There would be a tremendous scandal and the family would want to be a scandal and the family would want to be a scandal and the family would make the scandal that would talk about it forever and the disgree she had how footby topon them alt. And how footby to be a scandal to would be, for, of course, fooths it would be, for, of course, everything was over for her now. And then she saw herself, Linds Roth, as she must have seemed to others—the parader, with her head high and her skriet stralling in the gutter mad. The despised woman was the straight of the straight o

"What will they do?" she whispered.

He was slow about answering.

He knew at once what she was thinking of, but it was not easy to answer her.

"Do? I'm afraid it's jail, ma'am."
