OUR APOLOGY.

Last week we mentioned the little celebration that the sympathizers of woman's suffrage had Thursday morning when Governor Duane signed their bill—mentioned in a too serious and cynical manner, we are told. We attempted to tell the affair just exactly as it happened with no expression of personal opinion and without laudation or criticism—we reserve this column in which to express our own opinions and in the balance of the paper publish only news or features.

If our story last week had displeased one or two people we would not have been surprised. There are as many opinions in this world as there are people and it is impossible to please all, but so many were displeased last week that we feel it is necessary to take the incident up again.

The idea of blowing the whistles in honor of that event, originated with Mrs. Miles T. Lamey, who thinks we wrote in such a manner as to cause the blame for the calling out of the fire department to fall upon her. Mr. Gieske, proprietor of the laundry, is afraid we have insinuated that he was at fault for blowing the whistle; the firemen—some of them—are angry because they think we were making them ridiculous and the suffragists are "sore" because they are afraid we were being humorous at their expense.

We intended neither to be funny or critical, but to state the facts and stop there, and if anyone reads anything else into the article we wish to assure them that it is not there. We wrote the article and ought to know.

It has been said that the incident was really "funny." The humorous side of it is not apparent to us, but we can see the pious and magnanimous aspect and sincerely congratulate the participants in that praiseworthy observance.

If the article in question has been construed to mean that this paper is not in favor with the woman's suffrage movement, we wish to disavow our readers at once. We are as heartily in accord as every right-thinking person, male or female, must be.

As for the one unfortunate part of the affair, the calling out of the fire department, Arnett Lines rang the fire bell—rang it in the spirit of good citizenship which moves every worthwhile member of a community at times like that, believing that there was in truth a neighbor's property in danger, but the blame, if there be any, must rest upon his shoulders. Anyhow they're broad enough to bear it.

FOURTH OF JULY WARNING.
The state fire marshal sends out the following warning which contains much good sense and may well be heeded:
"With the approach of the Fourth of July it is well to call your attention to the fact that many serious fires are caused each year by a too enthusiastic celebration of Independence day. A proper and sane celebration of this day is one of the serious problems which concerns us at the present time. Fire works are dangerous playthings and should be used with the greatest caution. Every year much valuable property is destroyed, many people injured and many lives lost by the careless use of fireworks. There are some kinds of fireworks the use of which should be prohibited at all times and under all circumstances. Among these are cannon crackers, fire balloons, toy pistols, toy cannons and revolvers firing blank cartridges.
Private citizens and various officials of cities throughout the state of Illinois should take extra precaution and all yards and premises should be cleared of rubbish, cellar doors and windows should be kept closed and stables and barns opened only when necessary, so that falling sparks may not cause serious fires."

AMBITION TALKS

BY HARLAN READ

EFFORT IS LIFELONG; RESULTS ARE SUDDEN.

Any task's conclusion comes with amazing rapidity when the results of long labor begin to accumulate. The prudent money-saver struggles through a series of years with small economies, and one day suddenly, perhaps, in the twinkling of an eye, he realizes that the result has been comfortably attained.

The student often wrestles for half a lifetime, not thoroughly grasping the essential of true learning, and then in some one sentence that he reads, a great central truth flashes across his mind, and he begins to gather the scattered threads together.

The man who first said "All things come to him who waits" might have added, "They require years of preparation, but when they come they appear suddenly."

This sudden flash of accomplishment is what we call inspiration. But it is not. It is the merely the rapid moving of results when all the mines have been laid, the workers in readiness and the fuse touched with a small, silent streak of fire.

It is the rule of growth that details must first be met and mastered by the thousands, before general rules can be understood; and that rules must be learned by the score before general principles are realized.

When a man masters a principle, he suddenly reaches an intellectual pinnacle from which he can survey everything about him. One of the greatest rewards of mental culture comes when the thinker begins to realize that he is able to base all his judgment on correct fundamental principles and the grasping of these comes with suddenness.

Love.
I am inclined to believe that for a woman love is the supreme authority—that which judges the rest and decides what is good or evil. For a man, love is subordinate to right. It is a great passion, but it is not the source of order, the synonym of reason, the criterion of excellence. It would seem, then, that a woman placed her ideal in the perfection of love and a man in the perfection of justice.—Henri Frederic Amiel.

Good May Come From Change.
When we go away from home we leave behind old enemies as well as old friends. When we are free from the sinister expectations of schoolmates we may amend old errors on a new stage with success. Then, too, a new home brings into play areas of the mind otherwise unfruitful because untitled.

Absent-minded.
"Smaller is an about-minded fellow," said Bikas. "When he was engaged to Mrs. B, he asked her to go to the opera with him one night and brought only one thing. He explained to her by saying that he was so used to occupying a single chair with her that he didn't think."

About Women.
"The difficult thing to understand about women is, that there's nothing to understand. Once master this fact, and you've got the key to one of the most provoking mysteries of life."—William Hewlett.

