CELEBRATE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY HERE

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lytle, Residents of this Village, Wedded Half a Century.

A very delightful social event occurred on Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Emily Hawley on Grove avenue, being the observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lytle. The day was proved propitious and the house was filled with guests. The bride and groom of fifty years were the happy recipients of many hearty congratulations at having rounded out half a century of happy wedded life.

Judging from their appearance one would say that there were yet in store for them many added years of life. Mr. and Mrs. Lytle have made friends wherever they have been and have been blessed with children and grandchildren who are glad to show them honor.

It was evident from the number of gold pieces and other articles of value on the table that the guests meant to signalize their presence in some proper and substantial way and this they did with very gratifying results. There was no formal program but everyone seemed glad of the opportunity offered for social reunion and genial fellowship.

Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess of the occasion, Mrs. Hawley, and those who were favored with an invitation to be present felt that they had enjoyed one of the rare occasions of life.

Mr. and Mrs. Lytle were the parents of five children, Mrs. Emily Hawley and Charles Lytle of Barrington, Mrs. A. G. Smith of Palatine, Dr. Charles Lytle of New York and W. A. Lytle of Elmhurst. There are fifteen grandchildren.

Mr. Lytle has retired from active business life and is living quietly with his honored wife in his home on Hough and Russell streets, where they are always glad to see their friends.

Following is a list of guests who were present on Monday afternoon:

Mr. and Mrs. William Harlow and Orrin Harlow Vesper of Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. A. Christensen and Mr. and Mrs. Anna Westman of Sheridan; Mrs. James Cooper Grinstead of Kansas; Annie Vant and daughter, Des Moines, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. James Raby, Downers Grove; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Rockfeller; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bennett, Woodstock; Mrs. C. S. Conklin, Austin; Mesdames W. N. Julian, Charles Holton, George Leitch, Joseph Newton, Irving Park; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Smith and children, Palatine; Mr. and Mrs. George Lytle and children, Libertyville; C. W. Lytle, Mrs. Emily Hawley, Fred Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Mattison, Mesdames Amelia Colby, Adelle Liles, Adelle Johnson, Hannah Powers, McCauley, C. O. Winter, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson, Mrs. John Page and Miss Eva Castle of this village.

Others besides the forty-eight here mentioned were invited but could not be present.

Need Not Remove Loose Coins.

Rural letter carriers are not required to take loose coins from letter boxes, the money must be enclosed in an envelope, wrapped securely in paper or deposited in a coin holding receptacle so that it can be easily and quickly taken from the boxes, so Fourth assistant Postmaster-General James Blakeslee has ruled.

Action regarding the matter was taken by the delegates attending the Illinois rural carrier's convention held in Aurora a few weeks ago. They endorse the ruling.

Carriers who lift coins not so enclosed, wrapped or deposited will do so purely as a matter of accommodation and not by any direction or requirement of the department, the postal officer says.

Deputy Cook County Coroner Here.

David J. Gillespie, deputy Cook county coroner, came here yesterday morning to complete the inquiry into the death of Frederick Toppel, who was struck by an E. J. A. E. train two weeks ago and died soon afterwards. Mr. Gillespie was here August 29 and impounded a jury, but was obliged to continue the case because the witnesses could not be secured at that time. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death yesterday, entirely exonerating the railroad company from blame.

Two freight cars were telescoped and an engine was up-ended in a rear end collision 300 feet north of the Rondout station at 1:00 o'clock Friday. Two wrecking crews were called out to the wreck as soon as possible. The wreck terminated fortunately inasmuch as no one was injured.

OLD RESIDENT VISITS HERE.

Dwight C. Beverly, a Barrington Pioneer, is Paying a Visit to Old School Friends.

Dwight C. Beverly, a pioneer of Barrington, who lived here on his father's farm situated just west of this village and now known as the Freeman farm, from 1844 to 1868, has been visiting old schoolmates here the last week, including Mrs. Arletta Sizer, Mrs. A. D. Parker, Mrs. Colby, Mrs. Johnson and Fred Frye.

Mr. Beverly shipped the first case of milk that went to Chicago from this village and later run the first milk route in Barrington, delivering the milk with a pair of oxen. Old settlers will remember his father, who is now 96 years old, hale and hearty. He and his father worked on the railroad construction gang when the railroad went through here in 1854.

He enlisted in the Civil war in 1861 and was honorably discharged in 1862. He has lived in Burlington, Kansas, for 45 years and had not visited this town since he moved away.

MRS. M. E. BENNETT BURIED HERE

Former Barrington Woman Died in a Chicago Hospital Sunday—Funeral Was Held Here Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary E. Bennett, long a resident of Barrington, died at a hospital in Chicago Saturday afternoon. She was taken ill in Barrington at the home of her step-father, Albert Henderson, and failing to obtain relief, went to the hospital for an operation but had no sufficient strength to endure the ordeal.

