Strengthen Weak Kidneys.
Nearly every woman needs a good laxative. Dr. King's New Life Pills are good because they are prompt, safe, and do not cause pain. Mrs. M. C. O. Calkins of Leaside, Ont., says "Dr. King's New Life Pills helped my trouble greatly. I was a box today, that I never could have gotten out of my miserable state. My baby was afflicted with breaking out of the skin all over the face and scalp. Doctors and specialists failed to help. We tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and were overjoyed to see baby completely cured before our box was used." writes Mrs. Strubler, Dubuque, Iowa. All drug stores, or by mail, 50c.

What He Would Do.
A young lady visiting her relations on a farm went out in the yard to watch her young cousin play with a chicken. Watching him for some time she asked him: "Willie, if that chicken were to lay an egg, what would you do with it?" He looked surprised, then said: "Oh, I'd sell it to a museum. That chicken's a rooster."

The ONLOOKER

HENRY HOWLAND

A FARMER'S COMPLAINT

They say the farmers get it all. They claim we live in princely style. But still my income is pretty small. Though I keep working all the while. I have to live on what I have to eat. Would hardly please a millionaire.

They're blaming us because they pay so much for meat and other things. To judge by what they have to say. You'd think the farmers all were kings. I have to live on what I have to eat. Would hardly please a millionaire.

My wife and I waste our costly fare. And on her hands no jewels blaze. I tell you honestly that here I am pretty much all day long. Yes, it is true that eggs are high. But so are all the things we buy.

There may be farmers who have learned from what, by working hard, they've earned. But I am not a Croesus yet. And wouldn't you want turned good pay to be a farmer, any way?

Looking Ahead.

"What are you thinking about, John?" asked the teacher. "You seem to be greatly worried."

"I was reading an article in one of the magazines last night about the danger of our forests being destroyed unless something was done to stop the people who are cutting down the trees."

"Yes, forest destruction is a thing that ought to be prevented. But I wouldn't let it worry me. If I were in your place."

"I can't help thinking how sad it would be if I grew up and got run over by the cars, and the forests were all denuded, so there'd be no chance for me to get a wooden leg."

Premature Baldness.

Little Harry's father was premature. He had frequently the child had heard the matter mentioned and many times had he heard his parent explain that he had lost his hair before he was thirty years old.

One day Harry was sent away to stay for a week or two with his grandmother. When he was taken home again he found there a little brother. He looked for a long time at the baby, and then, turning to his mother, asked:

"Mamma, how old was he when he lost his hair?"

IMMATERIAL.

"Great heavens!" cried the drug clerk. "What is it?"

"What is it?" asked the druggist.

"I gave that boy half tonic instead of cough syrup."

"Never mind. We make a profit of 90 per cent on each."

Ecstasies of Genius.

"I wonder," said the beautiful grass widow, "if it is true that all geniuses are eccentric?"

"I suppose it is," replied the young man who had succeeded in getting a fortune poem published in a magazine. "One of my own peculiarities is that I never can get without first rubbing my fork with my napkin."

Johnny's Plans.

"Our Johnny has saved up $5 which he is going to spend for fireworks on the Fourth of July."

"I suppose you expect Johnny to go out in a blaze of glory?"

Fortunate Mary.

Mary had a little lamb. She swapped it for a pig. The price of the pig was $100. Makes Mary's fortune big.

The Cause.

"So they are going to celebrate their crystal wedding?"

"Yes. Neither of them has ever been willing to surrender the children to the other."

Generally.

Generally the man who tries, by acting in an eccentric manner, to appear to be a genius is merely imitating another's faults.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

HERE is an ugly kind of forgiveness in this world—a kind of forgiveness that is not like the quilla. Men take one who has offended and set him down before the blow of the quilla. Men take one who has offended and burn him into him, and when they have finished him, they throw his data, then they forgive him.

MEATS.

The German sour meat is not well known among our meat eaters, and is so altogether good that it should be better known.

