatives whom they consider may be in danger. None of them have been able to get into communication with their friends or relatives as yet.

Word was received this morning from Rev. Eugene Wilking and family, who left here Tuesday night for New York, from which place they will leave for Germany, stating that they had a trying time on their trip through Indiana and Ohio but got through safely after being delayed for hours.

Mr. Wilking says: "The trouble began at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and came to an end at Columbus, Ohio. The country is over-flooded and the train ran through water, sometimes three and four feet deep, and at one time a car was derailed, but a wreck was averted and we passed the danger line safely, although hours behind schedule."

PROPOSITION MADE TO CONSOLIDATE BANKS

First Stockholders Meeting Held Sunday Day and Directors Elected—All Prominent Business Men.

NEW DIRECTORS IN FAVOR OF PLAN

Board Met Immediately and Voted Unanimously to Accept—Stockholders Must Decide.

The meeting of subscribers to the stock of First State Bank of Barrington was held Saturday afternoon in the village hall and was well attended, there being represented, either in person or by proxy, two hundred eighty-two of the three hundred shares of stock. The meeting was called to order by G. W. Spunner, one of the four commissioners authorized by the auditor of public accounts to organize the bank, the other commissioners being Henry J. Lagaschulte, August W. Meyers and J. L. Meiners. Howard P. Castle was selected to act as chairman, and Miles T. Lamey as secretary of the meeting.

After some discussion as to the number of directors to be elected, a motion was carried placing the number at eight. There were 14 of the stockholders who subscribed for ten shares or more of the stock, thus qualifying them to serve as directors. Of this number, Judge C. S. Cutting, R. R. Hammond, Charles S. Castle, G. W. Lagaschulte and Fred Hobeln caused it to be announced that they were not candidates. From the remaining number, the following directors were elected, each receiving, on the first ballot, more than the necessary majority: H. J. Lagaschulte, Miles T. Lamey, August W. Meyers, Howard P. Castle, George J. Hager, George W. Spunner, John L. Meiners, Edward W. Riley.

Following the announcement by the chairman that it would devolve upon the directors to elect the officers of the bank, and to issue a call to the subscribers to the stock for the payment of their subscriptions, the meeting adjourned.

Immediately following the stockholders' meeting, the directors met. The principal business considered was a proposition looking to the consolidation of the new bank and The Barrington Bank of Robertson, Plagge & Company. This proposition had been brought about principally through the efforts of Spencer Otto, who believed that the interests of Barrington would be best served by having one strong bank, in which were combined all the prominent business interests, rather than two banks, which would divide the business, and necessarily reduce the profits of each. The directors voted unanimously to accept the proposition, under which, it ratified by the stockholders at a meeting to be held on the capital stock of First State Bank of Barrington will be increased from $30,000 to $50,000, the remaining $20,000 of stock over that now taken to be subscribed by John Robertson, J. C. Plagge and A. L. Robertson and others not included among those who have already subscribed. Additional directors to the number of seven will be elected from among the subscribers upon the completion of the organization of the new bank, it will take over the business of the present bank.

While it is too early to predict what the bank's policy will be, it is undoubtedly safe to say that it will at once open a savings department, and will provide complete facilities for the convenience of safety deposit box holders. The aim of the officers and directors will be to give Barrington and vicinity bank accommodations equal to those furnished anywhere in places similarly located.