The body was brought here for burial where funeral services were held on Tuesday at the residence of Dr. E. W. Oliver and at the Methodist church, Rev. O. P. Mattison, pastor of that church, officiating.

The church was full and the floral display, such as is not often seen, covering the casket and filling all the space inside the altar rail numbered many beautiful pieces.

Mrs. Bennett, having been an engineer on the North western road, a number of engineers were present from Chicago.

The singing was by a quartet consisting of Mrs. Pitt, of Iowa, Mrs. C. Howard Harden and Loretta Bennett. The pastor took for his text, Matthew IV, 5, "Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted."

The burial was at Evergreen cemetery.

ETHELDA BOYCE was born near Des Plaines, May 26, 1862. By the death of her father she was left when a very young child to the care of her widowed mother.

A few years later she became the step-daughter of Albert Henderson and the sister of two half-brothers, Rex and Albert Henderson. Her own brother, Charles Boyce, resides in this village. Sisters of Mr. Bennett, Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Martindale, were present at the funeral coming from Oklahoma. The girlhood days of Mrs. Bennett were passed in Barrington, where among her acquaintances she was ever a favorite.

When she reached womanhood she was united in marriage to Mark Bennett, August 25, 1880. There are two children, Durland and Beatrice. The family home was for a time in Chicago, then for some years in Barrington, and later in Wyoming and Florida near Titusville.

While here she was a member of the local Woman's Relief Corps and also belonged to Leominster chapter 494 Order of Eastern Star, to which latter organization, particularly, she was very much attached. Mrs. Bennett had come north for rest and a change of climate and had seemed to be much improved by the change. Her sudden death was a great shock to her friends and a severe blow to her husband and children.

Mrs. Bennett was a genial and friendly lady, highly thought of by all who knew her for her good qualities. She was ardently attached to her husband and family. Many will greatly miss her, but will always cherish her memory for what she was and for the good she did.

Card of Thanks.
We desire to thank our many kind friends for the sympathy shown us on the occasion of our recent bereavement, and also for the many floral offerings.

DAIRYMEN ARRANGE MEETING HERE

Local Milk Producers Will Meet Monday—West 16 St. Charles Last Week.

Members of the local branch of the Milk Producers association have arranged to meet next Monday morning at the village hall for the purpose of discussing prices and other matters of interest to the dairymen, at 9 o'clock.

Saturday many local milk producers and others interested in the dairy business attended the big milk producers' picnic at Foxworth's park, St. Charles. V. S. Loomis was the chief speaker at the picnic. He outlined the growth of the organization and the benefits derived from co-operation throughout the district. It is understood that the association has 1,000 more members this fall than last spring and that the producers have accordingly gained strength for the fall price campaign. J. E. Readlimer, Kane county farm expert, spoke on the subject of alfalfa growing and told the dairymen that he was in readiness to assist them with any agricultural problems that arise in their work.

W. E. Skinner, manager of the National Dairy Show association, talked in the interest of that organization, and Charles S. Potter of Elgin presided over the meeting.

The guests at the picnic were well entertained in other ways also. Col. C. H. Adams led 400 St. Charles Home boys through drills that commanded the admiration of the crowd. The boy's band also appeared. Pine water sports, held under charge of a committee headed by Louis Rockwell, were presented. In the afternoon ball game St. Charles defeated Dundee 7 to 5.

SECK CANNING PLANT HERE.

Local Men Visit Hoopston Industries as Guests of Spencer Otis.

Spencer Otis took a party of Barringtonians to Hoopston yesterday to inspect the plants of the Illinois Canning company and the Hoopston Canning company. On their arrival they were met by Wallace W. Abbott, president of Willard Abbott of this village, who is superintendent of the Illinois Canning company. He took the party through both plants and gave the gentlemen much valuable information. These companies each put up large quantities of corn in years when the crop is good. This

FARM DOCTOR FOR COOK COUNTY

Cook County Will Follow Lead of Other Progressive Illinois Communities.

A farm expert for Cook county is being talked of and the county commissioners, Association of Commerce, Commercial club and City club, Chicago, and kindred organizations, will be asked to assist the farmers in financing the proposition.

The suggestion was made by Secretary Bert Bull of the crop improvement committee of the Council of Grain Exchange after hearing County School Superintendents Edward J. Tobin describe the agricultural course in the Cook county rural schools and A. G. Smith, Illinois state leader of farm demonstrators for the department of agriculture describe the work being done in other counties. Both of these speakers endorsed the plan and it will be taken up at once through the City club.

There are now 11 counties in this state employing farm experts, and the movement is well under way in Lake county.

The demonstrators and their counties are: E. J. Robbins, Tazewell; E. B. Heston, DuPage; Henry Truitt, Peoria; F. C. Grams, Will; R. C. Bishop, Livingston; Dicks James, McHenry; C. H. Oathout, Champaign and J. E. Readlimer, Kane.