German Sour Meat.—Add to a half cup of vinegar a cupful of water, one onion and a teaspoonful of whole allspice, one tablespoonful of sugar and salt to taste. Put a piece of meat for roasting in this vinegar and allspice stand three days, when it is ready to be browned in fat and roast, using the pickle to baste it when roasting.

Four o'clocks.—Take a nice piece from the round, lay in vinegar, with an onion, salt, allspice and pepper, with one bay leaf; let stand three to five days, depending on the amount of the meat. Brown the meat in a deep frying pan, pour in the vinegar and sufficient water to cover the meat; strain the gravy from the spices, and thicken with four before serving.

Mutton With Peas.—Cut mutton in serving sized pieces, brown and put to cook in a small amount of water; when nearly done add a can of peas and season well. Serve with the peas poured over the mutton.

Brown Steaks.—So few people know how good a brown steak may be. Cut the meat, which may be the tougher portions of the round or a piece for roasting. Cut up small pieces and brown in a little hot suet which has been tried out. Add a small chopped onion, and let it brown with the meat. Dress with four, and cook with boiling water, just kept at the simmering point until the meat is tender. Strain with boiled potatoes. The seasoning may be given before the four is added to the meat.

Hamburg Steak.—Season hamburger steak with a chopped onion, allspice, cloves, paprika and salt. With ready to serve pour over a cup of well seasoned tomato sauce.

Old chicken will serve a small family for several meals. Fry the bits liked best, stew and have biscuits and gravy with the larger portions.

HE reason that cooking so fails to be far below the rank of other household industries, and therefore often more of a hindrance than a help.

BROTHS FOR THE SICK.

Broth is a liquid containing the juice of soluble parts of meat and bone which have been extracted by long, slow cooking. When cold, it is more or less solid, according to the gelatinous nature of the ingredients.

The chief object in making broth is to obtain the largest possible amount of nutriment from the meat, so we cut it in small pieces and soak it in cold water, using the water as well as the meat in the slow cooking which follows. A tightly-covered kettle which will retain the steam is desirable, otherwise much of the flavor is lost by evaporation.

Mutton Broth.—Mutton broth is the accepted kind for the convalescent. Wipe a piece of the neck weighing two pounds, cut off all skin and fat and cut the meat in small pieces. Put the bones into the kettle with the meat, add cold water and let them stand an hour to extract the juices. Heat gradually to the boiling point, season with salt and pepper and simmer for two hours, but do not allow to boil. Remove fat and strain through a coarse sieve. Serve hot. In reheating, use a double boiler.

Three tablespoonfuls of rice or barley may be added; cook the barley overnight, add to the broth and cook until the grains are tender. If the broth is made the day before and cold, the fat may be removed.

Nutritious Beef Broth.—Cut three pounds of solid meat from the shoulder or shin in small pieces, put the cracked bone into an earthen jar, cover with cold water and cook slowly with the meat for twelve hours in a slow oven. A useless cooker is an ideal place to prepare this broth. Strain through a colander, add salt and cool quickly. When cold, remove the fat. Serve cold as a jelly or heat to 170 degrees, not higher, as boiling injures its value.

Egg Broth.—Beat the white and yolk of an egg separately and add the yolk gradually to a cup of hot beef broth, stirring constantly. Add salt and add in the white of egg, reheat carefully and serve hot.

EVENTS AT LAKE ZURICH

News of Beautiful Summer Resort and the Progressive People Who Reside There.

Ball Team Badly Beaten.

The local baseball team went to Waukegan Labor day and was defeated by a team there on the tune of 16 to 3. The boys cite the fact that they did not have their regular pitcher as an excuse. They expect to go back there soon however and redeem their reputation. Tomorrow they will play Rockfeller at the Lake county fair. A game was scheduled for last Sunday but the opposing team failed to show up. No arrangements have been made for the coming Sunday.

School Opens Monday.

Cook, the Des Plaines contractor, is plastering the school house this week. It will be ready for the finishers and should be completed and ready for occupancy in a month. School will open Monday in the old building with the same teachers as last year—Miss Hannah Schultz as principal and Miss Maggie Davis of Waukegan as assistant.