Some Use After All.
Diminutive Onlooker (after golfer makes his sixth fruitless stroke)—"If you dig up any wriggly worms, can I use 'em, guv'nor, 'cos I'm going a-fishin'?"

Gentleness.
Gentleness is far more successful to all its ends; for the violence—indeed, violence is a deadly frustration. Its own purpose, while gentleness scores over falls.—Locke.

May Need It in a Hurry.
Wall street continues to ship gold to Europe. Has President Wilson the plans and specifications of his Hamaa gibbet?

Discontentment.
The poor are discontented because they can't get all they want; the rich because they can't want all they get.

The Flower of the Day.
To this day the Italians call the orange portugalli because they had this fruit first from Portugal.

HAVE YOU HEARD?
Kind friends, have you heard of the town of No-Good, on the banks of the river Blow, where the sometimes or other sports the air and the soft Go-as-a-grow? It lies in the valley of What's-the-use, in the province of Lather-alide; it's the home of the reckless I don't care, where the Give-it-up abide. The town is as old as the human race, and it grows with the flight of years; it is wrapped in the fog of the idler's dream, it's streets are paved with discarded sobriety and are sprinkled with useless tears.

THEY SAY THAT

Boys who smoke cigarettes rarely make failures in after life, because they seldom have any life.

It is been so hot of late that even the devil complained.

Your editor may be called upon to write your obituary some day. Is it necessary to point out the moral?

We get in life just what we expect. Ignorance discussing wisdom is one of the original jokes.

The truth is never pleasant though pessimism is quite often the truth. Many contemplated marriages fall through because the young people put it off so long they grow tired of each other.

EVENTS AT LAKE ZURICH

News of Beautiful Summer Resort and the Progressive People Who Reside There.

Come Here Tomorrow

G. W. Foreman made a business trip to Chicago yesterday, one of his purposes being to secure a band for the Fourth, and he telephoned in the evening that he had engaged a Chicago brass band to furnish music for us that day. Great plans are being made for the day. Besides the band, ball game, two dances afternoon and evening and the attractions of our beautiful lake, there will be all sorts of amusement usually found at good Independence day celebrations. The members of the Lake Zurich Athletic club, local merchants and keepers of hotels, boarding houses and resorts are all making plans to care for an enormous crowd of visitors tomorrow and we are confident that their ideas are not extravagant, for all indications are that their facilities will be taxed to the utmost capacity.

Woodmen Take in Members

The local lodge of Modern Woodmen of America, at its meeting Tuesday evening took in two new members and still has four candidates who will be taken care of soon. The officers suggest that now would be a good time for any one desiring to join the fraternity to place their applications as the special rate of two dollars for initiation fee, three dollars less than the regular fee holds good until August 1 only.

Ball Team Wins

The Lake Zurich baseball team defeated the Royal Blue's team of Chicago last Sunday by the score of four to one. Only seven innings were played, the game being called at that time to allow the visitors to catch a train home. Tomorrow, the Fourth, the local team will play the Des Plaines team and are expecting a victory which will offset some things that team has done to us in the past.

Mail Comes Over New Road.

Mail now arrives over the new railroad. The service thus far has not been as satisfactory as that furnished by the stage, but our folks understand both postmasters and railway mail clerks are unfamiliar with handling our mail through Palestine and we have patience, expecting a service better than ever in the very near future.

Dance Each Saturday Evening.

William Bicknese will give a dance on the afternoon and evening of the Fourth and also on the following Saturday evening, and announces that he will continue to give a dance each Saturday evening during the summer. Music for his dances is furnished by his electric orchestra.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Scholz desire to express their sincere thanks to their kind friends and neighbors for the sympathy shown them and assistance rendered on the occasion of their recent great bereavement the loss of their beloved daughter.

SHORT LOCAL ITEMS.

Fred Seip and family spent Monday in Chicago.

Mrs. Blackenberg recently purchased a new automobile.

Arthur Froelich, who has been quite ill, is improving.

The Jaschal and Thoms buildings are nearing completion.

Miss Ruby Austin of Waukegan is visiting at H. L. Prehn's.

Miss Alma Eichenman is spending a few weeks with her parents here.

J. K. Orvis transacted business here in the interest of the new road Monday.

Walter Prehn visited with a lady friend at Waukegan Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Mathias and son Jack of Chicago have arrived to spend the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schumacher of Glimmer buried a young child at the cemetery here Monday.

The assessment rolls of the townships of Cuba and Els will be published in this paper next week.

George Wagner and John Wesolowski and families of Barrington enjoyed an outing and picnic on the lake shores Sunday.

The lumber needed for the new school building arrived Tuesday and it is expected that the work will now go forward without further delay.

Miss Lillian Grimm and Fred Grimm of Els township left this week for Springfield, Ohio, to visit relatives. Miss Lillian expects to spend a month there.

Named Reindeer.
In England one is taxed for calling one's house by a pet name. Some offenders ought to be taxed a lot; for instance, "Happithome" is the name of one dirty, decayed, originally cheap little house.