MRS. REESE DEAD.

Old Resident of this Village and Vicinity Passed Away Tuesday Evening.

Mrs. Mary Reese died at 7:45 o'clock Tuesday evening at her home on North Hough street, after an illness of several months. Her death had been expected for some time so that her relatives and friends were not unprepared.

She had been in poor health since the death of her son, William, early in the spring, and had suffered with a tumor and complication of diseases.

Mrs. Reese, the daughter of John and Elizabeth Law, was born on her parents' farm at Long Grove, May 3, 1860, and made her home there until her marriage at the age of 18 to August Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Reese then settled on a farm two miles east of this village and there lived 30 years until 1898 they retired and moved to this village. Mr. Reese died four years later.

FOUR BARRINGTON BOYS NEAR DEATH

Train Deposits Automobile in Ditch—Four Occupants of Machine Escape Unhurt.

Four young Barrington boys had an almost miraculous escape from death in an automobile accident Saturday afternoon, and luckily all got off without serious injury. Edwin Powers, son of Marshall Edward Peters, was driving his father's five passenger Studebaker car and was accompanied by Conrad Lipofsky, Alfred Church and Raymond Powers, all under 16 years of age.

Retraining from Lake Zurich about 2:30 they were struck by an extra freight, number 541, at Pomeroy's crossing and the car was overturned and almost demolished.

The crossing referred to is a particularly dangerous place, brush and trees obscuring the railroad track so that a train approaching from the south can not be seen until one is within 20 feet of the track. The boys say they were not aware of the coming train until it was almost upon them. Powers, who was riding in the front seat with Peters, started a warning and jumped, but before he had time to reverse the machine the E. J. A. E. engine was upon him, and striking the rear wheel of the automobile, it overturned it and deposited it upside down in the ditch at the side of the road.

The boys remained in the car, pinned under it. Lipofsky and Church were able to crawl from under the car but the Peters boy was held between the auto and the ground so that he could not extricate himself and was obliged to remain there until trainmen came to his rescue.

The parents of the boys were notified of the accident and rushed to the scene at once accompanied by a number of friends, but were greatly relieved to find the boys practically unhurt. The Powers boy was not injured at all but the three who remained in the automobile were considerably scratched and bruised although none of them were hurt to any extent.

The automobile was allowed to remain where it lay until Sunday afternoon when several auto loads of men drove to the scene of the accident and placed the car in the road where it was hitched on to by Harry Pingle, Sr., and hauled to the local garage. It was found to be so badly damaged that it will cost almost as much as a new car, to have it repaired and Mr. Peters has decided to try to sell it as it is, rather than attempt to put it in running condition again. He expects the railroad company to settle with him next week.

Assess Modern Woodmen.

The Livingston county board of review Monday assessed the Modern Woodmen of America, with head offices at Rock Island, a full valuation on $2,800,185 on its reserve fund held by Ed Becker D. S. Myers. The assessment is levied in the city of Fontana.

Head offices of this organization have intimated at various times recently that in case this reserve fund should be taxed that the head offices of the company would be removed to Indiana.

It is understood that the Woodmen propose to carry the matter to the Supreme court—Chicago Journal.

LADIES OF THE DORCAS SOCIETY AND THEIR ASSISTANTS.
The above photograph was taken by a representative of the Universal Portland Cement company and is a likeness of the ladies of the Dorcas society of the local Baptist church and their young lady assistants who served dinner a few weeks ago to representatives of this company and the 100 farmers institute men who were inspecting near-by farms.

year the crop was short and they have put up about five million cans apple. During the season, which lasts about six weeks, more than 800 people are employed.

Largely as a result of these industries, land in the vicinity of Hoopston sells for $200 and upwards per acre. Rents run from $5.00 to $10.00 per acre.

Mr. Otis hopes to get local people interested in the building of such a plant in this village. If successful it would prove of great benefit to farmers in this vicinity. Those in the party besides Mr. Otis were: H. J. Legehnicht, John C. Piagge, George Humphrey, William Peters, P. A. Hawley, A. L. Robertson, A. W. Meyer and M. T. Loney.

Butter was quoted at 30 cents on the Elgin board of trade Monday, the same price as a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Reese were the parents of 11 children, two of whom, Henry and William, preceded their mother in death. The nine children living are: Mrs. George Berneus and Mrs. Edward Ewald of Chicago, Mrs. Carl Carver, Mrs. William C. Gottschalk, Mrs. William C. Gottschalk, Herman, Louis, Elmer and Mabel, all of this village. Mrs. Reese is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Louisa Witt of Long Grove and Mrs. Caroline Witt of Barrington, and one brother, Henry Law of Palatine.

She was a member of St. Paul's church and of the Frauenverein of that church. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1:00 o'clock from the home and later from St. Paul's church, Rev. Wilking, pastor of that church, officiating, and interment will be in St. Paul's cemetery.
