

Hold Meetings to Plan New Drivers' License Law

About 50 persons from various sections of the state gathered at a luncheon meeting in Springfield recently to organize a state-wide committee to work enactment of a drivers' license law from the 58th general assembly.

Petrarch in Literature

Petrarch lived in the Fourteenth century in the early days of the Italian Renaissance, and is remembered for the sonnets which he wrote in Italian and for his influence in reviving interest in classical antiquity.

Charcot Ranked Among "Pioneers of Medicine"

The glances surrounding Charcot in his lifetime obscured the true value of his work and of the man himself. It is one of the little ironies that it was his family work which, at the time, brought him worldwide fame and patients from every class of society.

Only Weak Characters Indulge in Self-Pity

Never complain. Let that be your leading principle. Self-pity is one of the worst habits any one can have. Unfortunately innumerable persons have this evil habit, to their own and other people's misfortune.

Spills Plan Will Go to Bank Receiverships

William L. O'Connell, Chicago, first chairman of the public utilities commission, which later was organized into the Illinois Commerce, will be in charge of closed banks of Illinois under State Auditor-elect Edward J. Barrett.

There is much being said these days relative to buying American Made Goods—It is the battle cry of young 1933—That is fine—But if it is a good policy for our country—Let's go a step farther—Buy from Home Merchants and help make Barrington prosper.

Athenian Citizen Seen as Man of Many Parts

Petrich's age shows that the outstanding Athenians were men of parts. Sophocles, for example, is now known as a poet only, but in 427 Pericles named him chief treasurer of the city.

Offer Bill to Legislator to Eliminate Speed Limit

A bill is being prepared for presentation to the next legislature to eliminate speed limits on Illinois hard roads outside cities. The new law would set a maximum speed limit at 45 miles an hour on rural highways.

Many Barrington Spectators at Ski Meet at Cary Hill. Many Barrington persons were spectators in the Central H. Skating rink at Cary Hill Sunday, and one Barrington youth was a contestant in the event.

Miss Waterman entered class B in the second highest of the four classes in the competition. Waterman jumped 112 feet on his first attempt and 137 on his second.

Charles Oman of Miami, N. D. won the class A competition with a jump of 164 and 174 feet. Severe Frothing of Milk was second with letters of 171 and 177 feet. Roy M. Johnson, formerly a Norge Ski club member, made the longest jump of the day, 176 feet, but fell down when he reached the flat.

The feature attraction of the day was the appearance of Miss Johanna Solstad of Norway, world champion women skier. The 19-year-old Norwegian girl jumped 136, 128, 125 in three attempts.