Prospects Good For Bank.

John Hein, president of the Brookfield state bank, was a visitor here over Labor day. He is leading the movement to establish a state bank here and is receiving considerable encouragement. It is probable that such an institution will be opened as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made.

Fred Folk visited friends at Palatine yesterday.

Henry Branding is having his house repainted.

Walter Prehm visited friends in Chicago Sunday.

E. A. Ficke transacted business in Waukegan Saturday.

Emil Frank brought a lot last week in the Robertson subdivision.

Fred Blau and Miss Lydia Hokenauer were Chicago visitors Labor day.

Mrs. Maria Kerns and daughter Alice are visiting this week at the T. Geary home.

Herman Heller has purchased the George Graber residence on the lake shore.

Miss Edna Blankenberg, daughter of Mrs. Dora Blankenberg, is to be wedded in the near future.

Miss Nettie Hillman will leave for DeKalb Sunday where she will attend the state normal school.

Jack Mathias took his brother, Robert, who has been visiting here, home Sunday via automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Robertson of Little Rock, Arkansas, are staying here at one of the Dymond cottages.

Meas. William Bickness, John Geary, Elmer Robertson and John Meier were Grayslake visitors Tuesday.

John Meier of Huntley, who formerly conducted a blacksmith shop here, is spending the week with local friends.

William Bickness gave a dance at his new home Saturday evening. O'Connor's orchestra of Chicago will furnish the music.

The dance given by the Lake Zurich Athletic club at Bickness' pavilion Saturday evening enjoyed a most excellent patronage.

Edward Branding, who works for Swift & Company in Chicago, is enjoying a two weeks vacation. He will return to work next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Geary, William Bickness, Mrs. Nora Fuller and Miss Helen Parsh called on Eman Opatraty at Fox river grove Saturday.

Miss Helen Parsh, who has been visiting at the Geary home here for two weeks, left Tuesday morning for her home at Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Henry Hoffman disposed of two carloads of mill cobs at private sale during the past two weeks and firm & Froelich sold a car load at auction.

The local merchants are planning on installing automobiles next spring for delivery purposes. August Froelich is also another prospective autoist.

Monday evening from Sheppard, Michigan, and will take the place in John Fink's store vacated by her sister, Lydia, who is to be married soon to Fred Blau.

Today is the big day at the county fair for Lake Zurich people. Among the visitors from here are Mr. and Mrs. Lou Geary, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoff, Mrs. Charles Weaver, and Will Schumacher. William Bickness also took over a big load today.

Most of the people who have been spending the summer here at the cottages have returned to their city homes. Last Sunday was, however, a big day for Lake Zurich. The Lake side hotel fed 250 people that day and other hotels and boarding houses had a goodly patronage.

Our Friends and Enemies.
The things which our friends do with and for us form a part of our lives, for they strengthen and advance our personality. But the things which our enemies do to us form a part of our lives; for they are only as our enemies desire against us do not experience them, reject them, and guard ourselves against them as against frost, storms, rain, hail or any other external inconvenience which may be encountered.—Goethe.

Milk and Music.

It is a little known fact that the most delightful music at the present time is produced by playing on milk. The supply of ivory nowadays does not to a great extent meet the demand. Strange as it may sound, skim milk forms a substitute. It is used for making the keyboards of pianos, and in appearance this hardened substance is hardly distinguishable from ivory.

Primitive Shaving.

The output barber places around his customer's neck a peculiar cap with a semicircular piece cut out of one side, so that it fits partially around the neck under the chin. Water is put into the pan and the barber makes a lather with his hands and rubs it on the customer's face, usually using his hands for this purpose also.

Whaling at Natal.

The whaler Eglant the other morning brought in the first humpback whale captured in Natal this season. It was a good whale and very fat. On a second visit to the ocean the same whaler captured a blue whale 70 feet long, which landed in the evening. Apparently the baleen whales are early this year.—Natal Mercury.
